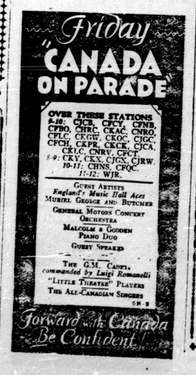
After the chapter closed the members and visitors cut down to a sumptuous banquet which amply repaid them for their labours of the evening.



OBITUARY

JAMES MAXWELL

Death came with startling suddenness to James Maxwell, highly respected Woodhouse man, who died on his farm near Doats Hollow on Tuesday morning.

J. H. Marwell of Simcoe, a son of the deceased, had visited him at his farm that morning and found him working outdoors, apparently in the best of health. Returning later from a short errand, Mr Maxwell found his father lying dead in a field.

The deceased was in his 82nd year and was predeceased a little over a year ago by his wife. He was born in Walpole Township, the son of the late WWilliam Maxwell, and was one of a family of twelve. He had lived on a farm in Woodhouse for about forty years with the exception of a brief term fifteen years ago, when he resided in Simcoe.

Surviving are several sisers and brothers, five sons: William Joseph, Frank and Clair Maxwell, all of Simcoe, and John of Fergus; and two daughters, Miss Georgena at home and Mrs. Chas. Monroe of Port Dover. G. Earl Maxwell of the Public Utilities Commission, is a grandson.

The funeral was conducted on Thursday afternoon from the late residence by Rev. Mr Perkins of Port Dover. Interment in Osgwood Cemetery, Simcoe.

FRANK SOUTHWORTH COLE

After a month's illness, Mr. Frank S. Cole, who has been a resident of the village for the past five years, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Flossie Eaid. Deceased had been in indifferent health for the past year, but has never been confined to the house until about a month ago, since which time he gradually weakened until the end came on Friday last, April 16th.

The late Mr. Cole was born near Cainsville on the 6th day of December. 1854, on the farm he still owned at the time of his death.

He married Elizabeth Lowry in 1875 and they celebrated their golden wedding about a year before the death of Mrs. Cole. They left the active farm work in 1912 and moved to Cainsville where they lived until the death of Mrs. Cole in 1926, since which time he has lived with his daughter in the village, and during his residence here, he made many friends. Though of a retiring disposition he continued an active participant in every move for the benefit of the community.

He leaves to mourn his passing one daughter, Mrs. Flossie Eaid, and four grandchildren, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Monday, from the home of his daughter, with interment in Mount Hope cemetery, at Brantford. The services at the house and graveside being in the charge of Rev. J. Hirst Ross, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Jarvis.

The pall bearers were: John Wodham, Jos. Owen, George Webb, J. S. Burwash, Peter S. Banks and Geo. L. Miller.

Old Time Meeting

Below is a report of one of the famous Tea meetings held in Knox Church, a long-long time ago. Away back in the time when religion was sacred and Politics sincere. Long before the advent of the automobile and women suffrage. When children called their parents "Pa" and "Ma" and when the shorter Catechism was known by all children whose parents worshipped in the "Auld Kirk."

This was one held at the time Political controversy was at its height in Haldimand County and the bringing of the Honourable Dr. Montague as the guest speaker of the evening, had the tendency of turning the Liberal blood in the congregation to fever heat. A few of the leaders in the Liberal organization staged a counter attraction in Chambers Hall with the Honourable Mr Cartwright as speaker. The two meetings added interest in both, and from the report of the Tea meeting printed at the time it sure was a success.

Knox Church Anniversary this year was a grander success than ever before. The services on Sunday were largely attended both morning and evening; Rev. William S. Ball preached two very suitable sermons in an eloquent manner. On Monday evening, notwithstanding the meeting in the hall addressed by Sir Richard Cartwright, about 700 persons partook of the excellent supper served in the basement by the ladies of the congregation. At 8 o'clock, after doing ample justice to the good things in the basement, they repared to the body of the church where an entertainment was to be held, filling the large and spacious church to its utternost. The entertainment was opened by an anthem by the Port Dover choir, after which Rev. Mr. Ball led in prayer. Rev. Mr. Well officiated as chairman in his usual good style. The singing by Mrs. Murphy, of Hamilton, was highly appreciated and repeatedly encored. Dr. Montague, M.P., was also present and delighted the audience with an address for fully half an hour. Rev. Mr. Ball also delivered an address giving an excellent description of the Northwest rebellion which was earnestly listened to. The anthems, quartettes, &c., yb the Port Dover choir were well received. The long programme lasted until a late hour when all dispersed for their various homes seemingly well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The collections on Sunday amounted to $22; the proceeds of the entertainment $250. and donations $10, making a grand total of $282.

Protect the Birds

This is the time of year that many people commence to build bird houses for the use of feathered friends during the coming season. Among the joys of spring, none are more delightful than the bird songs, that everywhere greet the ear. In addition to being cheerful songsters, birds are our able helpers in the war against the innumreable insect pests. Everything possible should be done to encourage birds to dwell about our homes and in our gardens and our orchards. A little effort in the way of providing them with food and shelter will induce many to spend the season with us.

The construction of bird houses is a pleasant pastime and may be enjoyed by any one who likes using tools. Materials are inexpensive, designs are simple.

A very complete circular has recently been issued by the department of Extention of the Ontario Agriculture College, Guelph, which gives complete information as to materials designs, dimnsions, finish and placing of different kinds of bird houses. The circular is fully illustrated with working plans and suggestions for building.

It may be secured free of charge by writing to the Ontario Agriculture College, Guelph, asking for Extention Circular No. 10, or to A. G. Skinner, Department of Agriculture, Cayuga.

Surprise Party

Knox Church Choir of Jarvis on Tuesday night May 21st to the number of about thirty, spent a very pleasant time at the home of Mrs Harvey D. Keen, Walpole. The Choir organized the gathering to show their appreciation to Mrs Keen for her timely interest in Knox Church Choir during the absense of the regular organist.

The evening was spent in Music singing, games etc. and at the close the Choir leader, Mrs A.A. Miller expressed to Mrs Keen the thanks, not only of the Choir but of the whole congregation for her kindly interest shown in their hour of need and presented her with a beautiful Sword Fern.

Mrs Keen was taken entirely by surprise but arose to the occasion by stating that her services freely offered were just as free to be used again when necessity required them.

The pleasant evening was closed by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Judgement Reserved On Serious Charge

Practically all of yesterday's police court session was occupied by the preliminary hearing of the first of three serious chages against Charles Butler, 25, of Woodhouse. Butler stood charged with a very serious offence against an 18-year-old Woodhouse girl, the alleged misdemeanor said to have taken place in September of last year. After hearing evidence from eight witnesses the case, which was held in camera, was ended, Magistrate Gunton reserving his decision on committal for a week.

W. E. Kelly, K. C., appeared for the crown, and H. P. Innes Jr. represented the accused.

Two other charges, both of a serious nature are being held in abeyance against Butler. One of these is concerned with immorality in the home of children anu the other with procuring drugs for criminal use. Butler is married but is separated from his wife and has been allegedly living with another woman. Bail in the case was refused and he has been in jail since April 14th.

How Stuck-up

Maple Taffy—Pure, sticky and unmanageable was the feature of the meeting of the Nanticoke True Canadian Club held in the Town Hall on April 22rd when 24 young people with zest and caution (after the first mouthful) changed their vecation from producer to consumer and vanquished a gallon of the product of nature.

The "Eye Opener" prepared and read by Evlyn Burns and was a clever combination of wit and philosophy

Other items of interest were, a piano instrumental, by Lillian Doughty A humorous reading by Harold Vokes, vocal solo by Russel Hare and a violin solo by Harvey Lindsay.

An hour was spent in dancing at the conclusion of the programme.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr and Mrs Roy Jackson on May 7th. Ernest Henly has charge of the programme and a debate will be the feature.

47th. ANNIVERSARY

Mr and Mrs Wilbert Biggar and family of Mount Hope took tea one day last week with Mr and Mrs R. A. Walters. It being the 47th. anniversary of Mr and Mrs Walters' wedding Mrs Biggar and daughter staying over the week end.

The Record extends congratulations to Mr and Mrs Walters on their long and prosperous wedded life.
