We ...to automobile all ...the city, from west to east, and south, so we had a pretty good idea of the city as a whole. They are making a subway and building some super highways right in the city. To do this they are pulling down whole blocks, in part in preparation for the 1967 World's Fair. Everyone in Montreal calls it "Expo 67" ("exposition" is French for "ex hibition"). We did not see the island they are enlarging in the River. I saw only one "Quebec Libre" writing and that was on an old wall in the country.

What interested me was the "Place Ville Marie" complex on Dorchester Street. Years ago the CNR cut a tunnel under the Mountain which came out about 250 feet below Dorchester and they dug out the whole block to this level making a huge hole. This hole has now been filled in and where the hole was there now stand some of the world's tallest buildings. The Place Ville Marie. The tallest of these is 41 storeys high, and the Royal Bank has the main floor. Across from it is the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, and other buildings are grouped around. Two or three blocks away stands the Bank of Commerce Building, the tallest in the Commonwealth up to now. Under the Place Ville Marie is a vast shopping centre, this runs under the Royal Bank, Dorchester Street and the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, and from it you go up to the hotel and the other buildings and down to the splendid new CNR Station. I went up to the top of the 41 storey building. It was a wonderfully smooth ride up and a marvellous view from the top.

What about bi-lingualism? I saw very little of it. St. Catherine Street West, which used to be all English is now bi-lingual. This is the area where Eaton's, Morgans and Simpsons are. Montreal West, where we stayed, is English speaking and always has been, even the "Stop" signs are in English only. Montreal is a bi-lingual city with a French majority.

HEREFORDS BOW TO TORONTO FOR SOUTHERN ONTARIO CHAMPIONSHIP

JOHNNY EDWARDS HAS 17 STRIKE-OUTS IN BRILLIANT EFFORT

Toronto Platings, led by big Bob Domick's two-hitter, defeated the Jarvis Herefords 2-1 here on Tuesday night to win the O.A.S.A. Intermediate "A" Championship and earn the right to meet Elliott Lake in Toronto this week end for the All-Ontario Championship.

After playing a 17 inning, scoreless draw in the first game and losing the second 3-0, the Platings came back on Saturday afternoon in Hamilton and beat the Herefords 7-4 before downing the local club before a terrific but well chilled crowd in Jarvis on Tuesday.

On Saturday, Jarvis jumped into a 3-0 lead in the top of the third on consecutive triples by Charlie Winger and Ken Graham, a 3-base error on a drive by Reekie and a passed ball. The lead was short-lived however, as Toronto roared back with four in their half of the frame. This rally was highlighted by a big three-run homer by Merv Mellish. The winners added two more in the fourth on a double, triple and sacrifice. Jarvis got one back in the sixth on singles by Reekie, Bill Nixon and Bruce Biggar. Mellish put it out of reach in the seventh when he belted his second homer of the game.

Besides Mellish's two homers Norm Stewart had a triple, Bob Domick a double, and Geo. Dickie a single for the other three Toronto hits.

Winger had a triple and double, Reekie a double and single and Graham had a triple while Bill Nixon and Bruce Biggar added singles to complete the Jarvis 7-hit attack.

Domick started for Toronto and went five and two-thirds innings before giving way to Jim McKanick who finished the game. Together they combined to strike out 12 and walk only one. Edwards went all the way and took the loss. He was not as effective as he usually is and although he gave up only five hits, he struck out only 10 and walked 2 while hitting 2 batters.

For Toronto it was 7 runs on 5 hits and 5 errors and for Jarvis it was 4 runs on 7 hits and 2 errors.

On Tuesday night it was a close, hard-fought ball game all the way and all three runs were scored without a hit.

Tim Lantz led off the game with a base on balls and moved all the way to third on a passed ball and scored on another passed ball. Jarvis got that one back in the second when Reekie was walked and sent to second on a passed ball. He scored when Harold Nixon grounded to the short stop who threw home but was too late.

George Dickie led off with a grounder to third baseman Bruce Biggar, who picked it up and threw it into right field, allowing Dickie to advance to second. Bobby Smith threw it into third base but threw it high and allowed Dickie to race all the way home with the winning run.

Jarvis had an excellent opportunity to tie the score in the eighth inning. With one out, Bob Nixon pinch hit for Gary Mitchell and slapped a single into right field. He moved to third on two wild pitches but died there as the next two batters fanned.

John Edwards had the only other hit for Jarvis, while Ted Chadwick, Lantz, Merv Mellish and Pete Nicholson each had a single for Toronto.

Domick went all the way to pick up the win for Toronto. He struck out 13 while passing one and giving up only two hits.

Johnny Edwards took the loss for the local Herefords. He gave up only four singles while whiffing 17 and passing four.

Toronto had 2 runs on 4 hits and no errors and Jarvis had 1 run on 2 hits and 4 errors.

This concludes another season for the Jarvis Herefords and although they didn't win the championship they played fine ball and certainly didn't go down without a fight.
