The management, in requesting exhibitors to be prompt with their entries, point out that the short extension usually possible in previous years cannot be granted now owing to the large number of total entries involved and other conditions peculiar to this year's working arrangements. While it is too soon to speak of prospects in so entries, all the other indications taining to the Royal Winter Fair its "10 Big Shows in One" are fully as interesting, as varied entertaining and as successful ever — notably, in the ring attions this year are included the national army officers' teams.

Anniversary Services And Supper Well Attended

The 78th Anniversary of Knox Presbyterian Church Jarvis, was held on Sunday, November 5th, when the Rev. E. C. McCullogh, of Brantford occupied the pulpit and delivered two eloquent and inspiring sermons to attentive and large congregations.

The choir rendered special music on Sunday The anthems "Lift up Your Heads," "I Will Extol Thee," deserve special mention for they were well rendered. Great credit is due to the leaders, Mrs. Harvey Keene and Mrs. Ralph Johnson. They were ably assisted on Sunday by Mr. Norman Black of Hamilton.

On Monday evening a chicken supper was served in the schoolroom of which some hundreds partook and, needless to say, it was up to the standard of the suppers for which the ladies of Knox Church are so renowned.

After that an entertainment was given to a full house. The entertainment was given by home talent, practically our own choir being responsible for it. Solos being rendered by Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Duets by Mrs. Frank Laidlaw and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Mrs. Leatherdale and Miss Helen Leatherdale and Miss Davis and Miss Evans. The choir rendered two beautiful Anthems. Mrs. Fleming was the Reciter for the evening and made a name for herself. Everyone felt that there would be no need in the future to go outside for a Reader when we had such an accomplished performer in our midst. Miss Botright of Selkirk delighted the crowd with her violin. It was a pleasure to listen to her. Mrs. Keene and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Laidlaw and Mr. Johnson sang a quartette which was very much enjoyed by those present. The ministers of the town gave brief addresses. Revs. Brett, Death and Siple also A. L. Budge, of Hagersville and all had something good and encouraging to tell up. All that took part in the Anniversary that proved such a success were heartily thanked at the close. The meeting was presided over by the Minister.

WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS AND POLITICS

Reading the newspapers is our long suit. In the course of this duty, work or pastime, we ran across the statement that folks never ask whether a certain post office is Grit or Tory. They don't inquire as to the political affiliation of a store, a bank, a church, a school, or a telephone utility. Why do they continue to ask the political affiliation of a newspaper? A good community weekly newspaper is no more to be identified with a political faction than a public library is. The day of political newspaper organs is done, at least in the field of well edited weekly newspapers.

Important Preliminary Announcement

A preaching Mission will commence in Knox Presbyterian Church, November 27th and will continue for the four nights following. I wish to emphasize that this movement although under the auspices of the Hamilton Presbytery is not a denominational concern but a matter of importance to all churches of all denominations.

We must all admit that all the churches are in great need of a spiritual uplift, and this is the object of the Mission. So I hope the Anglican and the United Church will cooperate with us to make this Mission a great success. I feel certain that all the Churches will benefit by the movement. Further particulars will be given next week.
