Instrumental.....Misses MacMurchy
Debate—"Resolved, that the School of Agriculture is of more value to the boys than the School of Home Economics is of value to the girls.

The Affirmative was upheld by Harold Johnson and Russell Hare and the Negative by Miss Stella Pratten and Miss Jean Oakes. The judges, Mr. W. M. Hart, Miss Lulu Row and Mr. C. C. Main, gave their decision in favor of the Negative by a very close margin.

The Home Economics Class Paper, entitled "Vegetable Soup," because it contains a little of everything, was read by Miss Cora Henning.

The Agricultlral Class Paper, called "Scientific Agriculture," was read by Russell Miller.

In addition, class yells were given by both classes.

The entire program was of a very high standard and great credit is due to the members of the School who took part in it. We are pleased to observe a number of outsiders present at the Literary Meeting and a welcome invitation is extended to ay people in Jarvis or district to attend our Literary Societies which will be held every Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4 o'clock.
