EMERSON — ADDISON

MR. AND MRS. PAUL DOUGLAS EMERSON

Our Lady of Lourdes, Hagersville was the scene of the wedding on May 6, 1967, at 3 P.M. when Miss Mary Helen Addison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Addison, Jarvis, became the bride of Paul Douglas Emerson of Caledonia.

A head piece of crystal held her two tiered veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses.

Matron of honour was Miss Donna Brohman. She wore a shrimp-coloured linen gown with train coming from the shoulder. Similar gowns were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Sharon Addison, Mrs. Jim Dick son and Miss Judith Emerson. Each carried white roses.

Brian Hagan was best man for the groom with Ron Moore, James Dickson and Lyle Brown as ushers.

John Addison, brother of the bride, was junior usher for the bride's Mother, who wore green with all green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses, and the Mother of the groom who wore blue lace with beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses

A reception and dance followed the ceremony at the Legion Hall, Hagersville.

The bride's going away outfit was a two-piece white dress and jacket with orange accessories. She wore orange tea roses for her corsage After a trip to Florida the couple will reside in Hamilton.

Centennial Report

1867 1967 by JOHN W. FISHER CENTENNIAL COMMISSIONER

Joe Crowfoot of the Blackfoot Indian Reserve, Gleichen, Alberta, is a direct descendant of the Blackfoot Confederacy.

Jerry Potts of the Piegan Indian Reserve, Brocket, Alberta, is a direct descendant of the famous RCMP scout of the same name who was with Assistant Commmissioner J. F. Macleod when he arrived in Alberta in 1874 to build the outpost Fort Macleod and gain the confidence and goodwill of the Blackfoot Indian Confederacy.

This year the two descendants, Crowfoot and Potts, will have parts to play in the RCMP Centennial project, the June to November tour of the Musical Ride and 50-member Concert Band.

When the Mountie's Centennial performers arrive at Fort Macleod on June 14 this year there will be a re-enactment of the historic arrival of Macleod in 1874 Both Crowfoot and Potts will play the parts of their colorful and famous ancestors.

For those interested in the history of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police perhaps June 9 will be the high point in the Centennial tour of the Musical Ride and Band

The history of the Musical Ride goes back almost to the beginning of the RCMP whose development has been a significant factor in Canada's Confederation, especially during western expansion in the years 1873 to 1905. Aside from the rebellion uprisings, Prairie settlement was relatively peaceful in Canada because the rule of law was established by the Mounties first—before the mass influx of homesteaders

The Mounties performed their first Musical ride in 1876, only three years after the force was founded. The first unofficial band of the police force was set up the same year but the "official band" was not created until 1938.

Having performed before hundreds of thousands, at events such as the Canadian National Exhibition and on ceremonial occasions such as the coronations of King George V, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, the Ride has become an important tradition for Canadians. A performance of intricate figures and formations by a full troop of 32 men and horses, it also is thrilling entertainment.

Like the Musical Ride, the Concert Band is a permanent branch of the Force. There have been at least eight separate bands, dating as far back as 1876. In the early days of the west a band was a morale builder at times when loneliness and isolation were almost as much a threat as warring Indian and gun runners.

Today the band is a full time unit stationed in Ottawa and in the past 30 years it has had more than two thousand engagements including national tours and historic occasions such as royal visits, coronation ceremonies, conferences of wartime leaders, British Empire Games, exhibitions and carnivals.

Hundreds of thousands will see the Musical Ride and Band on its Centennial tour which includes engagements at the Canadian National Exhibition and Expo '67.

The bride looked lovely in a 3 piece suit of pink linen, a white hat and accessories. She carried a white Prayer Book on which was laid a corsage of gardenias and pink sweetheart roses

Her Maid of Honour was Miss Rosemary Dell, sister of the groom, wearing a pink and white boucle suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias and pink roses.

Following the ceremony a family dinner party was held at Lee's Restaurant, Mount Hope. The happy couple will reside in Toronto where the groom is employed as a videotape operator for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

WILSON MACDONALD MEMORIAL MUSEUM OFFICIALLY OPENED

The formal opening of the Wilson MacDonald Memorial School Museum was held on Saturday afternoon, June 3rd. Ideal weather and a large crowd made this a gala occasion and largely reflected the time, thought and energy put into this Centennial project during the past year. With the closing of this historic school, S.S. No. 2 Walpole, commonly known as "McGraw" and the opening of the new South Walpole Area School, a feeling of regret was expressed by several older residents and the thought of establishing a school museum was mentioned among those reminicing over old days This idea, like the 'little acorn' quickly took root and grew, with the co-operation of the Haldimand Historical Society, Lamb's Corners and Selkirk Women's Institutes and of every man and woman in the Cheapside area, which was the birthplace of the Canadian poet the late Wilson MacDonald, who received his first year of schooling in this little red school house which was built in 1872.

The Rev. Earl M. Sider presided for the opening ceremonies Seated on the platform with him were Mr Russell Hare who welcomed the guests, the Hon. James N. Allan M.L.A. and chairman of the Niagara Parks Board, the Hon. Larry Pennell, Solicitor General of Canada, Mr. Edward Montague, Warden of Haldimand County and Mrs. Montague, Mrs. E.M. Sider, who represented the Haldimand Historical Society and gave a brief history of the project, the Rev Harvey Sider B.A. B.D., Missionary Superintendent and teacher on Furlough from India and the Rev K.N. Brueton, convenor of the Book Committee.

As guest speaker the Rev. Harvey Sider noted, as had Mr. Allan and Mr Pennell, that he had attended the little red school house with the same teacher throughout his Public School life. He stated that the one room school had been a wonderful institution in its day but "new times demand new measures and new men and God fulfills Himself in many ways". Mr. Sider, as well as his two brothers, had taught in this building and he considered the establishment of this museum not only a review but a preview—a monument to the past and an inspiration for the future. What our forefathers had accomplished we must carry on—starting now and working through the future

The Hon. Mr Allan cut the ribbon with scissors provided by Mrs. J.B. Brown, chairman of the furnishings committee The Rev. K. N. Brueton led in prayer and "God Save The Queen" was sung. All present were then free to inspect the interior of the building with old time black boards, desks, organ and teacher's chair with a teacher dressed in old time clothes and looking her part to those who remember the old days.

During the program Mrs. Eileen Pepper led the South Walpole School Choir in singing a number of school songs. Rev. E M. Sider named the Convenors of Committees, noting the ground committee and those who had placed the bell in its original belfry. The ladies were in charge of a booth. He thanked all who had contributed in any way, especially noting Mr. H M. Howlett and Mrs. Edwin Parsons of Cayuga. Those present who were related to the late Mr. MacDonald were asked to stand as Mr. Russell Hare read the names; Mrs. Wilson MacDonald, wife, of Toronto, Mr. Gordon McLaughlin, son-in-law, London. Nephews and Nieces included: Mrs. Wilfred Chute, London, Miss Barbara Schuster, Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs David MacDonald and daughter, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gordon, Fingal, Mrs. Robert Gordon and Miss Elaine MacDonald, Vienna, Mr and Mrs. John Schuster, Vienna, Mrs. Jack MacDonald and Mr. Donald MacDonald, also of Vienna and Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald of Tillsonburg.

JARVIS AND ST. THOMAS SPLIT MARATHON VICTORIES

Jarvis finally opened their 1967 Tri-County Fastball League season and their first two games went 17 and 15 innings respectively.

Last Wednesday night in St. Thomas Johnny Edwards bested Dick Hames in a sensational duel that went 17 long, but exciting innings. Hames and Edwards combined to chalk up no less than 63 strikeouts between them

Joe Clark singled in Harry Reekie in the top of the seventeenth and before the inning was over Bruce Biggar rode home on Dick Wright's sacrifice fly.

Tuesday night in Jarvis, however, the tables were turned and Hames got sweet revenge on Edwards in a thrilling 2-1 victory.

With one out in the top of the 15th Glenn Rykman doubled. Jim Brown was then safe at first on an error and Jim Clark singled to left with Rykman holding at third. After Edwards fanned the next batter Hames grounded to short but Fred McKeen bobbled it and couldn't make a play in time, allowing the run to score.

Hames whiffed 24 Jarvis batters while allowing only seven hits and one base on balls. Edwards was just as effective, striking out 19 batters, walking none and giving up only seven hits.

Jarvis had a golden opportunity to end the game in the bottom of the 14th inning when they loaded the bases with none out. Bill Prince was safe when he bounced one off the first baseman's glove and Charlie Winger followed with a single to centre, advancing to second on the throw into third base. Hames then very wisely gave up the first and only base on balls of the game, an intentional one to Harry Reekie, to load the bases He immediately struck out Fred McKeen Bruce Biggar and John Edwards to end the thre'.

Or Saturday night of this week Port Colborne will be in town and on Tuesday of next week Dundas will be here. Both games start at 8:30 sharp. Each of these teams went into extra innings with St. Thomas last week so you can look forward to seeing some excellent fastball this week and all the rest of the summer.
