RULES AND REGULATIONS

1.—All competition for the following prizes will be open to the world except when otherwise specified in the prize list.

2.—The annual membership fee will be $1.00. Each exhibitor must purchase a member's ticket before making entries, a registered firm being regarded as one exhibitor. Each ticket will entitle the member to make 20 entries, except in horses, all over 20 entries 5c each. Only one member of the firm will be admitted to the grounds on the ticket that entitles the member to compete, and in no case will the ticket be transferable.

3.—All entries must be made at least one day previous to the day of the fair, and all articles intended to be exhibited in the halls must be placed before 11 a.m. Judging same will start at one o'clock p.m. sharp. Positively no entries taken after 11 a.m. each day of fair.

4.—Every animal, fowl, article, product and chattel exhibited must be the actual bona fide property and belong absolutely to the person or persons entering or exhibiting the same. In the case of every article, product or chattel exhibited, other than live stock, the said article, product or chattel must be actual production, growth or manufacture, as the case may be, of the person or persons owning and exhibiting the same.

5.—In the event or doubt as to any exhibitor having complied strictly with the provisions of Rule 4, or in the case of notice that an exhibitor has not strictly complied with the provision of the said Rule 4, the committee, consisting of the President, 1st Vice-President and 2nd Vice-President, or any two of them, shall be obliged to cause any exhibitor with reference to whom such doubt exists, or with reference to whom any such notice has been given, to make a statutory declaration of a compliance with the terms of said Rule 4.

6.—Upon the discovery of any fraud, deception or dishonest practice, either in the preparation of, or by any misrepresentation concerning an article or property exhibited which may have effected, or which was intended to effect, or the discovery of any deception as to the actual ownership of the article or property exhibited, or as to the person growing, producing or manufacturing any such article or property, or upon the discovery of any fraud, deception or dishonest practice by any person or persons exhibitine or by any person upon his or her behalf or in his or her interest, the Board of Directors shall withhold the payment of the prize awarded, as well as any and all other prizes awarded to any person or persons shown to have been in collusion with the exhibitor, or to have acted improperly on his or her behalf and shall prohibit any such person or persons above referred to from exhibiting any class for one year or more, and may publish the name of such person if deemed expedient.

7.—All articles intended for competition must be entered in strict accordance with the Prize List in order to secure a prize, and the exact number or quantity stated in the Prize List being strictly adhered to. And any entry disqualified under this rule shall be marked with a card of disqualification by the Superintendent of the department.

8.—Cattle, sheep and pigs must be on the grounds and confined in pens or yards provided for same by 1 o'clock p.m. on the day of the Fair. None of the above animals shall be allowed to compete in more than one class or section except in cases of specials, or when shown in pens or herds.

9.—Horses—All horses must be on the grounds by 1 o'clock p.m. on the second day of the Fair, and made secure by those in charge of same. Owners complying with such minor regulations for their safe custody and fair and complete exhibition as the committee or management may suggest on the day of the show. Brood mares with foal at feet or sufficient evidence of having lost it, and three-year-old colts may be exhibited both in harness and by the halter. All other colts to be exhibited on the halter only. All horses shown in harness must be hitched to a vehicle suitable to the class.

10.—Persons exhibiting pure-bred stock must give their names and numbers to the Secretary at the time of making entries. For young animals the name of the animal and those of sire and dam may be accepted for those under one year. Certificates of registration must be produced for all animals when they are shown. In all breeding classes of live stock, male animals must be pure bred. No others will draw prize money.

11.—Miscellaneous manufacturers, carriages, etc., must be exhibited by the manufacturer or agent. Any person taking entries as agents for more than one producer must pay the regular subscriptions for each of such parties, except in agricultural implements and musical instruments, which, there being no premiums available, an authorized agent may exhibit for the firm he represents.

12.—Exhibitions of horses, cattle and sheep must be kept there and not removed when called for by the judge from the judging ring, otherwise they will not be considered.

13.—No person or animal deemed unworthy or unhealthy shall be awarded a premium. The judge may award any grade of premium according to merits of the animal or article.

14.—No person shall be allowed to enter for exhibition more than one specimen in any section or class unless additional article be of distinct named variety or pattern from the first. This rule shall not apply to animals, but to all kinds of grain, vegetable products, fruit, manufactured articles, etc., in which each additional specimen would be precisely similar to the first.

15.—No person shall be judge of any article in any class in which they are interested as an exhibitor, agent or employee of an exhibitor or otherwise.

16.—No person or persons shall be allowed to interfere with the judges while engaged in making their award, either by conversation or any other pretence, under penalty of forfeiting all prizes to which they might otherwise be entitled, and will be promptly excluded from competition. Judges or officers are particularly requested to report any breach of this rule to the Executive Committee of the Exhibition who shall be the sole judges of whether or not the parties complained of are guilty.

17.—Any person who shall attempt to interfere with the judges while in the discharge of their duties, or shall, on the premises, use any contemptuous or abusive language to any judge or officer of the Association, shall forfeit his right to any premiums to which he might be entitled, and shall be excluded from exhibiting for one year hereafter.

18.—The decision of the judge or judges to be final as to the awarding of prizes, and no appeal shall be considered except in cases of protest. All protests shall be made in writing and shall be so delivered within two hours of the award at the secretary's office.

19.—Any exhibitor or interested person making such protest shall be required to deposit the sum of $1.00, and if said protest is not sustained the said amount shall be retained by the Association. The President, Vice-President and Second Vice-President shall constitute a committee to determine such protest.

20.—No person or persons shall be allowed to display any badges or tickets secured at any other fairs until such time as the awards have been made.

21.—Grain must be the growth of the current year. Grass seeds must be the product of the current or previous year.

22.—No animal or article exhibited shall be removed from the grounds until after four o'clock in the afternoon of the second day of the exhibition.

23.—No person shall be allowed to drive or ride horses on the show grounds faster than a walk, except within the exhibition ring, under penalty of immediate removal from the exhibition grounds.

24.—Exhibitors whose tickets have not been delivered heretofore will find entry cards and member's tickets ready for them at the office of the secretary on the Fair grounds on the day of Fair.

25.—All persons exhibiting shall be deemed to do so subject to these rules and regulations, and any violation on their part shall forfeit all prize money to which they would otherwise be entitled.

26.—Diligence will be used by the officers of the Association to ensure the safety of articles sent to the Exhibition and to prevent injury or loss to animals, but the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting, and should any articles be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, the Directors will render all assistance in their power towards its recovery, but will not make any payment of value thereof, or be otherwise liable.

27.—The Directors of the Society reserve the right to pay a percentage of premiums in case of bad weather.

PREMIUMS

The Treasurer will be prepared to commence paying the premiums within two weeks of the close of the Show, and persons having prizes awarded to them will apply personally or send written orders. All premiums not applied for previous to the first of December shall be forfeited.
