A GREAT TIME TO BE ALIVE

and I had been listening st news broadcast, and it by no means encouraging. people, we had hoped that it talks would get off to art and pave the way to a better understanding a- ions. Instead, the talks if they were doomed from eginning.

talked about the news, one ighbours called in to visit His face was as dreary look e opinions he held concern- affairs.

while Thomas listened in the familiar words that in- e world was getting worse e." At last, Thomas could not no longer. "I think it's a e to be alive," said Thomas. hour was taken aback as if not believe his ears. "Yes", d my friend, in spite of the ing news, it is a great time e. Of course, it all depends ow you look at it. Take for these floods in the north They do indeed mean disas- many people, and yet, "every s a silver lining." Look how from all over the Province ponded. The generosity that n shown. The willingness of risk themselves in order to save others. I tell you, its thing when men love their urs in such a way."

t in silence for a while as each pondered the words of Thomas. Indeed it was strange that so often, when things seemed their blackest, it proved to be a great time to be alive. Throughout history, there have been countless men and women who have predicted that things were so bad, the world could not last much longer. Even as far back as 2000 B.C. one author wrote, "Our earth is degenerate in these days; there are signs that the world is speedily coming to an end; bribery and corruption are common." Nevertheless, such times have often proved to be "the finest hours."

In such times the Prophets of Israel lifted the religion of Judaism to new spiritual heights. In such times the Christian Church was born and new spiritual insights born.

This is a day of opportunity; a day when man can give serious thought to the meaning of life. To discover that our present condition is not the result of evolutionary descent, or so many "Bad men", or diabolical movements, but rather the fact that man is a sinner in rebellion against his Creator. Its a day when we must re-assess our values; determine the false reliance in which we have trusted. Its a time to become alive, because we have an opportunity to repent of our sin, discover lifes true riches and accept, before it is too late, the forgiveness of God and the promise of a new life.

Jarvis, Ont.

Editor:

ave reread Mr. Gowan's letter appeared in the May 5th edi- f your paper once again and at a ratepayer of the South le School Area I must reply, are several points brought out as well as the biggest per- ge of the ratepayers do not with and I feel that possibly plying to this letter there may few more ratepayers come to stand the situation. I feel that Gowan makes a very foolish ment about a multiple room l as it would seem rather sense- to have more than one or two s in a room when there are pos- 30 or 40 children for each grade tendance at one school. But! rural area or school section there are possibly only 25 to children going to one school it d seem foolish to divide the chil- into 4 or 8 rooms.

of the time element for grade in a rural school I wonder much time a teacher of two s has for her work. Having tly discussed this with a teach- t two grades we discover that has as many pupils, as many pa- to mark, as many problem ren and is as unable to give an vidual pupil the extra help he or may need, as a teacher that is to teaching a one-room school. ink it goes without saying, if we at our High School records, we see where the children of Wal- Township attend, that a goodly ber are top, or almost top, in r respective grades. The per- tage of pupils from town or cen- schools that beat them is not too

Even Mr. Gowan's daughter, attended a rural school, is top in grade. Surely her public school cation couldn't have been too in- or.

wonder if we are satisfied to edu- e our children to be a spoonfed responsible group of beatnicks, or we want to see a group of young ple who are concerned about their ure and are willing to give a little rt and energy to gain some head owledge and education for them- ves so that on Graduation Day y can look back on their school ys and say "I have accomplished mething for myself," instead of ing to say, "I didn't make the ade because I didn't have to rk."

One main reason the proposed pil- system is not questioned especial- in South Walpole is that school ards of today are inaugurating ch systems without consulting rate yers or parents.

We realize the School Boards have the power to do these things without consulting anyone but when it comes to educating someone else's children parents would like to know what is being done.

We all know what a help older children are with their younger brothers and sisters and if our children were transported to different schools the responsibility of the younger would rest more on the teacher. The School Board has stated that the teacher is responsible for the behaviour of the children while on the school bus is one of the most foolish things I have heard. How can a teacher discipline a child who is miles away. Mr. Gowan mentions the salaries paid our teachers but he doesn't say that the starting salary for a teacher is $2800 or when they can go across our township borders and get $3500.00 Consequently we can't get teachers. Even qualified teachers can get more money in Hagersville or at the Army Camp.

If some of the ratepayers had not made it their business the children of South Walpole could have been scattered all over the Area without the parents knowing it before it happened; but thanks to one member of the School Board for giving honest and fair answers when approached about the subject at hand instead of keeping it absolutely quiet until the system was in operation. I think we need to commend men like David Lint, our School Board Chairman, for taking a stand for the interests of the ratepayers and parents. When passed unanimously Mr. Lint spoke up so the people found out and were able to protest the issue.

We trust the School Board will consider the ratepayer and the parents before making such a decision again. Where other people's children are concerned and where young lives are to be educated and moulded to meet the problems of a confused world, let's take the parents into consideration and ask their opinions.

A parent, ratepayer and one who is concerned about the welfare of our youth.

Oswald Werner.

Jarvis Scouts Plan To Be At Jamboree

The Jarvis Scout Organization is thrilled to fill you in on the details of the Big "J" which was announced in the paper last week.

Five Scouts, who have worked hard throughout their years of Scouting, and now have obtained their Second Class Scouting badge, are going to have the great opportunity of seeing the West.

Their Scoutmaster Keith McDonald who has guided them for the past seven years, is going to motor with them to the Saskatchewan Jamboree. This takes place on the outskirts of Prince Albert, Northern Saskatchewan, about two thousand miles away.

We of Jarvis and District are not only happy to have a small place like this represented so well, but we also appreciate greatly our Scoutmaster, who is taking time out during his holidays to show our boys the fellowship of others, and anyone who has been to the West can well understand this.

This Jamboree has been running for four years now. About a thousand boys spend a week's holidays there, from all over Canada, to see many different sights, along with enjoying their Western hospitality.

Another reason we should be thrilled is that our Scouts are going to be the first to represent Ontario.

So our objective now is to raise enough money, by the end of June, to see these boys have their proper send off. This is being done partially by the "paper drives" we have each month, also through the help of the Lions, who so generously donated towards the big "J". Then on the 23rd of May the Scouts will have a tent set up from which they will sell boxes of "Occasional" Cards and homemade candy, with the proceeds to go towards the big "J". This we hope will fill our needs, but to those generous scout-minded people, who would like to give towards this worthy cause, you may leave donations at the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Jarvis, so let's send them off with a good time insured.

Thanking You

The Boy Scout Group Committee.

Memorial Window Dedicated At United Church

On Sunday morning, before a congregation that filled the church, a beautiful stained glass window was unveiled and dedicated.

The window, the gift of Mr. Frank Rodgers of Toronto, was placed in the church in memory of Andrew and Frances Jennings Rodgers, who were life-long members of the congregation.

The service was conducted by the Minister, Rev. Ronald J. Warren, who spoke briefly of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers. The theme of the sermon was "Lifes Great Test" and was based upon Christ's experience in the Garden of Gethsemane, this also being the scene portrayed in the window. The choir under the direction of Miss Jean Davidson sang the anthem by Stainer, "What Are These ?"

Outstanding Presbyterian Minister Visits This Area

of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Parry Sound, will be the special minister at the Deeper Life Conference in Community Baptist Church, Balmoral, during the week of May 23 to 27th.

The Rev. Robert A. Crooks of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Parry Sound, Ontario will be the special minister at the Deeper Life Conference in Community Baptist Church. He will be preaching at the evening services May 23rd through May 27th at 8 P.M.; and then on Sunday, May 29th at 11 A.M. and 7.30 P.M.

Rev. R. A. Crooks is not a native Canadian, but has come to Canada from the Emerald Isle. He took his ministerial training at Trinity College, Dublin, which ranks among the best universities in the British Isles.

Since coming to Canada, the Rev. Crooks has been a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He truly is one of the great preachers of the Presbyterian Church in the Dominion. This has certainly been proven by his preaching of the Word of God.

The Rev. Crooks comes to our area with a wealth of experience in Evangelistic and Conference work; having spoken at Keswick and Glen Rocks Bible Conferences. He has travelled throughout Ontario, Western Canada, and has held Campaigns in Chicago, Detroit, New York and other Centres in the U.S.A.

We trust that many of you will come to hear this Presbyterian minister during the week of May 22nd through May 29th; and we know that he will look forward to meeting you.

Hall Capacity Taxed To Honour Local Hockey Champions

Three hundred and sixteen places were set for the banquet in the Community Hall on Tuesday night, to honour the Jarvis Chevies, Intermediate "A" Hockey Champions of Ontario. There were a few vacant spots and the setting was most attractively arranged by the Jarvis Women's Institute who catered to the affair.

In addition to the members of the Jarvis Chevies team the Jarvis Pee-Wee team was also present in a group. The hockey theme was cleverly maxed by an outstanding address by the Vice-President of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, Mr. Jack Roxborough, of Simcoe.

Mr. W. E. Henderson, co-sponsor of the Chevies, acknowledged the fine efforts of the Jarvis Women's Institute in catering to such a large banquet and also paid tribute to the wives of the team members who gave such fine support and encouragement to the team throughout the season. Mr. Henderson's remarks were acknowledged by Mrs. Gordon Miller.

Gordon Miller, Coach of the Chevies, introduced each team member and the team took their place on stage.

Gordon Hazlett, Vice-President of the Erie League, presented the Erie League Trophy to Assistant Captain Bob Nixon, while the George S. Henry Trophy, emblematic of the Ontario Championship was presented to Captain Don Mitchell by Mr. John Barkley, President of the Ontario Rural Hockey Association.

Don Mitchell then made presentations of pen sets to the executive members of the team including Gordon Hazlett, Gordon Miller, Jack Martin, William Henderson and Allan Lundy.

The Pee-Wee team, with George Farmer and Nick Montague doing the honours, presented their Coach, Don Mitchell, with a gift in recognition of his fine service over the season.

The guest speaker of the evening was introduced by Howard Showers, Sports Editor of the Simcoe Reformer, and appreciation for the address was given by Jack Martin.

Mr. Roxborough told of his experiences with the Czechoslovakian hockey team when they toured Ontario last season. He described the manliness of the team as exemplifying the highest standards of sportsmanship and told of the tremendous sports program which is a part of the life of their native country. He declared that it is impossible to over-organize sports activity and that such a program is basic to the development of the young people of our country. He complimented the Chevies and also the Pee-Wees for the success of the sports program locally.

A social evening followed the program with music for dancing being supplied by Warren Keen with his recording equipment. A. L. Miller presided as M. C.
