Like many other successful institutions the Canadian National Exhibition was in financial straits many times in its early career, but the personal notes of the Directors kept the gates open. Last year it paid a surplus of $175,000 to the City of Toronto.

Port Dover ratepayers approved almost unanimously a by-law authorizing the Dominion Gas Company to charge 45 cents per 1,000 feet for natural gas, with a flat rate for summer visitors. The present rate is 35 cents. The vote on the by-law was 245 in favor and only 7 against.

The raspberry cane-borer a destructive pest is causing great havoc to berry bushes in London district, according to reports received by the local representative of the department of agriculture. A special bulletin has been issued advising that where the pest appears the affected parts of bushes should be cut down forthwith and burned.

About 3 o'clock last Friday afternoon the steamer Graybird, of the Ontario fisheries and protection service, struck a detached boulder of a reef lying east of Port Dover. One bucket of the propeller was smashed off and the craft sprang a leak. The was pulled off by a tug and is now in the harbor. The chart of Lake Erie does not locate this reef any too prominently and it should be provided with a gas buoy.

Learn Struck Helmer; Latter Returned Blow

Younger Brother of Man Charged With Murder of Norfolk Farmer Tells of Affair at Inquest.

Simcoe, Aug. 6—Charlee Helmer, 15-year old brother of Lorne Helmer, who is charged with the murder of James Learn, aged Walsingham farmer, at the inquest held at Siver Hill to-day, told of a quarrel between Learn and his brother regarding he lowering of some bars to a field. Lorne had objected and Learn had retorted that he had the running of the farm. Upon Lorne denying this, the witness said Learn lost his temper and struck the younger man, who retaliated with a blow that landed on Learn's chest. This was followed by a second blow. The old man was knocked from his feet and lay on the ground, shaking convulsively.

The Helmers turned away and left him, said the witness, who claimed not to have seen him again, but swore that next morning Lorne told him he had found the old man where they left him and had buried him.

James Learn's body was discovered on July 29, after he had been missing since July 13. Helmer was arrested on July 31st.

An unusal feature of the proceedings to-day was that the adjourned inquest into Learn's death was conducted by Corover McGilvery, of Simcoe, concurrently with the preliminary hearing by Squire John A. Abel, of Silver Hill, in the case of Lorne Helmer. The witnesses at the inquest were witnesses also at the preliminary trial of Helmer. This plan was adopted to save expense.

As a result of the testimony the magistrate committed Helmer for trial at the assizes which are on the calender for next October. It is said there is a possibility that the charge may be reduced to that of manslaughter

W. E. Kelly and John Porter represented Lorne Helmer, and Crown Attorney T. R. Slaght and W. A. McDonald appeared for the crown.

Cayuga's Civic Holiday

Driver Injured When Horse Falls--Ball Player Knocked Out--Plane Damaged

Cayuga's Civic holiday demonstration held on Thursday was the most successful affair of its kind held for years in this portion of Ontario.

The day's sports commenced with aquatic events on the Grand River at 9.45 a.m. and continned almost without interruption until nearly midnight. The bridge over the river and along the river banks were crowded all forenoon, and fully 5000 persons attended the afternoon sports in the Agricultural Park, where a most interesting baseball tournament and some fine horse races were the centres of attraction. The concert at night in the skating rink was also a pronounced success and the building was filled to capacity

Horse races results as follows:—

2-14 pace, mile heats:

Willow Hal	1	1	1
Hino	2	2	2
Joe Bingen	3	3	3

Best time, 2.15¼

2.18 pace, mile heats:

Pacing Star	1	1	1
Daddy Pachen	2	2	2
TeddyB ingen	3	3	3

Best time 2.30

2.30 pace, mile heats:

Virgil Maid	1	1	1

Roy Bars	2	3	3
Little Fred	4	4	4
Hazel Pachen	5	6	6
Fanny G	6	5	5

Named aace, ½ mile heats:

Earl Johnson	1	1
Ed. Alward	3	2
Lady Amber	4	3
Hal O. Jr.	2	dr

It was intended that a Curtis plane, owned by Mr. O'Reilly, of the Clifton House, Niagara Falls, would give an exhibition during the day, and it came over and circled the town in the forenoon, landing at the park. But in attempting to rise in the afternoon, it became badly disabled by coming in contact with a tree and was conveyed from town on Friday on a truck.

A couple of other accidents marred the day's program, In the named horse race, Hal O. Jr., owned and driven by W. G. Johnson, of Binbrook, stumbled and threw its driver, breaking his collar bone and meeting with such injury that it is probable the animal will have to be killed. Fortunately Mr. Johnson's fracture was not serious.

In the baseball games one of the players of the Hamilton Victoria Yacht Club was knocked out by being struck with a ball and remained unconscious for some time, but was afterwards not considered to have been seriously injured.

In the baseball tournament Cayuga won from Rainham Centre; Hamilton won from Hagersville; Caledonia won from Jarvis; Hamilton won from Caledunia; Cayuga won from Hamilton. The final score thns stood: 1 Cayuga; 2, Hamilton; 3, Caledonia.

Caledonia 6, Jarvis 3.

Caledonia got revenge last Thursday for their defeat by Jarvis on their own grounds a few weeks ago when Jarvis won 7-3. In last week's game Caledonia reversed the score, winning by 6-3. The local team were a little off edge that day. it being three weeks since they had played a game. Wright pitched one of his best games for Caledonia, allowing but two hits, both of which were two-baggers by Burwash and W. Mason in the third innings, which, with a base on balls, netted the locals two runs. The other run was scored in the first innings on an error at short and another in right field. While the visitors were credited with twelve hits, only three of them were good clean ones, the remainder of them being very punky hits in the infield, too slow to be handled by the infielders, and the visitors were very fortunate in securing six runs for all the hitting they were doing, as they were practically unable to do anything with the offerings of Wagner. The score:

Two-base hits—Burwash, W. Mason, W. Morrison. Struck out—by Wagner 11, by Wright 12. Base on balls—off Wagner 1, off Wright 1.

Cayuga Also Wins

The Cayuga team defeated the locals here on Tuesday 8 to 3. For a time it loooked like Jarvis would win, but—the fatal fifth—Cayuga scored six. With the exception of that one innings it was a good ball game. This is the score by innings:—

Jarvis	2 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0	—3	5	5
