Give Your Country a Leg Up—Save!

Canadian patriotism demands the practice of thirft by all her sons. The men who are holding the lines at home are they who are making it easy for the busi- of the country to go on with little jar to its mechanism. The steady pulling together of all citizens in the production of goods and in the conservation of all field crops marks the thrifty nation. Saving on the part of our citizens is going to be the greatest insurance we will have in Canada against a period of depression after the war. The combined capital of the individuals who make the country will form a fund of sufficient power to drive business along in a most satisfying way in spite of the prevailing hard times of such a period.

The saving man is therefore a real patriot. He has Canada's interest fundamentally at heart. May his tribe increase in these days when wealth is piling up under the spur of war-time efforts. Save because it hits both ways. It is a high form of patriotism. And it gives one's country a leg up in a critical time. Put by that extra dollar now. The long procession of thrifty dollars will make a line that will not waver—Hinderburg or no Hinderburg.

DOUGHTY-HENNING

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henning, on Wednesday, September 18, when their eldest daughter, Elsie B. became the wife of Mr. Wm. E. Dougty, son of Mr. William and the late Mrs. Doughty of Nanticoke.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a dress of white silk Crepe-de Chene with veil and orange blossoms and carrying a boquet of bridal roses

Mildred Henning, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, while the wedding march was played by Miss Lillian, also a sister of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. L. Lmith of Jarvis.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink and white asters and fern.

During congratulations and the signing of the register Miss Myrtle Norrie, cousin of the bride, sweetly sang "Because."

After a dainty lunch had been served Mr and Mrs. Doughty left for Toronto, the bride travelling in a suit of Blue Taffeta with hat to match.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable presents, the groom's gift being a handsome gold pendant. To the flower girl a gold cross and to the pianist and soloist beautiful brooches.

Their many friends wish for them many years of prosperity and happiness.

Letter from Gunner Moore

Surrey, England, Aug. 29th, 1913.
Dear Mrs. Buether,

Yesterday I was very pleasantly surprised by receiving a parcel from the Women's Institute of Jarvis containing your excellent pair of sox. To say that I am grateful to you and the Women's Institute is indeed not showing my appreciation. All I can say is that I thank you. I know the sox will certainly be acomfort for me this coming Fall and Winter because good sox are sometimes a scarce article with us.

I have been in this country for almost six months now and have had many very interesting experiences. I have only met three boys from Jarvis who I know, Ken. Church, Jack Dellar, who have both gone to France, and Ed. Start who is in camp here now. Needless to say we have had many talks together of the times we used fo have in the old town.

Of course I have been away from home for some time and naturally have forgotten a number of things I should know. I expect soon to finish my training and go over for new experiences which so many have gone through. Again thanking you I am,

Yours Sincerely.

In Memorian

SWING—In loving memory of William Henry Swing who was killed in British Columbia on September 28, 1912.

When alone in our sorrows the bitter tears flow
There stealeth a dream of the sweet long ago;
And unknown to the world He is staunch by my side,
And whispers the words "death cannot divide
O little we thought when we said goodbye
T'would be the last parting between you and I;
We loved you in life, and you are dear to us still
But in grief we must bind to God's holy will.
