The Old Silver Dollar

How dear to our hearts is the old silver dollar,
When some kind subscriber presents it to view—
The liberty head without necktie or collor
And all the strange things that to us seem so new;
The wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it,
The stars and the words with the queer things they tell,
The coins of our fathers! We're glad that we know it,
For some time or other 'twill come in right well.

A Regular Storm Period is in progress as we pass from October into November Cloudiness with rain will visit most parts on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Rising barometer and colder, clearing weather will follow these storms for several days. A reactionary storm period falls on the 5th, 6th and 7th, coincident with full moon on the 6th. This period will bring the regular swing of the barometer — change to warmer, south winds, cloudiness and rain. Western sides of storm areas will bring rising barometer, snow and change to colder. Central on the 6th, and extending from the 3rd to the 8th, constitutes a regular seismic period with a possibility of much harm being done.

The trains were all belated on Saturday morning last owing to a wreck, which occurred on the previous evening. An eastbound Wabash freight was approaching the bridge across the Black Creek when seven cars rolled down the steep embankment, the cause of the accident being a broken truck. No one was injured, but the sectionmen had a very miraculous escape, for had they crossed the bridge, all would have been hurled to their death and to-day they are thankful that the accident was no worse. The Hamilton auxiliary was soon on the scene but some time elapsed ere the track was cleared for traffic. The cars which were filled with corn, cotton bales, barrel staves, etc., were all reduced to kindling.

If you had some visitors for the holidays and do not notice any mention being made of it do not blame the printer. It is impossible for us to catch them all. If at any time you have any news drop in or send it to us.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed." For sale by all dealers.

A Beautiful Story.

A beautiful story is depicted in the picture, entitled "Home Again," given this season with the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal. It is beyond doubt the best picture ever offered with that great paper. The picture is 22 x 29 inches, ready for framing. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is growing faster and faster every year. It is the marvel of the newspaper world to-day and with such a picture as "Home Again," all for one dollar a year, it is no wonder the circulation grows. Every home in Canada should spend a dollar this season on this great bargain.

Farewell Sermons

On Sunday morning last the Rev. D. M. Buchanan preached his farewell sermon to his congregation in Knox Church here in the morning and to the community in the evening. On both occasions the church was well filled. In the morning sermon Mr. Buchanan alluded to the harmony which had existed during his pastorate of seven and a half years to the fact that the cause had prospered, the membership being larger than at any previous time. He thanked the Session, Board of Managers, Sabbath school workers and the choir for their hearty and ungrudingly cooperation in the work of the church. In the evening Mr. Buchanan preached a farewell address to the community, an elegant and profitable sermon from the text: Isaiah 45-22, "Look unto me and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God and there is none else."

In the going of Mr. Buchanan the community looses a good citizen, an earnest Christian and an able and forceable speaker.

The Record voices the sentiments of the community when we wish this estimable family every good wish for their future prosperity in their new home in the west. The family leave to-night for Rouleau, Sask.

Farewell Tea and Address

The congregation of Knox church Jarvis and Chalmers church, Walpole, gave a farewell supper on Monday evening, in the basement of the church to the Rev. D. M. Buchanan, their pastor, who is about to leave for a new charge in Rouleau, Sask. Almost every family in both Knox and Chalmers congregations were represented. A nice supper was provided by the ladies, the tables having to be relaid three times before all were accommodated.

After the repast Dr. Jaques was asked to take the chair. The Dr. in a short address expressed what was in the minds of all present—a genuine respect for Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and sincere regret that the happy relations that have existed between them as pastor and congregation were to be severed. The pastorate of Mr. Buchanan, which commenced in the spring of 1904, has been profitable and harmonious, not a single incident having occurred to disturb the good feeling which has existed between minister and people. Dr. Jaques spoke of the needs of our great West, of the great task laid on the Canadian people to build up a great Empire in its fertile province, of the still greater determination of the churches of older Canada that the West should not only be populated with a free and prosperous people, but by an upright, Sabbath-loving and God-fearing people. For such a work sacrifices are necessary. We, in those congregations are to do our part. Men like Mr. Buchanan are required. We must be content to send them, even if their going means a loss to us.

Mr. Noble was then called on and read the following address:

DEAR PASTOR:

It is with feelings of deep regret that we view the close of your pastorate in Knox Church, Jarvis, and your removal from our village and community.

During your residence here for upwards of seven years, we have learned to esteem you very highly as a citizen, your sympathies have been broad and sincere; in all that pertained to the moral and economic welfare and advancement of the community, you have taken a deep and effective interest.

No agency for the general uplift but has profited by your kindly council and support and withal you have been among us a man living manlike.

We feel that our community will be the poorer because of your removal from amongst us.

As the pastor of our church you have filled a large place in the lives of your people. In times of prosperity you have been their wise and steadfast councillor and in their seasons of joy a loving participant. In their times of distress and sorrow your heartfelt sympathy has been a consolation, and your words of comfort and hope have bound up the broken hearts and inspired to new resolves and higher aims.

No pastor could have more completely identified himself with their interest nor in greater degree endeared himself to his people.

By your ministrations from the sacred desk for our spiritual upbuilding you have always sought to inculcate in our lives a reverence for God, submission to His will and a genuine love for our fellow men. The word of God became to us indeed a fountain of living water springing up into eternal life.

You have in truth been a blessing to our church, to our homes and to our lives.

To Mrs. Buchanan we would also tender our sincere regards. Her loving sympathy and kindly aid in all our church undertakings will not be forgotten.

We bespeak for you both a congenial field of labor, a hearty welcome and a happy settlement in you new field.

Signed W. J. Fallis, D. Steel, J. Noble

Mr. Buchanan well replied, expressing his regret at leaving a people with whom he had worked so harmoniously, but thought it his duty to go to the front, where, from conditions incident to the rapid settlement of a new country, made the battle more strenuous for Christ and the church, to spend his life for the cause.

Have you purchased one of our reading glasses. You can read the small type with ease and comfort. The Record Office.

The Late John Hoshal

"After an illness of two or three weeks, John A. Hoshal, the proprietor of the Campbell House, Cayuga, passed away at nine a.m. on Tuesday morning, October 23rd, 1911. Bronchial pneumonia was the cause of death, following a general breakdown of the system.

The late Mr. Hoshal was for thirty-three years a resident of Cayuga, first coming here as a school teacher when a young man. He was also engaged in the teaching profession at Mount Healy. For a time Mr. Hoshal was in the employ of Geo. Gibson in the mercantile business and afterwards conducted a dry goods of his own in the then Gibson block. Later he went into the hotel business, first at Jarvis where he remainded a year or two and then returned to Cayuga where he has been conducting what is known far and wide as a first-class hostelry, the Campbell House. Some eight years ago he suffered a severe loss when the hotel, which was fitted up with excellent appointments was destroyed by fire. Mr. Hoshal immediately rebuilt the present commodious and splendid building, which is fitted with all the modern conveniences and is well-known throughout the Province as a splendid home for the travelling public to rest up for a few days.

The late John Archibald Hoshal was in his sixty-seventh and was born in the Township of Pelham, Niagara district. He was married to Celestia King, who, with their family of five sons and one daughter, still survive. The sons are Messrs. Harry J. Charles, A. J., Geo. C. and Roy V. and their daughter, Bert, now Mrs. John O. Rest, of Hamilton.

Charles Hoshal is the proprietor of the English Chop House, Toronto, and Roy has been employed in Stratford for some time, while the other three sons are residents of Cayuga. Two sisters of the late Mr. Hoshal also survive, namely, Mrs. R. Young of Seneca and R. W. Evans of Toronto.

Since 1875 Mr. Hoshal has been a prominent and active member of of the Masonic Order and was well versed in the ritual and all matters pertaining to masonary. In the year 1898 Mr. Hoshal had the high honor of being elected as District Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada for the Niagara district and had the very great honor of being re-elected by acclamation for a second term. He was a man who was well read, exceedingly clever and was a most pleasing conversationalist. He was a man whom it was a pleasure to know and converse with and he will be greatly missed, not only by his home circle, but by many of our best citizens, who found it a great delight to spend an hour with him in friendly chat.

The funeral took place this (Thursday) afternoon. Services were held at the home of the deceased, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Walling. The remains were then taken in charge by the officers and members of St. John's Lodge, No. 35, of which deceased has been so long a member, and conveyed to Cayuga cemetery, where they were interred with full Masonic honors. Many Masons from a distance were present, to show their respect and as a mark of esteem for a brother Mason who had been so prominent and active among them."—Cayuga Advocate.
