Births

BORN, April 28th.—To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond St. Clair Miller of Alymer, a son.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. James Hodges and family desire to express there heartfelt gratitude to their many friends and neighbors, for the many expressions of sympathy in their recent bereavement of a loving wife and mother.

Concerning the Deaf and Dumb scholars from such places come almost directly to us seeking employment. Of course, being deeply nterested and in full sympathy, we are given the fullest opportunity of judging and comparing their abilities and attainments with the technically trained voice and manual exponents from the schools of England, United States, and elsewhere. We notice too that those who are most capable and feel the least restraint when brought into all forms of human ocntacts, are the one's who can lip-read as well as pusue sign-manual interpretations with equal facility.

"And I wish to state here for the benefit of the million or more readers of your great daily paper, that we as an organization are willing to go on record at any time in favor of having either the single hand alphabet, as evolved in this country, or the two handed alphabet of England reinstated together with the sign-manual in the classroom work at our wonderful Belleville school. It may also be appropiate to say at this time, that we sincerely hope and trust some person of practical experience and full ability pertaining to the requirements of the deaf, will be appointed to the principalship of the Ontario School for the Deaf at Belleville, and not some merely political subordinate as has been rumored. For we are the totally deaf, not the partially or hard of hearing deaf, and our opinions are or should be deemed as trustworthy in every respect where the best interests of those whose infirmity, similar to our own is to be dealt with," concluded Mr. Roberts.

Life's Horoscope

THE ZODIAC

April 19th to May 20th.

Does these dates include your Birthday? If so here is a part of the forecast of your Horoscope continued from last week:—

People born under the sign of Taurus are deep thinkers and very close mouthed about their personal affairs. They have remarkable concentration Power;—Very self confident and seldom seek advice from any one;—Endowed with a great memory and are very loyal friends if permitted to have their own way and permitted to dominate the friendship.

The youth of this sign are easily led by the opposite sex;—often to their sorrow.

Undeveloped of this sign are the most unreasonable people on earth any opposition to their way of doing things is met by outbursts of anger and violence.

All well developed people of Taurus should make all their own decisions and they should be entirely alone when doing so. Their own judgement is excellent and there is nothing that seems impossible to them.
