CHRISTIAN SERVICE BRIGADE

Twenty-five boys were in attendance in the basement of the Community Baptist Church at 1930 hours on Friday night, April 14th for an evening of enjoyment as well as learning of their Bible. Following a pre meeting prayer session, Lieutenant John Marquis gave the command to fall in. At first the boys were uncertain as to which squad to fall into, however, after considerable confusion, everything was straightened out. The Captain then opened the meeting with prayer. Ernie Pierson was welcomed back after spending the past year in New York City. He had several interesting experiences to tell of. During squad meetings the following boys were merited for passing achievements: C. Dave Foster, Frederick Harris, John Foote, Murray Stewart, Larry Mathes, Allan Towers, Fred Roberts, Walt. Cassidy, Bob Walker and C. Willard Marshall.

At 2000 hours the squad lined up for squad reports. Squad three made the decision to go to Niagara Falls as well as to the Wax Museum for being the winners of the point competition. Late commer Dave Mehlenbacher was boisterously welcomed back from his star position on a bowling league. The first game played was called "The Number Game" earning 5, 3 and -14 points for squads 1, 2 and 3 respectively. The concluding one was a scrambled message game to test the boys' ingenuity at figuring out a scrambled phrase.

The Captain led the boys over a falls in a canoe in council ring, emphasizing the power of prayer. The Captain then gave the closing benediction. Before dismissal the boys were told to be on hand tomorrow for a hike at 0900 hours. In Corporal's meeting, the Corporals were commended on the excellent conduct of the squads that night. Further plans were put forward concerning the hike as well as the other spring activities for the near future.

At 1930 hours of the following day, Saturday the 15th, fifteen boys met at Corporal Willard Marshall's in Cayuga. After a couple of periods of sidewalk hockey, the boys were ready to begin the eight mile hike. Upon arriving at the predetermined destination, everyone participated in a game of baseball with each home run warranting ten points to the runner's squad. Guy Drinkwater, the pitcher of the winning team, along with Allan Towers and Fred Roberts scored many points for their respective squads. At 1200 hours the boys were ready to begin cooking their lunch. After considerable termoil everyone came up with something almost edible however, Bob Walkers O Irish Stew had a genuine smokey taste and his cookery was blackened beyond repair. After lunch, new teams were formed for a second game of baseball with a score of 5 to 3. At 0430 hours the brigade met under the trees for council ring and prayer, bringing the afternoon to an end. However, after walking the remaining distance, many boys still had ambition enough for more hockey.

The Misses Isobel and Kathleen Moore called on friends in Jarvis one day last week.

MEETING MENS NEEDS

I climbed the steps of the city hal. I came face to face with my Thomas. It was easy to see he was greatly troubled. His ing, though friendly, betrayed epth of his concern and difficu Finding a quiet seat in the hule he began to unfold the mat hat exercised his thoughts. He hat visited a dear friend, a man who was suffering from curable disease. In a few weeks oung life would have reached nd of the journey. "What can ay to a man under such condit asked Thomas, "especially you know his wife and child Well what can you say? oner or later in life we are all with such a problem, we all character like the Old Testa Job. All Job's children were his fortune had been lost and as ult his wife had become embitt and estranged. To add to his y, he now suffered great phys affliction. His friends came and ssed their sympathy, but noth they could say eased the burden is man's heart.

e may meet such a person in all of places. Perhaps a pension without friends or family, sick and alone in a hospital. An alcoholic, whose children, wife and employers have all given him up,— and not without cause. What can you say to such a man

At first we may be tempted to pass the whole thing off, try to pretend it is not real, but this is of little help, for the person himself has already tried that, only to find it an illusion. We may try to avoid the person altogether, making excuses for not visiting him. There is a sense of inadequacy. At other times we may try to make explanations, suggest treatments for such a person. Like Job, we leave our friend still bewildered and feeling that even God himself has forsaken him.

Except our words spring from a personal experience and a vital faith in God, we have little to offer. We can offer little help ourselves, for we too are mystified by these experiences of life. Only the christian faith and fellowship can meet such an hour and provide a source of strength, for ultimately the mystery of life and death, hope and despair is hid in God himself. We may not know the answer ourselves, but we know One who has—our Saviour Christ.

REV W H. FULLER HONOURED AT KNOX COLLEGE CONVOCATION

The many friends of the Rev. W. H. Fuller B.A., Th.B., for fourteen years the minister of Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis and Chalmers Presbyterian Church, Walpole, will be interested to hear of the great honour which has come to him. At the One Hundred and Seventeenth Annual Convocation of Knox College, Toronto held this past Tuesday evening in Convocation Hall, University of Toronto, the Senate of Knox College was engaged to confer upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In presenting Mr. Fuller, the Reverend Professor David W. Hay, M.A., D.D. spoke of his faithful and distinguished service within the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He stated that Mr. Fuller was noted for his scholarly ability, and particularly for the diligence and exactness of all his work within the Church. He has served on various committees of the Presbyterian Church and, while at Jarvis and Walpole, was for ten years the Clerk of the Presbytery of Hamilton. Two small books, "Rules of Order and Procedure for the Conduct of Public Meetings", and "The Board of Managers" of which he is the author, are widely used.

Dr. Fuller came to Canada from the United States in 1928, after graduating from Princeton Seminary. Before coming to Jarvis and Walpole in 1939, he held pastorates in Stouffville and Markham, Ontario. Since 1953, when he left Jarvis, he has served as the Editor of the Board of Christian Education.

One of the proudest fathers at the Convocation, no doubt, was the father of Mr. Fuller who, at the age of 90, travelled all the way from California by "Jet" to see his son so honoured.

The guest speaker at Convocation, who addressed the graduating class of twelve students, was the Reverend Professor R.J. Wilson, M.A., B.D., Acting Principal of Presbyterian College, Belfast, Northern Ireland; Moderator of the General Assembly 1957-58, Presbyterian Church in Northern Ireland. Professor Wilson was also honoured by the Senate of Knox College for his distinguished service in the Presbyterian Church in Ireland and in the College, and his contribution to the Church throughout the world. Prior to his address, the Degree of Doctor of Divinity (Honoris Causa) was conferred upon him.

CHURCH NOTES

CHRISTIAN SERVICE BRIGADE

At 1930 hours on Friday, April 21 twenty-four boys were in attendance at the Community Baptist Church at Nelles Corners for the Fifteenth meeting of the local Christian Service Brigade of the year. The Captain opened the meeting in prayer; also asking guidance and blessing for Don Patten, who is in the hospital. The squads were then dismissed into their squad meetings. The whistle was blown at 2005 hours to signify a second line up for squad reports. The following boys were awarded their Observer Stripes for passing their first achievement: Larry Mathes, Allan Towers and Fred Roberts. Jerry Mehlenbacher was awarded his Explorer's Badge for passing his second Achievement. To start off game period tonight, Pastor Walker conducted the boys in a game called "OGraddie Says" the three finalists were Corp. Willard Marshall, Gary Vanderburg and Larry Mathes. A verse competition was the second game, from which squad two earned ten points by quoting the most verses. Squad three challenged the winner of squads one and two to a game of handball; however, the squad was defeated by squad two. Bill Rounce was tonight's noteably good handball player. The boys then grouped chairs in a circle for the final game, in which, at the tone of the whistle, everyone would be required to be seat ed on a chair on which they had a recognizable possession, the last one seated lost points for his squad. After that the boys were ready to forward their attention to Mr. Walker as he led the brigade in Council Ring. He told the boys the Biblical Story of the lost son who was taken back by his father, as we are the sons of God and will be taken back by our Father. The boys were later commended for their excellent conduct and attentiveness during Council Ring as well as throughout the entire night's meet-

BAND CONCERT WELL ATTENDED

The Band Concert and Variety Program presented by the Hagersville Citizens Band on Monday evening in the Hagersville Community Hall was well attended despite rainy weather conditions.

The program featured the Dale Sisters, Sharon, Nancy and Linda, of Jarvis, who made their debut for the first time in public. Their renditions of several numbers in three part harmony, composed by their father, Mr. Hugh Dale, were well received. The instrumental solo numbers by Mr. Eric Small, Clarinetist, and Mr. Keith Small, Cornetist, were outstanding. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Betsey Small. Other numbers on the program included drills by the Hagersville Majorettes and specialty numbers by Gwen Legresley and Carol Church and group from Hamilton, who are instructing the Hagersville Majorette groups.

The band under the leadership of Mr. Andy Sabola, who was responsible for arranging the entire program, presented several rousing marches during the evening. This band and group of Majorettes have been engaged by the Jarvis Lions Club to perform in Jarvis on Victoria Day, Monday, May 22nd.
