Died Suddenly

The many friends and relatives of William Church were shocked to learn of his very sudpen death which occurred about eight o'clock Monday morning. He was up and around at his usual time in the morning, and after partaking of a hearty breakfast had come up town and was removing some wood from in front of Phil. Newman's residence and piling it on the opposite side of the street when he was suddenly stricken. He was found in J. S. Burwash's yard lying in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was immediately summoned and he was placed on a stretcher to be taken to his home, but life had departed before he reached there. Heart failure was given as the cause of his sudden demise. Deceased was in his 73rd year and had lived here practically all his life. Besides two brothers and three sisters he leaves two sons, Herbert of Detroit and Albert at home, and three married daughters—Maggie, of Howell, Mich., and May and Amy, of Ann Arbor, Mich., all of whom are here to attend the funeral which takes place this (Wednesday) afternoon from the residence of his sister, Mrs. David Dellar, to the Methodist cemetery

Congratulation to Sir John Gibson, who has been elevated from the rank of brigadier-general to that of major-general. Though a veteran of the battles of Ridgeway and the oldest active member of the Canadian militia, there is no more enthusiastic soldier wearing the King's uniorm. He well merits the honor bestowed upon him.

A game of baseball was played on the local diamond last Friday evening, when the Hagersville high school team defeated the Jarvis school team by a close score of 12-11. The score was tied at end of the seventh and it was necessary to play an extra innings, the Hagersville boys putting one over in their half of the eighth, while the home team failed to score.

Some person or persons appropriated for their own use a supply of groceries and a can of coal oil from Wm. Jaques' rig which he left standing on Main street for a few minutes on Saturday night. Will says he does not care so much about the groceries, meat, coal oil, etc., but would be greatly obliged to the party or parties if they would kindly return the basket and oil can.

Sunday was the fifty-eighth anniversary of Chalmers' Church, Stage Road, when sermons suitable to the occasion were preached by the Rev. W. J. West, M. A., of Dunnville. Jarvis Fair Special

The following special prizes are offered by Fred Moore of Caledonia:—For best Foals sired by any Clydesdale horse—1st, $5.00; 2nd, $3.00; 3rd, $2.00.

Jarvis Fair, Oct. 8th

Rural School Fair To Be Held The Same Day.

The Jarvis Agricultural Society will hold their first Fair on Saturday, Oct. 8, and every effort is being put forth to make it a success. The Fair will be held on the new Park grounds, and the large new rink building will be used for the exhibit hall. The rural School Fair will be held the same day, and besides the big exhibit by the children, will include athletic sports of various kinds.

Liberal prizes are offered by the Agricultural Society in all departments. The horse classes comprise heavy draught, agricultural, carriage and roadsters; Cattle classes—Shorthorns, Holsteins, Dairy grade and Fat cattle; Sheep—Leicesters, Southdowns, Shropshires, Lincolns and Oxfords: Swine—Berkshires, Yorkshires, Tamworths and Chester Whites. Poultry prizes are given for cock and hen, and cockerel and pullet, including turkeys ducks and geese. Other classes are Grain and seeds, Roots and vegetables, Horticultural, Preserves and pickles, Dairy and domestic, Ladies' work, Fine arts, Old ladies' work and young girls' work.

There will be a school children's parade, open to all schools in the Township of Walpole and the Village of Jarvis, each room to make a separate entry. Entries to be made by the teacher not later than Sept. 26th. The parade to be assembled on the Jarvis school grounds at 1 p.m., and headed by the Band march to the Fair grounds. Prizes—1st $10, 2nd $8, 3rd $6, 4th $4, 5th $3, 6th $2. No entry fee.

Another attraction will be the soft ball game between this season's rivals, Boston and Renton. These two teams fought it out for the championship of North Norfolk, and it took three games in the final play-off to decide the winners. Although Boston won the title there are still some who believe Renton the better team and liberal prizes are offered in this event to test their strength. Both teams are confident of winning and this game should be well worth seeing.

Jarvis Band will be on the grounds all afternoon and furnish plenty of music.

The day's proceedings will wind up with a big concert at night, the program being furnished by the MacGregor Concert Bureau. First-class talent has been secured, including the following artists:—Harry M. Bennett, one of the best comedians; Ethel Clowes, violinist; Jack Lougheed, whistler and trombone artist; Miss Jessie MacGregor, pianist; Miss Jessie Butt, (Toronto), soprano soloist. Miss Butt and Mr. Bennett will do some duetts which will be a good feature on the program and something different from the individual numbers. With such talent standing room should be at a premium.

Remember the date—Saturday, Oct. 8th. Make your entries early. Turn out and make this the biggest and most successful fair ever held in Jarvis.

Junior Farmers' Stock Judging Competition

Cayuga, Sept. 10, 1921.

To Haldimand County Junior Farmers:

Dear Sirs:—Due to the fact that the Department had not made a permanent appointment for the position of Agricultural Representative in the County, until recently, the annual Junior Farmers' Stock Judging Competition has been delayed. However, we have completed arrangements for holding the competition this year at Caledonia on the Agricultural Grounds, Thursday, October 6, the first day of the Caledonia Agricultural Fair when the competitions will be conducted in the following classes for prizes and trophies indicated.

Competition for cash prizes is open to all Junior Farmers under 26 years of age. The Lalor trophy will be awarded to the Junior Farmer resident in Haldimand County or, if not resident in Haldimand County, who has taken a Short Course in Agriculture in connection with the Department of Agriculture for Haldimand County, who scores the highest total number of points in all classes. The Jaques cup will be awarded as a second prize on total points with the limitations as indicated for the Lalor trophy. In addition to these cups, the following cash prizes will be offered for each of the four classes judged, namely, Heavy Horses, Beef Cattle, Dairy Cattle, Sheep; 1st prize, $500, 2nd prize, $4.00; 3rd prize, $3.00 4th prize, $2.00; 5th prize, $1.00.

This prize money has been secured through the kind co-operation of the Caledonia Agricultural Society, the Haldimand Board of Agriculture and the local Department of Agriculture. Competent judges will be in charge of the classes and will place the classes after they have been judged by the contestants and will award the points for contestant's placings and reasons. In this contest 50% awarded for correct placings and 50% on reasons with a 20 minute time limit on each class. Contestants are requested to make their entry to this office before the day of the contest as arrangements have been made with the Agricultural Society to admit all contestants to the grounds free. The competition will commence at 2 o'clock sharp. Kindly arrange to be present at that time as it will take all the time at our disposal to complete the competition. Not more than two cash prizes will be allowed to one contestant but all points will count.

The assistance by cash donations from the Board of Agriculture indicates the general opinion that the judging competitions are worth while. To secure sufficient co-operation in the future to make these competitions worth while, it is necessary for the junior farmers in the County to lend their support by each taking an active part in the competition. We trust that you will be present and take part in the contest.

Yours,
Walter H. Smith,
Agricultural Representative.

Have you got a prize list of the Jarvis Fair? If not, get one and send in your entries early.
