OBITUARY

MICHAEL JAMES FURLONG

The death of Michael J. Furlong, occurred at his home, in Nanticoke, on Monday. He was in his Ninety-fourth year.

Believed to have been the oldest native son of the Township of Walpole, he was a son of the late William Furlong and Ellen Taimer Knifen. His father was a native of Ireland. Born on the Furlong farm at the corner of the Third Concession and the Nanticoke sideroad, Mr Furlong spent his lifetime in the community. He was well known as a thresherman in years gone by.

He leaves to survive his passing, one sister, Annie Furlong, of Hamilton.

The funeral is being held at St. Ann's Church, Walpole, at 10.00 A. M. today. Solemn Requiem Mass will be sung by Rev. Father P. I. Bodendistel. Interment will take place in the adjoining cemetery.

On The Farm Front

BRIEF NOTES FOR THE BUSY FARMER

— By Haldimand Harry —

One of the most important things said by Mr. W. P. Watson when addressing the "Crops" meeting during Farmers' Week was that our most important market these days was the home market and that we should be doing everything possible to cultivate it. The British market was practically closed to us and there was a limited market only in the U.S.

This was emphasized still further the next day when Mr. A. L. Currie was speaking about the hog industry on the Live Stock Day program. It was pointed out that the Canadian housewife was a very discriminating buyer and has even become more so. She simply did not want fat pork and bacon and if we hoped to supply the local market there was really only one thing for us to do and that was to supply it with what the consumer wanted.

For some time it has been recognized that trace elements are essential for plants and for that matter animals too. For instance one of these, Cobalt, does not seem to have any effect whatsoever on the growth of the plant but it is very essential in the growth of the animal and therefore we should see that there are no deficiencies in the soil of any kind. If such could be done perfectly then many of our plant and animal problems would be nearer solution.

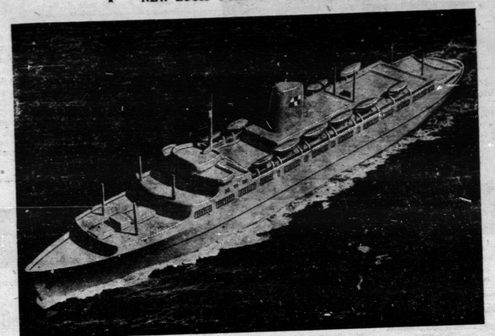
The Fertilizer Board, however, advises caution in applying these trace elements. Excess applications may be just as harmful as would be a deficiency. It would be folly to make "shotgun" applications where materials are applied just in case there may be a deficiency. It would be well to have much more complete information before making any applications.

On the basis of seed surveys made by both the Ontario and Canada Departments of Agriculture, nearly two out of every five farmers sow seed which because of the presence of weed seeds would not qualify for the lowest grade (No. 3 Commercial) if the seed were offered for sale. It is pointed out that it cost only 75c to $1.00 more per acre to sow No. 1 Commercial seed and only about 25c per acre to have a reliable seed cleaner clean up a sample to bring it up to the No. 1 Commercial Standard grade.

Farmers are therefore again urged to do one of two things, either purchase seed of good quality or have their own seed cleaned and brought up to grade. There is a plentiful supply of good seed available this year and it would be a good time to make a fresh start. It might also be a good year to buy enough Registered seed to sow a small field of five acres or so and use the product of this field as a source of seed for the farm in the next few years.

Clean seed is not enough, however. It should be treated with a good reliable fungicide to protect it against certain plant diseases. Surveys have shown that only about half of the seed sown each year is treated. Treatment is now possible for a very nominal cost of from five to ten cents per bushel when carried out at the time of cleaning and it is a practice that will pay big dividends. If you require more information, ask your Agricultural Representative

★ "NEW LOOK" FOR NEW EMPRESSES ★



A scale model of two new 23,000-ton stream-lined ships now on order by the Canadian Pacific Steamships for transatlantic service is shown above making a realistic trial run in a British tank. The 21-knot liners with rakish lines and echelon decks will bring a "new look" to Canada's 1,000-mile inland portion of the transatlantic route when they go into service in 1956 and 1957. Contract for constructing the second ship was let in Great Britain recently by A. C. MacDonald of Montreal, managing director of Canadian Pacific Steamships, to Vickers-Armstrongs Limited, while the first, which will be named Empress of Britain, has been under construction since last Fall by Fairfields, Ltd. Specially designed for the Canada-United Kingdom service the liners will have accommodation for 900 tourist passengers and 150 first class passengers as well as 380,650 cu. feet of cargo space. The sister ships will be 635 feet in length, 85 feet in breadth and will draw 29 feet fully loaded. The name of the second ship has not yet been chosen.

Judge Kinnear Named Royal Commissioner

Her Honour Judge Kinnear has been appointed by the Dominion Government to be one of the five members of a Royal Commission to inquire into and report upon the question whether the Criminal Law of Canada relating to the defence of insanity should be amended in any respect and, if so, in what manner and to what extent.

The Commission is headed by the Honourable J. C. McRuer, Chief Justice of the High Court of Justice in Ontario and the other members are Dr. Gustave Desrochers, Assistant Superintendent of St. Michel Hospital, Quebec City, Dr. Robert O. Jones, Professor of Psychiatry at Dalhousie University, Halifax, and Mr. Joseph Harris, a widely known Winnipeg Business man.

The Royal Commission was set up by Order-in-Council as a result of the recommendation of the special committee of the House of Commons entrusted with the duty of considering the revision and consolidation of the Criminal Code. This will be the first major revision of the Code in sixty-two years.

This is a very important investigation and it will likely be some considerable time before the Commission will be in a position to make its report.

Higher Attendance Reported For Farmers Week Meetings

Attendance during Farmers' Week was considerably above last year, in fact, it was necessary on Monday and Tuesday to put the overflow from the Common Room in the kitchen. It was felt that this was one of the most successful events of this kind ever to be held in the county.

The main speaker on Monday was Mr. W. P. Watson, Livestock Commissioner for the Province of Ontario. Mr. Watson cautioned farmers against increased hog production in the fall of this year and intimated that the present trend of increased breeding would cause a price break later this year, partly as a result of increased production and partly because the present high price of pork products is causing Mrs. Housewife to buy more beef.

Hog gradings in Haldimand have dropped from a high of around 40 per cent A's a few years ago to around 20 per cent A's at the present time. As a result of this the main speaker on Tuesday was Mr. A. L. Currie, Livestock Products Grader, Hamilton, who gave a talk on "What Has Happened to Our Hogs ?" This included a carcass demonstration in which an A and a B hog of equal weight were cut up, trimmed and weighed in the retail cuts and it was shown that the A hog was worth approximately four dollars more. This was as a result of the increased fat trimmed from the B carcass and the higher percentage of low priced cuts. Also on Tuesday Dr. Harold Worton, Provincial Veterinarian outlined the new legislation pertaining to calf-hood vaccination.

The main speaker on Wednesday, Federation Day, was Cliff Waite, Secretary, Ontario Farm Radio Forum. Mr. Waite told the audience the best way to pass information from one to another is by just talking it over with a neighbour or a few friends and one of the best ways to do this was in small groups such as the farm forum. Miss Eleanor Saracuse, Past President, Ontario Junior Farmers' Association, spoke briefly on Folk Schools and Leadership Forums.

Speakers on Thursday, Poultry Day were Mr. A. F. Curran, Canada Department of Agriculture and Prof H. L. Orr and Mr. John F. Walker, Poultry Department, Ontario Agricultural College. Mr Curran spoke on the Poultry Outlook for 1954 and advised orderly production rather than in and out as some do. The price is usually on the way down when this type of producer puts his product on the market. Mr Walker spoke briefly on Broiler Production. Prof. Orr in his talk on processing and marketing urged producers to give more consideration to marketing in a more attractive manner if we are to compete with American imports of turkey. He stated that the New York dressed bird is rapidly being replaced by the oven-ready, vacuum packed product.

Junior Day was well attended this year. Highlights of the afternoon session were a talk on the Junior Farmer and 4-H Club Program by Mr. Gordon Bennett, Associate Director of Extension, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto, and an account of her trip overseas last summer by Miss Kay Ferguson. Miss Ferguson also showed color slides.

Motion pictures, "The World at Our Feet" and "One Equals Four" were shown at the beginning of each of the afternoon sessions.

The second Canada Crushed Stone Special went to the exhibitor with the largest number of entries in the Seed Fair and was won by Andrew Dashner.

Lions Club Minstrel Show Scheduled For Mar. 25-26

Since the Jarvis Lions Club was formed several years ago the members have embarked on some pretty ambitious undertakings and the Minstrel Show scheduled to take place in the New Community Hall on March 25th and March 26th is no exception. Lion Ted Montague is carrying the full burden of the production and is proving he has broad shoulders. As to the ultimate success of the show Ted hasn't any qualms whatsoever. With a cast of forty or fifty people he is lining up one of the most stupendous productions ever to hit the community.

"Why", said Ted, "most of our members haven't the slightest idea of the amazing talents that lie hidden behind their sober personalities. I have dedicated myself to bring to the surface these hidden talents and give them to the people of the community."

Strangely enough the members themselves are being agreeably surprised with the results of their own efforts to make the encouragement of the director. The advent of TV has also been a help in that the talents of the stars in this medium, it is found, have their counterpart in every community. For example Jack Cook can put Johnny Ray to shame but until the Minstrel Show came up he had made no effort to discover himself.

Tickets for this big event will go on sale in the next day or two and the best guarantee of a seat will be to get a ticket early. Previous events in the community hall have proved that the building is not too big when an extravaganza of this nature is billed.

Lions Club Ladies Night Held In New Community Hall

The Jarvis Lions Club Ladies' Night was held at the new Community Hall on Monday night. The event was highlighted by the presence of District Governor William Mott and Mrs. Mott of Waterford, and Zone Chairman Allan Wicker and Mrs. Wicker, of Port Dover. A delicious dinner was served by the Young Couple's Club of Knox Church, which was followed by entertainment and dancing. The event also marked the sixth anniversary of the Jarvis Lions Club.

Lion President Lloyd G. Holmes presided as Master of Ceremonies and welcomed the ladies and several guests who will be assisting with the Minstrel Show later this month.

The toast to the Ladies was proposed by Lion Bryce Linklater and the response was made by Mrs. Edward Montague.

In introducing Zone Chairman Allan Wicker the President pointed out that he had been instrumental in starting the Jarvis Club six years ago. Mr. Wicker was President of the Port Dover Lions Club at that time. Zone Chairman Wicker presented four members of the Jarvis Club with perfect attendance pins. These four members who are Art Bright, Bob Lynch, Elson Held and Dave Banks, have not missed one meeting since the Club was formed. He also presented Bill Addison with the key-member award.

Lion George Walker presented certificates of membership to three new members in the persons of Kenneth Parkinson, Neale Hoover and James Andrews.

Lion Albert Pond introduced the District Governor William Mott whose address dealt with the ideals of Lionism. He said these ideals of citizenship are appealing to men of good will throughout the world which accounts for the tremendous growth of the organization in recent years. He made special mention of the part the local club had taken in the planning of the new Community Hall and commended them highly for their leadership. Lion Ted Montague moved a vote of thanks to the speaker.

During the evening Hammond organ music was enjoyed played by Mrs. Hartley Mattice. Vocal solos by William Clark and Willard Chalby were also much enjoyed. Mrs. Bruce Miller accompanied the soloists. The Fisherville Quartette consisting of Sid Cronk, Harold Schweyer, Earl Keefer and Carl Benner also contributed two numbers. This group have kindly consented to assist in the coming Minstrel Show and those present were given a taste of what they will have to enjoy on that occasion.

Following the program dancing was enjoyed with music being supplied by Don Leatherdale and the Clubmen.

WEDDING

SMITH—KINNIBURGH

Rev. Paul Christensen officiated at a very pretty wedding, solemnized at the United Church Manse, Cayuga, when Mary Agnes, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kinnburgh, Cayuga, was united in marriage with Alan Irwin Smith, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, of R.R. 4, Jarvis.

The bride was lovely in a navy blue frock of bengaline with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Miss Joan Smith, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant, and chose a frock of navy blue with powder blue accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Gordon Speller, of Nelles Corners, cousin of the groom, was best man. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a grey suit and a corsage of white and yellow mums. The groom's mother assisting, wore a navy blue dress and wore a corsage of pink mums.

For a motor trip to Pennsylvania, the bride wore a grey topcoat over her wedding ensemble. Upon their return the couple will reside at R.R. 4, Jarvis.

Miscellaneous showers were held in Decewsville Hall for Mr. and Mrs Alan Smith, and one was also held in the Jarvis Community Hall on Tuesday evening March 2nd. The guests of honour received many beautiful gifts.

Many Fined For Failing To File Tax Returns

During January and February this year, more than 400 people were fined in Ontario for failing to file Income Tax Returns.

During 1953 the R.C.M.P. successfully prosecuted more than 2,000 persons in Ontario for failure to file.

Fines ranged from $25.00 up and in many cases the accused didn't even owe any tax. But, as Inspector J. S. Cruikshank, of the Toronto R.C.M.P. Detachment explained, "everybody must file a return."

In Montreal some 2,500 persons are being investigated now by the R.C.M.P. for failure to file returns.

The Income Tax Division sets a time limit for people to file a return. If nothing is heard from the defaulter, after a warning, the R.C.M.P. is called in to investigate and file charges.

Report On Redistribution Expected At This Session

Sources at Queen's Park forecast at least eight new ridings would be created in the Province as a result of redistribution to bring the strength of the House to 98, according to a news story in the Globe & Mail yesterday.

The select committee was created by a bill entitled An Act Respecting the Representation Of the People Of Ontario in The Legislature, and will include the following members: Chairman, C. G. MacDirm, Attorney-General Dana Porter, W. H. Collings, A. R. Herbert, W. J. Grummett, Opposition Leader F. Oliver, Harry Nixon, James N Allan, Rev. A. W. Downer, W. G. Noden and Norris Whitney.

In introducing the bill for the appointment of the redistribution committee Premier Frost expressed the hope the committee would report back in a matter of weeks. He later confirmed this to mean within the life of the present session which is expected to end not later than April 2nd.

It is expected, says the G. & M. that new seats will go to Ottawa, Sudbury, Hamilton and Windsor. The ridings of East and North York, both representing population groups far in excess of the generally accepted 50,000 basis, are likely to be split into four ridings. One new riding may be located in the Oshawa area and another in the Oakville area.

It is not likely the committee will recommend too many changes in the boundaries of existing ridings. This was supported by Premier Frost's statement that he did not approve of disturbing established ridings and tearing people away from their historic roots.

The Premier added he was not attempting to advise the committee how it should approach the redistribution.

C.G.I.T. REGULAR MEETING

The C.G.I.T. girls held their regular meeting in the Sunday School Room of Wesley United Church with Mrs. Packman in charge, who had just recently returned home after accompanying her son Paul to White River. We would also like to thank Mrs. Brown for helping with the C.G.I.T.

Margaret Winstanley took the devotional. The minutes were read. The roll call was read with the naming of our favourite flower. Games followed and the meeting closed with Taps.
