PANSIES IN JANUARY

There are many fine gardens in the north end of the Village but Mrs. Bernice Humphries took over top honors last week when she picked blooming pansies from a border bed. Last week's mild spell melted the snow where the pansies has foun dprotection fro mthe cold weather. Charlie Powell and Fred Reicheld are supposed to have the greenest thumbs in the North end but we'll bet they can't match this.

BALMORAL LADIES AUX.

Prayer was the topic chosen for devotions by Mrs. Ed Gibbons when the Balmoral Ladies Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Donald Teal recently Luke 11:1-9 was read alternately and Mrs. Gibbons pointed out that if we are truly a child of God we should have a desire to pray as He would have us to pray and we are encouraged to bring all our problems to Him. In our prayer the Glory of God, the building of His Church and the salvation of the lost must have first place. Prayer is co-operation with God in bringing about His will as we wait on God and seek His face we forget our own desires and our self is brought in line with His will Romans 8-26. There never was a greater need for prayer than today to win the battle against the forces of evil. 1 Thess 5-17 "Pray without ceasing".

The project of the evening was quilting a quilt for the Rural Life Mission.

Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Don Sloat and Mrs. Lee led in a season of prayer.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wm. Pearson and Mrs. Esther Pitt.

LOCAL CHURCH MEMBERS HEAR ANNUAL REPORTS

ANGLICAN PARISH

The Annual Meetings of St. Paul's Church, Jarvis and St. Church, Nanticoke were held on Monday, January 27th, Thursday, January 28th respectively. After a short service by the vestry clerks were appointed, Mrs. Wm. Snowden, Jarvis, and Mr. Jack Cooke, Nanticoke, minutes were read and the Rector's charge delivered to the assembly. In his charge the Rector the Rev. E. Crow paid tribute to the people who had worked hard in the past year for God and His Church in their parish. Great importance was placed on the influence of the Anglican Congress of the Church of the Ascension Communion. Steps were taken whereby a study would be made of the Congress and by the various organizations of the Parish. The reports of the Rector continued a year is a very historic year in the history of the Anglican Communion throughout the world as a result of the Anglican Congress where Bishops and Deacons and laymen and women from all over the world met as witness to God in the Holy Catholic Church. The wind has entered the Church. Our vision has broadened and turned from ourselves to the wider Christian brethren in Communion elsewhere. Responsibility and Independence.

The reports were read and adopted as follows:

Wardens — Jarvis — Mr. George Miller was re-elected to serve for a year. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Simpson who resigned as one of ushers.

Mrs. Mitchell was elected Board of Trustees to succeed Mrs. Mitchell whose husband's death was marked by a period of silent prayer.

The congregation decided to use the "Every Home" plan for Presbyterian Record Service. Mrs. Cora McKenzie again was elected secretary for the publication.

Church School — Superintendent — Mrs. Jim Doughty, Mrs. E. Higgins, Mrs. H. Varrin, Mrs. Douglas Church.

Teachers — Mrs. Ed Gibbons, Mrs. Steve Payne, Mrs. Donald Teal, Mrs. Ed Harris, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Douglas Church, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Mrs. Ed Harris, Mrs. Jim Doughty, Mrs. Wm. Snowden, Mrs. Cora McKenzie
