New Year's Honors

The name of Col. James Alexander Roberts, of the Medical Staff, appears in the King's New Years' honors under the heading of Companions of the Bath. Jarvis may justly be prond that one of its sons has been honored in such a manner. Col. Roberts lived and received his early training in this town and will be remembered by the majority of Jarvis residents. Sir James Roberts is in command of the Varsity Medical Corps at Salonakia.

Xmas Wedding

FEARMAN—HOWARD

One of the most charming Xmas weddings of this season took place on Wednesday, Dec. 27th 1916, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howard of Rockford, when their only daughter, Ethel Mary, became the bride of Mr. Sanford J Fearman of Hagersville, the Rev. A. C Terry officiating.

Promptly at high noon, the bride, being given away by her father, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Elizabeth Paskins, of Rockford. The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chene with seed pearl trimmings and the customary wedding veil and carried a bonquet of bridal roses, carnations and Maiden Hair fern. After the signing of the Register, the party proceeded the diningroom where a sumptuous dinner was served One feature of the occasion was thar the wedding cake was adorned by the bride's mother's wedding wreath.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket studded with diamonds and to the pianist a beautiful ring. The bride received many beautiful presents among them being a handsome check from her father and a cabinet of silver from her brothers.

The happy couple left with the good wishes of the guests and heaps of confetti for Brigdon' Clinton and other points west, the bride travelling in a military suit of navy blue serge with hat to match.

Guests were present from Clinton, Hagersville. Decewsville and other places.

Probs.—Milder with snow.

Mrs. E. T. Carter and children returned home Tuesday evening after spending week in Guelph.

Sandusk

TO SANDUSK BIBLE CLASS
(From PTE. C. ROYCE)

Dear Friends:

It gives me great pleasure to sit down and pen to you these few lines informing you I received the parcel quite safe. The contents were in fine shape and the eats I gratefully enjoyed and before I go any further I must thank in my humble way the members of the Sandusk Bible Class for the same. Well, I might tell you the 114th Batt. attached to the 35th Batt. have been on six days leave to see old friends and the sights of England. Everything is so dreary now, the towns are in darkness at night and the country has greatly changed in the last four years. The 114th, Brock's Rangers, has been broken up to the disappointment of the men half is attached to the 36th Batt. and half to the 35th. The men seem kind of lonesome away from their old chums take my case for instance, I am in a hut with with complete strangers. But I think this way, we are all here for the same purpose and must uphold the same spirit as when we left Canada's shores, that was to fight for everlasting peace, not the peace that Germany wants, and then back to Old Canada again and enjoy life as it should be enjoyed.

Well I think I have said about all and by the time you receive this letter some of Brock's Rangers will be in Erance, ready for the trenches as I am pleased to say we are in fine shape for anything. I might say Pte. L. Pond and George Simpson are coming along fine and wish to be remembered to all. Accept my kind regards and best wishes to all for the coming New Year, I will now conclude, hoping to hear from you soon.

Pte. Chas. Royce,
35th Batt., West Sandling Camp,
Kent, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Deal, of Port Dover spent New Years with Mr. and Mrs. John Deal.

The Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Chas. Brown, on Thursday, Jan. 4.

Miss Annie Westerby visited Mr. and Mrs. Herbet Peacock on Saturday.

R.M.P. Scann, of Hamilton, spent New Year's with Mr. John Walker.

About one hundred attended the dance at Sandusk Monday evening.

Lieut. Awde, of Winnipeg, is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Pond entertianed relatives and friends on Friday, Dec. 29th, to dinner and tea, it being the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Congratulations and best wishes were extended to them with the hope that they may live to celebrate their golden wedding. The presents were numerous and useful. All spent a most enjoyable afternoon and evening.
