The Way

If you have a thing to say,
Go and advertise;
If you'd teach a better way,
Go and advertise;
If you have some goods to sell,
If you have a tale to tell,
If world's wisdom you would swell,
Go and advertise.
Sit not in the rush and roar,
Never advertise,
Letting luck go past your door
You'd ne'er advertise,
For the world stops not to scan
What's not force upon his plan:
All its ear goes to the man
First to advertise.
Call attention with a voice
Which can advertise;
Show that you have merits choice
When you advertise;
Speak you true and speak you fair,
Of the noonday sleep beware;
Let the world know you are there—
Work and advertise.

Hickory Beach Park, Nanticoke was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Thursday last, the occasion being the sixth annual reunion of the Walker family. The weather was ideal, and, though many were unavoidably absent, the gathering was large and representative. A good program of sports enlivened the day, one of the leading features of which was a well contested game of baseball. An entertaining and humorous address was given by J. J. Parsons, Warden of Haldimand Co., a guest of the family, while Rev. Mr. Shields, Cheapside, spoke of lofty ideals of life and citizenship. Short speeches were made by Mrs. Pond, and by Messrs. John Walker, Sandusk, J. A. Bannister, Cobourg, and J. Frank Walker, Hamilton, and a letter was read from Mrs. Alice Smith, containtng a touching poem dedicated to the friends gathered at the picnic.

We presume there never was a newspaper in any locality that gave all the local happenings. It is often that someone comes or goes that the reporter does not see. It happens that the family is missed several times. They get the impression that the editor does not care to mention them. This is a mistake. In most country towns the local work connected with a newspaper. A man may be a good editorial writer, but a flat failure in the local work, and vice versa. Editorial material is obtained by study, by reading newspapers, sometimes by using scissors. Persons and local happenings can't be read and clipped from other papers, not by a jugful. It takes physical as well as mental exertion to get out four or six columns of local news in a town of this size. Most people take a local paper to get the local happenings. Don't be afraid to tell the editor or reporter that you have friends visiting you. There are lots of people who are interested in your friends. You owe it as a duty to them to let your friends know of their doings. Perhaps you think the paper shows partiallity, but just see if the paper doesn't treat you right if you give it a chance.

Sixty People Endangered

Sixty lives were emperiled Saturday afternoon when Willim Bumley, motorman on the 2.10 radial car for the beach, let go of the brake and motor on the car to take off his coat and shut the doors, while the car was travelling at a high rate of speed along Sanford avenue North. When the car reached the corner of Wilson street where there is a very sharp turn, it left the tracks and crashed over the sidewalk and on the lawn on the opposite corner of the street. The car smashed the sidewalk and a small post on the lawn. The front fender on the car was torn off, but other than that the car was not damaged. The passengers all escaped injury, but were badly shaken up. The motorman claims that he was shutting the door leading into the smoking apartment, because the passengers were crowding in on him. Several of the passengers stated that when the car neared the corner of Wilson, Bumley left his post, taking off his coat and closing the doors. The traffic was blocked for nearly an hour both ways, while the car was being put back on the tracks. Wilfred Cooley was the conductor on the car. Mrs. D. M. Allen and Miss Lillian of Jarvis were both on this car when the accident happened.

Death

A much respected member of one of Haldimand county's oldest and most highly-esteemed families passed away in Hamilton in the person of Thomas Kilburn Woodwork, aged 61 years. Deceased was born in Haldimand county on May 23, 1852, and he resided there and in Guelph and vicinity all his life. At the time of his death he held membership in Royal Lodge, A. O. U. W., Guelph. He leaves a widow and one son, the latter residing in Toronto. The remains were taken to Canfield station, Saturday morning, via G. T. R., and interment was made in Empire church cemetery, Seneca township. This church was formarly known as Woodwork church, and the ground on which it stands was given by deceased's father for church and burial purposes.

Faced Water Famine

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Toronto Island experienced a serious water famine for some hours yesterday. The whole system was completely disorganized from 4 o'clock until nearly midnight. Men were rushed over to grapple with the situation, and relays were kept on duty by the civic officials, who realized the terrible possibilites of an outbreak of fire. To make matters worse, the rush of water from the broken main flooded the excavation, and the cave-ins resulting made the emergency task of the workmen a slow and somewhat hazardous one. The fire tug was hurried to the scene and kept till the break had been repaired.

Mrs. Andesson Won

At the commencement of L. R. Tobey's Centennial Clothing sale, he offered a prize of ten dollars in gold to the man or woman, byy or girl who could write the words "Tobey's Centennial Clothing Sale" the most number of times on a hen's egg, also the name and address of the contestant. Mr. Tobey has enough eggs to keep him going a month. Mr. A P. Gibbon, 46 James north, principal of the Central Business College, was the judge and found some difficulty in counting the eggs. The winner was Mrs. F. Anderson, 114 Emerald North, Hamilton. She wrote the words 284 times and every one can be read with the naked eye, Seven thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight letters, including her name and address are given.

Simcoe Boy Gets Important Post on G. T P.

Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 8—John L. Hodgson, master car builder of the Grand Trunk shops here, to-day, received notice of his promotion to the position of superintendent of the car department of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with headquarters at Winnipeg. Mr. Hodgson, who is one of Port Huron's most enterprising citizens, made his way up from the bottom rung of the ladder. John L. Hodgson is the eldest son of the late Sergeant-Major Edward Hodgon, of Simcoe. He was borne here about 55 years ago, entering the service as a carpenter in the shops at Brantford, later going to Toronto as assistant foreman. He rose to the foremanship, and was then appointed master car builder at Port Huron. He has resided in Port Huron for fourteen years.—Simcoe Reformer.

THE WESTERN FAIR

London, Ontario

The programme of attractions for the Exhibition has just been issued and is a very attractive book. There will be ten free acts before the Grand Stand twice daily. In addition to this the Boy Scouts and Collegiate Cadets will give a very fine drill each evening. The 7th Field Company of Civil Engineers will put on a very interesting and instructive feature each night before the Grand Stand. There will be six different bands in attendance giving an abundance of music all the time. A programme of fireworks, such as has never before been seen in London will be given each night and the midway will be a source of great attraction being open all the time. The management have secured excellent Railway rates, being single fare from the first day of the Exhibition with several special excursion days, all tickets good until September 15th. Write the Secretary, London, for all information.

Percy Olds Drowned at Galt

On Monday evening last Percy Olds of Woodhouse was drowned in the Grand River at Galt. The news greatly shocked people here, as here as he was quite well know in town. He was the only son of Mr. Hamilton Olds who for many years managed the Excelsoir cheese and butter factory. He was 28 years old, leaving a widow, a daughter of Mr. Jeremioh Johnson, of Woodhouse, and two small children. Olds had always worked with his father on the farm and in the butter factory but some three or four weeks ago sought and secured employment with the Goold, Shapely & Muir Co., of Brantford. He was in Galt for his turn, assisting in the construction of a water tower at the Getty & Scott shoe factory. Impelled by the intense heat, the deceased and two fellows employees went up the Grand River to take a swim The other two men started wading across the river and Olds followed and when the other two men reached the opposite shore they saw Olds splashing in the water. Wm. Quimette, one of his companions, who was not a good swimmer, rushed to the drowning man. He went down, but was rescued. A call for help was given but was rescued. A call for help was given, but there were no expert swimmers present, and the fire department was called out, and after on hour's dragging of the river the body was recovered. The father went to Galt on Tuesday and brought the body back on the 7.15 express. The funeral took place from the residence of the widow's farther yesterday afternoon to Oakwood Cemetry.—Simcoe Reformer.
