

EUROPEAN GOSSIP.

Grand Garibaldian Procession in Rome.

OTHER INTERESTING CHIT-CHAT.

LONDON cablegrams say: Some of the British press... Mr. Gladstone's supposed tergiversation in approving the Turkish expedition to Egypt...

The Lords will sit on Monday on the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill. It is expected that the Prince of Wales will vote on the second reading...

Society has hit upon a new thing in fairs, namely, "a Lilliputian fair." The Duke of Wellington's riding school, under the patronage of several royal ladies...

Garibaldi's death is still of course a universal topic of conversation. Several of the English obituaries are exceedingly interesting and historically valuable...

Speaking of Mr. Haweis reminds me to mention another still more popular reverend gentleman, viz. Mr. Sigurdson, whose sermons are being read over the same...

It is a unique thing in museums has just been presented to the nation by Miss Marianne North. It is a collection of paintings of plants and their homes by herself...

Rome, June 11.—The Corso was crowded to-day; mourning draperies were everywhere displayed, and the national flags were at half mast...

The late Duke of Grafton is said to have shown some years ago, to a physician who dattered himself he had cured his Grace, all the bottles of medicine which had been prescribed...

The new comet discovered by the members of the eclipse expedition to Egypt has been named after the Khedive.

The relative cost in wear and tear of gold coins as compared with bank notes has lately been investigated in England...

The chariot ascended the Roman forum to the Capitol, where the Mayor and Common Council placed the bust in the Senate-chamber... The members of Parliament marched with the different associations...

matic. The latter appeared to be Adelaide Ristori. At 5 o'clock the procession was interrupted by a panic caused by the falling of a heavy banner opposite the Via Vittoria...

Wicked but much rebuffed barbarian. Come and pursue your crimes Bulgarian. By a piece of useful work.

Wicked but much rebuffed barbarian. Come and pursue your crimes Bulgarian. By a piece of useful work.

Try popoorn for nausea. Try a sunbath for rheumatism. Try ginger ale for stomach cramps.

Try a dry hot flannel over the seat of the neuralgia pain and renew frequently. Try taking your cod liver oil in tomato catsup...

Try taking a nap in the afternoon if you are going to be out late in the evening. Try a cloth wrung out of cold water put about the neck at night for sore throat.

Try walking with your hands behind your back if you find yourself becoming fatigued. Try a silk handkerchief over your face when obliged to go against a cold, piercing wind.

Try a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda (baking powder) in diarrheal troubles; give freely. Try a newspaper over the chest, beneath your coat, as a chest protector, in extremely cold weather.

Oscar Wilde has commenced at Richmond, Va., a month's lecture tour in the Southern States, after which he goes to Japan, via San Francisco, to study Japanese art.

Mr. Arthur Sullivan, the composer, has lost his mother, to whom he was devotedly attached.

But for the fact that Darwin had lived twenty years longer. "Every man who begins life by saying 'I can't do anything,' ends it by saying 'I haven't done anything.'"

In Michigan a man aged 101 recently made his will. He said some people were always putting off this work but he would not do so.

An Italian, who, it is perhaps unnecessary to say, has lived some time in America, has come to the conclusion that it is better to be killed than to be hanged.

Of the 564 new convicts who were received into the Ohio Penitentiary last year seventeen had a college education and fourteen had taken high school courses.

The English civil engineer, Douglas, is to be knighted for his successful work in the erection of the New Eddystone lighthouse.

Mr. Gladstone's son, Herbert, a member of Parliament, has been in ill-health for some time. The criminal news of a single week makes a sad showing of boish depravity.

LIGHTING OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

How and When Nipples Developed—Some Typical Cases.

At the meeting of the Ontario Medical Association in Toronto on Thursday Dr. Palmer read a paper on "Lighting of Public Schools." He said that it was generally observed that school work frequently impairs the vision...

A telegram from Winnipeg, dated Sunday night, says: A letter received by the Indian Office from Lieutenant-Governor Dewar...

A Little two year old child named Payne, who lived on William street, was put to bed yesterday, and after it had gone asleep the father and mother thought to gather around it during their absence...

A O. U. W. Temperate People vs. Intemperate People in Insurance Risks.

A despatch from Cincinnati says: The tenth session of the Supreme Lodge of A. O. U. W. has recently been held in this city. This financial exhibit of this Order is very favorable.

The widow of the late Luke Noble, of Corram, Essex, has gained an unenviable notoriety by marrying her deceased husband's widow ten eleven weeks after the death of her husband.

Footlights. Oscar Wilde has commenced at Richmond, Va., a month's lecture tour in the Southern States, after which he goes to Japan, via San Francisco, to study Japanese art.

But for the fact that Darwin had lived twenty years longer. "Every man who begins life by saying 'I can't do anything,' ends it by saying 'I haven't done anything.'"

In Michigan a man aged 101 recently made his will. He said some people were always putting off this work but he would not do so.

An Italian, who, it is perhaps unnecessary to say, has lived some time in America, has come to the conclusion that it is better to be killed than to be hanged.

Of the 564 new convicts who were received into the Ohio Penitentiary last year seventeen had a college education and fourteen had taken high school courses.

The English civil engineer, Douglas, is to be knighted for his successful work in the erection of the New Eddystone lighthouse.

Mr. Gladstone's son, Herbert, a member of Parliament, has been in ill-health for some time. The criminal news of a single week makes a sad showing of boish depravity.

A boy of Belleville, Ill., killed the girl who rejected his addresses on account of his dissipation. Two Arkansas boys quarrelled over a rabbit hunt, and one slew the other with an axe.

A Texas boy shot a little girl because she refused to put down a nail when he ordered her to. A Kansas boy is on trial for intentionally drowning his playmate in Wisconsin.

The fattest man in Maine is dead. His name was Joel Barry, and he weighed 400 pounds.

OUR PRAIRIE PROVINCE.

The Indian Problem—Child Harnessed to Plough—C. F. R. Management.

A telegram from Winnipeg, dated Sunday night, says: A letter received by the Indian Office from Lieutenant-Governor Dewar...

A Little two year old child named Payne, who lived on William street, was put to bed yesterday, and after it had gone asleep the father and mother thought to gather around it during their absence...

A O. U. W. Temperate People vs. Intemperate People in Insurance Risks.

A despatch from Cincinnati says: The tenth session of the Supreme Lodge of A. O. U. W. has recently been held in this city. This financial exhibit of this Order is very favorable.

The widow of the late Luke Noble, of Corram, Essex, has gained an unenviable notoriety by marrying her deceased husband's widow ten eleven weeks after the death of her husband.

Footlights. Oscar Wilde has commenced at Richmond, Va., a month's lecture tour in the Southern States, after which he goes to Japan, via San Francisco, to study Japanese art.

But for the fact that Darwin had lived twenty years longer. "Every man who begins life by saying 'I can't do anything,' ends it by saying 'I haven't done anything.'"

In Michigan a man aged 101 recently made his will. He said some people were always putting off this work but he would not do so.

An Italian, who, it is perhaps unnecessary to say, has lived some time in America, has come to the conclusion that it is better to be killed than to be hanged.

Of the 564 new convicts who were received into the Ohio Penitentiary last year seventeen had a college education and fourteen had taken high school courses.

The English civil engineer, Douglas, is to be knighted for his successful work in the erection of the New Eddystone lighthouse.

Mr. Gladstone's son, Herbert, a member of Parliament, has been in ill-health for some time. The criminal news of a single week makes a sad showing of boish depravity.

A boy of Belleville, Ill., killed the girl who rejected his addresses on account of his dissipation. Two Arkansas boys quarrelled over a rabbit hunt, and one slew the other with an axe.

A Texas boy shot a little girl because she refused to put down a nail when he ordered her to. A Kansas boy is on trial for intentionally drowning his playmate in Wisconsin.

The fattest man in Maine is dead. His name was Joel Barry, and he weighed 400 pounds.

INSOLVENCY SEQUEL.

Interesting Cases in the High Court.

The two cases of Benninger vs. Thrasher and Forrester vs. Thrasher, tried in the High Court of Justice, are interesting in themselves, but the points of law arising in them are still more noteworthy.

Low Water in Boilers. Locomotive, speaking of this subject, says that none of the appliances which are used in connection with a boiler are so important as the water gauge.

No More Cold Feet. A curious novelty was announced the other day in connection with some new houses which are being erected in New York with all the modern improvements.

The Notice of the Fingers. Dr. Hammond says that when you poke the end of your finger in your ear the roaring noise you hear is the sound of the circulation in your finger, which is the fact as any one can demonstrate.

Old Maggie Dee had fully her own share of Scotch prudence and economy. One bonnet had served her turn for upward of a dozen years, and some ladies who had used present bonnets with a new one, asked whether she would prefer silk or straw as material.

A Man Who Has Walked 175,200 Miles. George Fawcett completed in April last his forty-seventh year of service in the English Post Office as a rural messenger.

The Boston Herald gives two cases of arsenical poisoning in Cambridgeport from sleeping in a room newly papered.

A memorial window in honor of John Bunyan is to be placed in Elstow Church. Thus the man who spent two years in prison on account of his heresy and schism is venerated.

When a man has to hang to a street car strap for nearly an hour he realizes how trying is the position of the upright man.

Try planting sunflowers in your garden if you would like to live in a rural neighborhood.

An army of blackbirds recently devoured twenty acres of corn in one afternoon in Georgia.

The excavations at Babylon illustrate a curious prophecy of Jeremiah: "And they shall not take of this a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations, but there shall be desolations forever, saith the Lord."

An ambitious man who you can serve well often aids you to rise, but no higher than a his knee; otherwise you might be standing in his light.

PRETTY COSTUMES FOR LADIES.

Latest Novelties at a Gathering of Fashionable Folks.

The Baroness Alphonse de Rothschild has given a great musical evening at her hotel, Rue St. Florentin, overlooking the Tuilleries.

A pretty black and gold cotton dress described as seen in London. It is the latest novelty. It was made with a full skirt, flounced at each edge in gold and black.

Black and white together is fashionable in millinery. There are small white flowers, trimmed with black velvet in the latest style, and buttons of white straw setting the velvet prettily.

Many are interested in marriage anniversaries, and so we give here with both the old style and the new: First anniversary, iron; fifth anniversary, wood; tenth anniversary, tin; fifteenth anniversary, crystal; twentieth anniversary, china; twenty-fifth anniversary, silver; fortieth anniversary, woolen; forty-fifth anniversary, silk; fiftieth anniversary, gold; seventy-fifth anniversary, diamonds.

George Fawcett completed in April last his forty-seventh year of service in the English Post Office as a rural messenger. From 1835 to 1842 he rode between Sedburgh and adjacent stations, carrying mails in this way a total distance of 67,160 miles.

The Boston Herald gives two cases of arsenical poisoning in Cambridgeport from sleeping in a room newly papered. The room was occupied two successive nights by two different persons, each of whom became ill with vomiting and purging.

A memorial window in honor of John Bunyan is to be placed in Elstow Church. Thus the man who spent two years in prison on account of his heresy and schism is venerated.

When a man has to hang to a street car strap for nearly an hour he realizes how trying is the position of the upright man.

Try planting sunflowers in your garden if you would like to live in a rural neighborhood.

An army of blackbirds recently devoured twenty acres of corn in one afternoon in Georgia.

The excavations at Babylon illustrate a curious prophecy of Jeremiah: "And they shall not take of this a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations, but there shall be desolations forever, saith the Lord."

An ambitious man who you can serve well often aids you to rise, but no higher than a his knee; otherwise you might be standing in his light.