HALDIMAND AND NORFOLK W.M.S. PRESBYTERIAL

work in India. She appealed most emphatically for a continuance of the mission work in India, not forgetting our "marching orders"—"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to all people." The religious beleifs of India cannot be recommended as being sufficient for any country "By their fruits ye shall know them," and the deplorable condition of the women of India is proof positive of this fact. Speaking of women elders in the churches, Dr. MacKellar stated that there are now seven women in India holding such an office. Thirty-three years ago, a terrible famine was experienced, so severe that it was extremely hard to bear, but God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform, and from that trial, most of the present native workers came in the person of the small children who were rescued from death by starvation. At Dhar a Brahmin appealed to a new medical missionary to come with him to save the object of his worship, a cow Although she protested that she knew nothing of Veterinary work, she was finally persuaded to accompany him. The cow recovered and the Doctor, as a result of her great success, was welcomed to their homes to treat their women.

Dr. MacKellar appealed to all to take the "die" out of depression and "Press on."

The allocation for 1933 was accepted at $8,500.00 and the invitation accepted from Caledonia for the entertainment of the Presbyterial in 1934.

The meeting was honored by the presence of the new Hamilton Branch President, Mrs. J. A. Jewitt, who recently moved to Nanticoke, and who conducted, in a most inspiring manner, the installation of the following officers:

President, Mrs. Geo. A. Smith, Delhi; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. J. R. Pond, R.R. 3, Jarvis; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. J. W. Newberry, South Cayuga; 3rd Vice Pres., Mrs. G. K. Bradshaw, Simcoe; 4th Vice Pres., Mrs. P. E. Deeth, Jarvis; 5th Vice Pres., Mrs. C. L. Blayney, R.R. 4, Simcoe; 5th Vice Pres., Mrs. Nathan Topp, R.R. 4, Cayuga; Recording Secretary, Mrs R. G. Nomnating Committee for 1934—Mrs. M. J. Aiken, Hagersville, Miss Mary Hill, Lynedoch, Mrs. Wm. Burgess, Caledonia, Mrs. Walter Cooke, Simcoe, Mrs. J. F. Norrie, Dunnville

The delegates to the Branch Meeting at St. Catharines the first week of March were suggested as Mrs. Sidney Park, Unity and one to be chosen from St. Williams.

One of the chief resolutions brought in was one permitting the Executive to change the date of the annual Presbyterial to the month of April. With the uncertainty of the roads and weather, this will be great ly appreciated by many.

A trio of Delhi ladies contributed a splendid vocal number during the afternoon.

ON THE JOB

One night a man in a car was run down at the level crossing. Consequently the old signalman in charge had to appear in court. After a gruelling cross-examination he was still unshaken. He said he waved his lantern frantically, but all to no avail.

The following day the Superintendent called him to his office.

"You did wonderfully well yesterday, Tom," he said. "I was afraid at first that you might waver."

"No, sir," replied Tom, "not as long as that lawyer didn't ask me whether my lantern was lit."

COUNTER HOPPERS 5 HASH SLINGERS 4

The Counter Hoppers gained first place in the town league on Monday night by winning a hard fought battle from Cresswell's Hash Slingers. Each of these teams had won two games, so that the winner on Monday night would step into first place, while the others would be forced to take second. The game was well crowded and because of the keen and well matched competition the game afforded much interest for the spectators.

The first period ended in a two all score. Church scored both goals for the Counterhoppers and Evans and O'Donnell for the Hash Slingers This tie score made the second period start off with real fast play, with doubt in everyone's mind as to which team would come out the victor. The Counter Hoppers seemed to have the better of the play but the other teams had the advantage of more weight. In the second period no goals were registered for the Counterhoppers while Hill scored for the Hash Slingers making the score at the end of the period three to two in favour of the latter team.

The play by this time was getting exceedingly rough, several penalties having been given. The Counter-Hoppers started the third period playing all forwards, and every man up, in an attempt to tie the score. This was done in a few minutes when McKim managed to get one by goal tender Brock. Church scored the next goal for the Counter Hoppers putting them in the lead, but this was soon overcome when Evans shot in another for the Hash Slingers. With about three minutes of play left, Harris put in the winning goal, which also put the Counter Hoppers in first place in the town league.

Heaven to a girl would be having so many clothes she couldn't decide what to wear, but to a boy it would be having so many girls that he couldn't make up his mind which one to call up.

COUNTER HOPPERS STILL LEAD IN TOWN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Loss of Game to Buttermikers on Monday Night, Due to Sickness of Their Regular Players.

The fifth games of the schedule of the town hockey league were played on Tuesday night. The first game was between the Counterhoppers and the Buttermilkers. The Counterhoppers were very much at a disadvantage due to the fact that Church and Harris were unable to play, and their Star player McKim, is enjoying his holidays picking tobacco at Lyndock. Besides this disadvantage, for once the Buttermilkers had their full line up on hand for the first time, which strengthened them greatly. The star of the two lineups was undoubtedly Bingleman, who was right in the pink of condition and ready for anything. Four of the Buttermilker goals were accounted for through his individual efforts each time he circled the Counter Hoppers defence drew the goalie out and set the puck neatly in the net. The final score of the game was 9—3.

BUSH WHACKERS 5 HASH SLINGERS 4

Bush Whackers Succeeded in Getting Winning Tally in Overtime.

The second game of the evening, between the Bush Whackers and the Hash Slingers was more than interesting, and it certainly was a tough loss for the Hash Slingers, because a win would have put them even with the Counter Hoppers for first place As it is it looks as if they will have the Bush Whackers to contend with in the Play-offs, if they expect to get a chance at the cup. The presence of Hazlett on the Bush Whack ers line-up, provided the necessary extra to get the winning goal in the overtime, and although the Hash Slingers put everything in it to get another goal it just seemed that it couldn't be done.

The games tonight, (Thursday), will climax the standing and we will be in a position then to know just which team is going to have the honor of safe guarding that cup until next year. And with the standing as it is these two games will have everything that would be of interest to the spectators. In the games Thursday night the Counter Hoppers once again meet the Hash Slingers. (and what a game it will be.) and the Bush Whackers will meet the Butermilkers. If you haven't formed the habit of attending these games these two will be games that you just can't afford to miss. So lets see you there.

The games played on Thursday evening February 16th, resulted in a win for the Hash Slingers over the Butermilkers by a score of 3—1 and a win for the Counter Hoppers over the Bush Whackers by a score of 4—2.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCarter Celebrate Golden Wedding

On Wednesday, February 15th, 1933, a young bride and bridegroom of Fifty years ago, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McCarter, celebrated their golden wedding. They were "at home" to their friends from 3.30 to 5.30 in the afternoon and from 7.30 to 9.30 in the evening.

Friends came from Weston, Toronto, Hamilton, Elora, Caledonia, Waterford, Boston, Hagersville, Simcoe, Port Dover, Brantford, London, Villa Nova, Selkirk, Bloomsburg, and Mount Hope. It is estimated that over 200 people visited their home and showered congratulations upon them. Also telegrams were received from Goderich and Toronto and a very welcome 'phone message from Dr. A. R. Colman and daughter of Kindersley, Sask.

Mrs. Dr. A. R. Colman received with her father and mother. In the afternoon Mrs. J. A. Duncan received at the door and in the evening, Messrs. J. A. Duncan and A. A. Miller performed a similar duty. The house was a bower of flowers, gifts of friends and the Presbyterian Church (Knox). They also received many other beautiful and valuable gifts. Tea was served in the yellow and orchid dining room from a table with beautiful lace cloth, centred with yellow roses, yellow and orchid candles in silver holders.

In the afternoon Madammes W. Parkinson, R. Walters, A. Meehan and Miss Ida Irwin poured. Madammes Blight and Sharp cut the ices, assisted by Madammes A. A. Miller and F. Newman. In the evening Madammes L. W. Holmes and J. J. Parsons, poured. Madammes J. S. Burwash and F. Reicheld, cut ices, assisting were Madammes J. Burns, J. A. Fleming, E. M. Jones, Dr., J. Schreiber and Miss Dorothy Miller. The bride wore a gown of Hyacinth shade of French crepe, threaded in silver. Mrs. Dr. Colman wore Sherbet green French crepe. Mrs. A. A. Miller was in yellow taffita pussy willow, with pale green trimmings, black hat with gold velvet and black osprey. Mrs. J. A. Duncan in old gold French crepe with brown trimmings and brown straw hat to match. Everything connected with the reception was carried out in grand style. The bride and bridegroom kept up well. Undoubtedly it was a great strain meeting with so many old friends and those being genuine ones and true, were extravagant in their congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarter were married fifty years ago at Tyrrell, and the officiating minister was Rev. Charles Deacon.

After the entertaining was over, we all came to order at the request of Mr. J. J. Parsons, who acted as Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Parsons spoke very highly of both and delivered an eulogy that will not soon be forgotten. Others were called upon and bore the highest testimony to the integrity of both. Mr. Awde from the West was there and made a telling speech, in which he said that Mr. R. A. McCarter had not gone off the gold standard. There were many humorous speeches made and some serious, but the evening passed very quickly. Mr. McCarter responded very fittingly and thanked all the friends for their kind words. It is no wonder that the unique event was such a success because they are inhabitants who have lived at Jarvis for many years and are held in very high esteem. Mr. McCarter was agent for fifteen years for the Ontario Wind, Engine and Pump Co. Toronto and so well did he serve them that they promoted him to be general agent, a position carrying with it a great deal of responsibility.

He was also director of the Aylmer Scale and Pump Co. for years. They lived at one time in Sombra Township and Townsend, then in 1909 came to Jarvis and has conducted a local agency for the International Harvester Co. of Hamilton, and a general repair shop as well and has made a success of them all. I believe I am right when I say that no man has won the esteem and confidence of the International Harvesters as Mr. McCarter has.

In closing, I would say that one thing above everything else, that has made him so highly respected is his attachment to children, and children are all attached to him. Uncle Bob is his familiar name. There must be something wrong with a man who hates children and flowers. Mr. McCarter has befriended a good many and for that reason many came to the golden wedding to wish them well. They are both very active yet and we hope they will live to celebrate their diamond wedding.

At the close of a very enjoyable anniversary the many guests sang the old familiar song, "Auld Lang Syne."

LUBITSCH COMEDY SEASONS MOST DELIGHTFUL HIT

Touched into life by the genius of Ernst Lubitsch and by the flawless performances of a brilliant cast, "Troubles in Paradise" opens Friday at the Regah Theatre and will entertain a large audience with the most delightful high comedy of the season.

"Trouble in Paradise" is as new, as revolutionary in a film sense, as were the first sophisticated comedies that Lubitsch produced in the silent days. And like those earlier films it will undoubtedly stand as a model for other directors.

Every performance in the film is an individual masterpiece although all were blended into a perfect whole by the hand of Lubitsch. There are Kay Francis as the enormously wealthy Marianne Colet; Herbert Marshall as Gaston Monescu, suave crook of international fame; Miriam Hopkins as Lily, his sweetheart and confederate; Charlie Ruggles as the Major, suitor for the hand of Marianne; Edward Everett Horton as his rival; C. Aubrey Smith, as the chairman of the board of directors of Colet et Cie, and Robert Greig as Jacques, Mme. Colet's butler.

"Trouble in Paradise" is the type of film that no intelligent patron of motion pictures can afford to miss !

POWELL HAS STRONG SUPPORTING CAST IN HIS LATEST PICTURE

An exceptionally strong cast with William Powell in the stellar role, is seen on the screen at the Regah Theatre, in the Warner Bros. picture "Lawyer Man."

Joan Blondell, as his leading lady, has the role of a snappy wise-cracking secretary in which she does her best type of work. The supporting cast includes such well known players as Helen Vinson who has recently made a success in pictures after a spectacular stage career; Alan Dinehart, noted on both stage and screen; Allen Jenkins, David Landau Claire Dodd, Sheila Terry, Ann Brody and Rockcliffe Fellows.

Powell plays the part of a brilliant East Side lawyer who battles his way through spectacular court trials to the front rank of his profession. The picture carries a glowing romance and thrilling revelations of the inside workings of metropolitan political intrigues.

The direction was in the capable hands of William Dieterle, the noted German actor and director, and contemporary in that country with Jannings and Lubitsch.

OBITUARY

ABRAM TROUSDALE

The sudden passing of Abram Trousdale, on Saturday morning last, was a shock to the whole community and genuine regret was felt and expressed by all. He was familiarly known to every citizen of the Village and for many miles around, having been born and reared on the old home stead within a mile of the Village.

He was the youngest son of the late William Trousdale and Jane Bousfield, both of whom came to Canada when quite young, and were among the early pioneers who, with good health and sturdy progressiveness, hewed out a home in the primeval forest, and laid theron the foundation of an honorable and successful life. His father who was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1812, died on the old homestead in 1898, and his mother, Jane Bousfield, born in Durham, England, passed away in 1912. Abram along with his brother Homer continued to operate the farm until 1919, when they decided to give up farming, and since that time Abram has lived retired with his sister, Mrs Josephine Duxbury, at whose home he passed away.

Deceased leaves to mourn his passing four brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Elisha Farr, of Woodhouse, Mrs Josephine Duxbury, of Jarvis, William of Jarvis, Isaac, of Hagersville, John, of Walpole, and Homer, of Hamilton, one sister, Mrs. William Glanfield, predeceased him about 12 years ago, also one son who passed away in childhood.

The funeral was held on Monday February 20th from the home of his sister, with service in Wesley United Church, conducted by his pastor, Rev P. E. Deeth, and the many floral offerings bore silent testimony of the grief of those who are left to mourn the sudden passing.

The pall bearers were all old friends of the deceased, Messrs N. R. Pond, E. T. Carter, D. C. Allan, J. A. Fleming, W. J. Hodges, and F. W. Reicheld.

MRS. BRYCE ALLEN

Following a brief illness, the death occurred in Hamilton of Eliza, Amelia Ivey, daugter of the late Richard and Amelia Ivey of the Township of Walpole. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. L. Merrill, on Saturday February 18th, 1933. Mrs Allen was born in 1858 on the Ivey homestead one mile east of the Village, now the home of Wax and Oril Williamson.

In September 1884 she was married to Bryce Allen, a lifelong resident of Jarvis, their home being on Talbot Street, the house now occupied by Mr. Kindree and Mr. McMillan. After her husband's death in 1913, Mrs. Allen made her home with her daughters, Mrs. George Pond, of Selkirk and Mrs. I. L. Merrill. Another daughter, Miss Maude Allen lives at American Lake,
