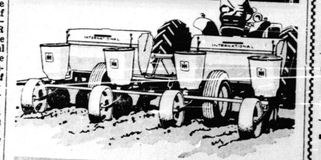
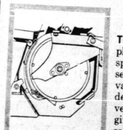
Cut planting time with INTERNATIONAL CORN PLANTERS





Exclusive IH rotary valve lets you hill drop or power drill. Easily switches to straight drill. Hill drop 1 to 4 seeds per hill — 4.4 to 35.4 in. spacing. Or drill plant at 2.5 to 17.7 in. spacing.

The International 56 Corn Planter plants with pin-point accuracy at speeds up to 7 miles per hour. The secret lies in the exclusive IH rotary valve and IH "frog". Rotary valve deposits pre-grouped seeds at zero velocity without bounce or scatter — gives tightly grouped hills, precise seed count and exact spacing. The "frog" forms and firms the seed zone — for even depth and uniform germination.

Can be changed in minutes from hill drop to power drill or straight drill with gravity fall for single seed planting.

"THE OLD OWL"

WHAT WILL THEY DO WITH IT ?

Some years ago a book was written by Neville Shute in which he pictures the result of nuclear war. In his book (I forgot the name) the whole population of the northern hemisphere is dead, killed off by nuclear contamination. All that is left of the human race is a small group of people on a hill top in Australia Gradually these all die and one survivor, a young woman is left. She dies, and the rest is silence. All life is dead on the globe, human life, animal life, everything.

This is a fantastic picture but unfortunately it is not an impossible one. Mankind, especially the United States and Russia, now has the means of global death. This could come about by nuclear warfare or by the world wide spread of deadly gases or diseases.

One aspect of this situation is the question as to who will control these deadly powers. The answer is simple, it is the coming generation. It is our children, now in Public School, High School or University, who are going to have control of these things In their hands will rest the survival of life on this earth.

What are we doing about it? What are we doing, now, to give these young people the knowedge and wisdom to use their unprecedented power for good and not for evil? Science has done its part in exploring so much that was unknown to our fathers, but there is one thing that science and scientific education cannot give and that is Wisdom. This includes self control, consideration for others, knowledge of the past history of the human race and the ability to make right judgements In all these things science has no say, it does not pretend to We must look elsewhere.

Training in wisdom, or rather in the ability to acquire wisdom, is given in what used to be called a 'liberal education'. That is in such things as history and literature. A careful and sympathetic study of History, not just dates and dynasties, but trends and developments, will show them what the human race is capable of, both in good and evil. It will show them how to avoid the pitfalls of the past and to foster the good that has been achieved in the past. In short, it gives a well rounded and intelligent outlook. Where does Literature come in? Again, we must avoid the petty things like pentameters and sonnet construction and we can gain not only wisdom but inspiration from the great writers of the past, inspiration that we can lead to the desire to produce a better world rather tha a world of death. As I see it, the study of history and literature is THE most important thing in education today. We commit global suicide if we entrust these deadly powers to the youth of the coming generation and do not teach them how to use them.

There is another area where training and example are very necessary and that is in the home. Just as important as history and literature are right standards of thought and action and having a right outlook on life. These, as someone has said, are "caught not taught" That is they are gained by following examples set by those they admire. The school and college come in here, but the great training agency is the Home Governor-General Vanier as a great man and one of his legacies to Canada is the Vanier Institute of the Family. The President of this is Dr. Wilder Penfield and this is what he said to the Ontario Educational Association recently "The earlier the teaching, the more effective it is The brain of an infant and child can be conditioned for the good of society, the good of the family, and the good and the happiness of the individual. Education begins at home. It should continue after the last (which he defined as a way of life and learning) is acquired in the home A man may have a number of degrees but without culture he is not well educated." He also said that a student's success is already predetermined by his moral fibre and his capacity for hard work characteristics that come from the home.

TAX RATE WILL BE UP

It will come as no surprise if the tax rate is up, substantially, when it is set by the Jarvis Municipal Council. The Public School costs will advance by 3 mills; the County rate will be up by reason of the needs of the High School Board, and the general Village rate will have to be increased for local purposes The requirements will have to be met and there would appear to be little point in trying to soften the facts of the situation.
