THE LATE MRS. NIXON

A long and useful life came to a close on Sunday November 13th, when Elizabeth Ann, daughter of Jacob Bowslaugh and Annie Beamer passed away at her home in Woodhouse, in her 91st year. The Bowslaughs were of German descent, but stood with the king in the revolution of the American States and came to Canada as Loyalists. Jacob Bowslaugh was a prosperous and intelligent former in the Township of Grimsby, and gave his children a sound education.

In 1860 deceased married Wm. Z. Nixon. The Nixons were also Loyalists, and William Nixon, Sr., was the first white child born west of the Niagara river.

Mr. and Mrs. Nixon moved to Woodhouse in 1861, and clearing the land, built the home in which their only son, Robt. A., now resides. In spite of her advanced years, Mrs. Nixon retained complete possession of all her faculties, and took an active interest in current events. Mr. Nixon died in 1905. Mrs. Nixon is survived by her son, Robt. A., and daughter-in-law, Rachel, and one grandson, Wm. Z. Nixon, all of Woodhouse.

46 HORSES IN CARS IN PRECARIOUS STATE

Toronto, Nov. 29.—In a sadly precarious state, 46 horses were found in freight cars in which they had been shipped to a glue factory in Toronto, when Humane Society officials inspected the cars today.

In one car, from Jarvis, Ont., six of 24 animals were in a dying condition, trampled on by the living ones who themselves were hardly fit to withstand the train journey. In another car two of the 22 animals were dead. Seven were put to death by the officials.

The police are taking action against the shippers of the horses.—London Free Press, Dec. 30.

SANDUSK W. I.

The November meeting of the Sandusk W. I. was held at the home of Miss F. Nicol with the President in the chair. The meeting was opened by singing the opening ode followed by the repeating of the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A short school talk resulted in Mrs. J. R. Pond making the motion, seconded by Mrs. Tyrrel, that we give prizes to pupils of schools No. 18 and 21 for general efficiency. Carried. The contest to start 1st December until summer holidays is as follows: 1 Punctuality, 2 General Cleanliness and Neatness, 3 Well cared for Hair, Finger Nails and 4 Clean Face and Hands; 5 Good Conduct to the Teacher. A contest of this discription gives the dullest child a chance with the brightest. The summing up of one teacher who had had this contest in her school, stated that the contest had been a wonderful stimulus to the whole school throughout the year. A report was given of $10 worth of food and clothing given to a destitute family, also the ladies had helped care for the sick mother and new baby. Interesting news items were given by Mrs. H. Bradly. Splendid reports were given of the Hamilton Convention; the first day by Mrs. J. Walker, second day by Mrs. H. Pond. Moved by Mrs. J. R. Pond, seconded by Mrs. J. W. Bush, that we give the delegates a vote of thanks, also expenses. Carried. The meeting was then brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The hostess served a dainty lunch and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered her for her hospitality.

E. F. JONES, JR., DIES SUDDENLY

Watertown, N. Y., November 17.—Edward Frank Jones, Jr. 25, manager of the Boston store and son of E. F. Jones, owner, died suddenly about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents, 304 Park Drive after being stricken with heart failure while engaged in his duties at the store on Court street.

In apparent good health the young man was about his duties yesterday as usual. Without warning he was stricken about 4:30 in the afternoon. He was taken to his home and was able to walk into the house without assistance. He died a few minutes later.

The death of the young business man came as a distinct shock to his relatives and many friends in this city. He had been enjoying perfect health and on no previous occasion had his heart given trouble.

Born in New York city, May 21, 1902, the son of Edward Frank and Ethel M. Ruddy Jones, he spent his early life in that city and attended the New York Schools. Seven years ago he came to this city with his father and established the Boston Store on Court street. Since that time he had made his home here.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister, Ethel Jones of this city; his grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Jones and an uncle, J. Morgan Jones both of New York city.

Funeral services were held privately from the late home, 304 Park Drive, Saturday at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. Jefferson Neil, pastor of Emmanuel Congregational church officiating. Burial was made at Brookside cemetery.
