A DINING CAR TRAGEDY.

A Lathrop, Cal., despatch of Wednesday says: Upon the arrival of the southern overland train at 7.20 this morning, U. S. Supreme Court Judge Stephen J. Field and Deputy U. S. Marshal David Nagle walked into the depot dining room for breakfast and sat down side by side. Soon afterwards Judge David S. Terry and wife came in. They were proceeding to another table when Mrs. Terry, evidently recognizing Justice Field, did not sit down, but retired to the train for some unknown purpose. Before she reached it, however, and as soon as she had left the dining room. Judge Terry approached Justice Field and stooping over him slapped his face. At this juncture Deputy Marshal Nagle arose from his seat and shot Judge Terry through the heart. As he was failing the Deputy Marshal shot again, but missed him, the builes going through the floor. The Judge did not utter a sound. He had hardly fallen when Mrs. Terry rushed to the side of her husband's body and threw herself

Then ensued a scene of the wildest excitement. People rushed from the diningroom and others rushed in. During this time Justice Field and Deputy Marshai Nagle retreated to a sleeping car, where they were securely locked within. At times Mrs. Terry would call upon the citizens to arrest them. Before the train pulled out Censtable Walker entered the sleeper and was carried away on board. He informed the spectators that he knew his duty and would perform it.

During the time the train was standing at the depot Mrs. Terry was running wildly alternately from the body of her husband to the sleeper, demanding admittance, that she might slap Justice Field's face, and at the same time begging that they be detained and have their examination here.

Previous to the entrance of Constable Walker into the car Sheriff Purvis and his deputy, of Stanislaus County, had already taken charge of Nagle.

After the shooting Deputy U.S. Marshal Nagle backed up against the wall of the dining room and warned everyone not to arrest him, saying he was a United States officer in the discharge of his duty. There was no semblance of any attempt to arrest him. Constable Walkertook Deputy Nagle from the train at Tracy and proceeded with him to Stockton, where he is in jail. The Supreme Court of the State of California, of which the late David S. Terry was formerly Chief Justice, this morning refused to adjourn out of respect to Terry's memory. This decision was announced from the bench, and the reasons given were that Terry resigned his judicial position to fight a duel, and that he was killed while in the act of assaulting a justice of the United States Supreme Court.

ZANZIBAR DISTORBANCES. Arrested and Flogged

A Zanzibar despatch of Thursday says. Of the eighteen prisoners arrested yesterwere in the employ of the Sultan, one was in the employ of the Germans, and the other, an Arab, had no employer. Each received fifty blows with a stick yesterday The rios occurred between 6 and 7 in the evening, but as no police are ever on duty in the streets in the daytime, soldiers had to be brought from a distant part of the town, and these, after restoring order, patrolled the quarter until 3 in the morning. To-day there was another slight riot and two of the latter were beaten. There is still much talk of disturbance brewing should be compelled to have the streets night. The Sultan was absent at his country house when the riot occurred, and drove into town early this morning. There are only two German ships here. The Fifael and Carola have left their moorings and anchored off the German Consulate as a measure of precaution. It is reported that the German Consul has telegraphed to the German commander at Mozambique to A Zanzibar cable of Friday says

The British war vessel Mariner left for Seychelles this morning. The Cossack is expected from the opposite covered with a hue that betokened a rapid coast to replace her. The men-of-war now in harbor are the British Agamemnon and Griffon, the German Pfest and Cariola, the American Swatara, and also one French and one Italian. The Griffon is now moored just below the palace on the northwest side of the town, so as to be able to shell any party coming from the district called Melinde, which is inhabited by Hindees and Arabs and their slaves. If an outbreak should occur, it is there it will commence, and then after the rioters have plundered the Hindees they will repair to the German Custom-house and wreck it. The Agamemnon is moored off the consulate. Everything is ready on board the British and German ships to assist in maintaining order. To-day the place is unusually quiet. Although it is Friday, there has been no selambik or parade of troops, the Sultan having that himself up in his country house. Some soldiers are on gnard in the streets, chiefly in the Hindee quarter. There is almost a panic among the well-to-do Arabs, who fear an occupation. The fall of the Suitan's chief adviser has completely set aside all idea of a rising, and Zanzibar is now quiet.

In the first place a man from the Chippawa market visited the Morgue and at once identified the body as that of John Myers, who lived at No. 249 Genesee street. Other men who had known him, twelve or fifteen in number, were brought in and identified the body. Members of his family were then sent for, but they professed to see nothing in the dead man's features that resembled their relative. His wife, his brother-inlaw, and a daughter 22 years old said it was not he, but when the dead man's little 14-year-old daughter visited the place alone the story was told.

"That's my papa," she sobbed, in her childish innocence, as she stood by the side of the rigid corpse and looked down into the face of him whom others of the family had refused to recognize. "This seems like a strange situation," said Morgue-Keeper DeRyder, "bus I have had several cases of this kind. One can see by watching the faces of these people that the dead man is their relative, but they are just that heartless that they will deny their own dead father rather than pay his funeral expenses. We shall bury him in Potter's Field." .

Two gentlemen who arrived here at 11.35 last night from Richmond reported that the " Woodpeckers" crowd (Negroes) were in the Court partner, Dr. Schultz, began to experiment, House surrounded by the other faction, but Dr. Schultz himself being the subject no more fighting had occurred. The town was crazy with excitement, the women and Sheriff Garvey and ex-Sheriff Blakely, who were killed, were "Jaybirds." All quiet at midnight. & Richmond, Texas, despatch says:

Since the fighting last evening things have been extremely quiet. The county officials, member of the Legislature, and Deputy Sheriff Mason, shot badly through the shoulder. Parker was shot beneath the shoulder blade and through the groin. The presence of the military will preserve the peace, but the "Jaybirds" are in possession of the streets and no warrant has been sworn out or arrests made. Henry Frost, a leader of the "Jaybirds," who received four bullet wounds, is fast sinking. The "Jaybirds" are undorbtedly prepared for trouble at any moment, while the opposition has been materially weakened by the loss of two leaders. There is a panic among the people here, chiefly the Negroes, and nearly a hundred have left by rail today, never to return. Voiney Johnson, one of the "Jaybirds," was shot in the jaw with a Winchester and the ball is now somewhere in his neck, but he was walking on the streets this afternoon ready for anything that might arise. A distressing feature is the arrival here of relations of parties who have been killed or badly wounded. A squad of State rangers was here yesterday, but was powerless to check the fight, though making every effort to do so. It is said that Frost, after he was shot down, raised himself on his arms and killed ex Sheriff Blakely with his Win-
