[illegible] of Indian Tribes is Formed

Brantford, Dec. 20—A Grand Council of the bands of Indians of Ontario has been in session for several days at the Council House of the Six Nations.

The various representative of the most [illegible] Chiefs and laymen of Ojibways met in conference with the Six Nations Chiefs in dealing with various matters of policy and ventilating their grevieances, regarding the travesty of justice, the gradual displacement of their treaty rights, and substituting for them of measures of law intended to deprive them of their lands and homes, and remove them from their reserves against their will.

The Grand Council resolved, by resolution, to form a League of all the Indian tribes of Ontario, with the objects of embracing and including all bands from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to be guided by their own defence and demands for right and justice, principles they too dearly fought and spilled their blood for [illegible]

The officers of the League were selected as follows: President, Chief F. O. [illegible], Toronto; Vice President, Rev. [illegible] A. Brigham, Walpole Island; Secretary, Chief William K. Cornelius, (Oneida Reserve) Muncey; Treasurer, Chief Joseph Monture, Hagersville; Asst. Secretary, Mr. Asa Hill, Ohsweken.
