SUGAR BUSH JAMBOREE IS CENTENNIAL PROJECT

The Jarvis Lions Club will sponsor a Sugar-Bush Jamboree on Saturday afternoon, March 18th.

The Club is sponsoring the project on behalf of the Walpole Centennial Committee.

The event will itake place at the Reicheld Bush, just off the fourth Concession of Walpole, where Andy Doughty processes Maple Syrup each Spring. It is one of the very few such projects remaining in this section of Ontario. Years ago the making of maple syrup and maple sugar constituted an essential in the way of life.

Steps will be taken to provide, as far as possible, transportation for school children to the event. It is also hoped to have horse drawn trasnportation at the bush for the convenience of those who might find walking difficult. In order to defray expenses there will be a charge of 50c for adults and 25c for children for a bountiful feed inc of pancakes

The comittee in charge of pancake production will be Ted Montague, Bruce Miller and James Mitchell; Transportation committee for children, William Snowden, Glen Reicheld and William Addison; Publicity, Robt Lysch, Jack Cooke and Laird Miller.

REYNOLDS REGISTERS SHUT-OUT

Cayuga Nats dropped their 14th game of their fifteen game schedule to the hustling Jarvis IOOF Bantams on Wednesday evening, Feb. 22nd. The Nats, although a hustling team, and a young team, managed only one tie over the schedule, but will be tough next year.

Larry Vokes, the team's top point getter over the regular schedule, opened the scoring on his line's first shift, assisted by Ray Gibbons and Ross Gowan.

After a great effort of defending the Nats' defence, Keith Bundy picked up his rebound and fired it in for the second Jarvis tally.

Both goals were scored in the opening seven minutes and the score remained the same until the second half of the game

The IOOF played one of the better games, with the defence carrying the puck out of their end, and the forward lines passing the puck with accuracy.

The Cayuga goalie was sharp on occasion as he had plenty of rubber to stop over the sixty minutes. After reuniting Andy Monson with his old linemates, stole the puck from the Cayuga goalie and slammed it in assisted by Bundy and Dale Cowan.

Mighty Mite Donnie Doughty, a real diagram and checker for his size, scored his first goal of the season assisted by Vokes and Teddy Reynolds.

Richard Reynolds, the IOOF holler guy kept after his team mates, playing a steady game in goal.

The second line of Higgins, Phibbs and Doughty checked well. The defencemen, Bryce Hazlett, Charles Montague, Jimmy Church, Teddy Reynolds and Ray Miller played a solid game. Although not in the scoring lineup, Larry Cowan, Jerry Walker and Roger Bartlett gave a hundred per cent effort.

This game ended the regular fifteen game schedule, with the league playoffs beginning on Wednesday, March 1st.

Jarvis were scheduled to meet first place Fisherville in the opening game on March 1st

The IOOF, although tied for second place in the standing, lost one more game than the second place team, thus the IOOF were placed third, over Oneida, who had seven wins, one less than the IOOF.
