ANNUAL MEETING

Of Walpole Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

The annual meeting of the Walpole Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was held on Thursday last, in the Music Hall, with a fair number of the policy-holders in attendance. James Williamson was appointed chairman and G. L. Miller Secretary of the meeting.

The financial report showing a balance of cash on hand of $8309.93, with an increase of $137,000 in amount of insurance in force over 1918, showing that the Company is making headway.

Prof. W. H. Day, manager of the Shinn-Flat Lightning Rod Company, was present and delivered an excellent address on the subject of Losses from Lightning and the proper system of rodding farm buildings, in which a great amount of interest was manifested by the members, and the general opinion was that the Company should make a rateable reduction on all buildings that are properly rodded.

The three retiring directors, namely:—J. J. Parsons, David McBurney and Geo. E Pond, were re-elected, and Jas. A. McKenzie was elected Company Auditor for 1920.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors J. B. McKenzie was elected President, John Mitchell Vice-President, and Geo. L Miller Sec'y-Treas.

May Double-Track Wabash In Canada.

St. Thomas, Jan. 27—Great improvements are to be made on the Canadian Division of the Wabash Railway when it is taken back to its private owners in March, according to reports received in the city. The double tracking of certain parts and the installation of signal system [illegible] improvement of [illegible] are included. Local officials [illegible] that they have been [illegible] the matter, and of course [illegible] will be largely [illegible] under the administration of the private owners. The line between the Wabash and the [illegible] which terminates this month is being superseded by one which will take provisions for all the improvements mentioned. The section between Welland Junction and Fort Erie, where freight traffic is heaviest at the present time will be one of the first to be double-tracked.

Death of Mrs. Stonehouse

After an illness of about a year, the death occurred last Thursday of Mrs. Martha Stonehouse, widow of Joseph Stonehouse, at her residence, 270 Bold Street, Hamilton, aged 79 years. Deceased was born in Canada, and for many years resided on a farm about a mile and a half east of this village, moving to Hamilton about twelve years ago. Her husband predeceased her 25 years ago. She was a member of Charlton avenue Methodist Church, and her death will be sincerely regretted. She leaves to mourn her death a son, Steeles of Hamilton, and three daughters, Mrs. John Hanna and Mrs. [illegible] Hamilton, of Hamilton, and Mrs. Calvin Underwood, of Attica, N.Y. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, interment in Hamilton cemetery.

Mrs. A. Pond of Jarvis visited last week with her son, Mr. J. W. Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peacock visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Werner last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Atkinson spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Andy Loithouse.

Mrs. J. R. Pond visited with her sons in Hamilton over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Sternaman and family spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Chas. Peacock.

The Sandusk Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. John Walker on Thursday, Feb. 5th.

Simcoe's Oldest Resident Dead.

Possibly the oldest resident of Simcoe died on Saturday when Whitney Gates Sterling passed away after only a week's illness. Born near Stoney Creek over 90 years ago, Mr. Sterling was brought to this county when only five years of age. Nearly all his life he was a farmer, and for the last decade lived in Simcoe. Possessed of all his faculties to a wonderful degree, he was hale until the fatal illness seized him. He was twice married, first to Louisa Widner and later to Mrs. Gilbert, who died several years ago. Three children survive, Arthur, of Toronto; Mrs. Boyd, of London, and Mrs. Travis, of California. Mr. Sterling was the last of a family of eleven children.

A. RODGERS, Clerk.

Forward Movement

A most successful supper took place on Thursday evening last at the St. Paul's school room in connection with the Forward Movement, when large contingents were present from Hagersville and Nanticoke. Col. McCullough was the speaker of the evening.

The ladies of St. Paul's branch of the Women's Auxiliary prepared a most appetizing supper after which the Rector, Rev. Godfrey Wreford, briefly expressed the pleasure of all present in having with them a speaker so well informed as Col. McCullough, adding that if the Anglican Forward Movement was to be worth anything at all it must be by every church member making Jesus King of their hearts and lives.

Col. McCullough then gave a most able address which was followed with the deepest attention. He reminded his hearers of the wonderful wave of prosperity which Canada was now experiencing, and spoke of the vast sums that the Dominion had ungrudgingly expended in Victory Loans, Red Cross activities and the like. Compared with these enormous sums the two and a half million dollars for which the Anglican church was asking was a small matter indeed. Yet the sum was urgently needed for the home and foreign mission work of the church, and to raise the present inadequate stipends of the clergy to a living wage. He insisted that the movement must be upward as well as a Forward movement, and spoke of the value of the spiritual forces of the nation during the late war.

Rev. J. Douglas and Rev. H. Brand also briefly addressed the gathering and after a few remarks from Mr. Howard, of Hagersvilln, the meeting terminated by the singing of the doxology.

The Late Edward A. Lea

Edward A. Lea, for the past sixteen years proprietor of the former Wilson House, passed away on Saturday last after a lengthy illness. He had been in ill health for the past few years but it was only within the past couple of months he was unable to attend to business. Mr. Lea came to Hagersville from Jarvis sixteen years ago and until recently conducted the popular hostelery at the corner of King and Main streets, also engaging extensively in farming. His death will be regretted by a wide circle of friends. Besides the widow, one son and one daughter survive. They are Bruce and Mrs. Frank Young, both residents of the town. The funeral on Tuesday was largely attended, services being held at All Saints' church and interment at Jarvis. Rev. Douglas officiated. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.—Hagersville News.

Anniversary Services

The anniversary services of the Nanticoke Methodist Church will be held February 15th, 1920, Rev. H. Monsinger, a former pastor will assist Rev. Mercer at both services of the day. The choir will be assisted at the morning service by Mrs. F. Lindsay, and Miss E. Walker; at the evening service, the Nanticoke Quartett, Mr. Long, tenor; Miss Walker, soprano; Mrs. Lindsay, contralto; Mr. Hare, baritone; and Miss Mabel Kendrie, organist. 2-t
