

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight adulterated powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

Butter, 15 to 16 cts.

Rain needed badly if only to settle the dust.

Yesterday was Hagersville civic holiday.

Apples were selling in Barrie last week for 50 cts. per bag.

Township council met on Monday. Full report next week.

The congratulations of the entire staff of the RECORD is extended to T. K. Who's next?

A large number from this village and vicinity attended the summer carnival at Hamilton last week.

Stone has been placed on Main-street, which, when broken up, will, in time of mud, be a decided improvement.

The subject of Rev. C. R. Morrows sermon next Sabbath evening is:—"Greatness that causes rejoicing."

The Walpole fall exhibition will be held on the agricultural grounds here on October 8 and 9. Remember the date.

The tin-pan brigade were out on Monday evening. Tom says the "kids" struck the wrong man, but "dame rumor" will not accept the say.

In consequence of the Brantford city council having put $500 license on Barnum, his representative announces that he will change to Paris, and show in opposition to the Brantford fair, which takes place the same day.

The Air Line employees annual picnic which was to be held at Port Dover yesterday was again postponed, as the company could not furnish cars on that date. We believe it is the intention to hold it on Tuesday next Sept. 3rd.

Farmers please remember that I keep on hand the famous Drills made by J.O. Wisner, Son & Co., Brantford; also Ploughs to give satisfaction on either hard or soft land. For sale by ROBT. EASTON, Jarvis Ont. 35-2

Fred. Turner, who is employed on the staff of this paper, had the misfortune to sprain his ankle on Saturday evening so badly that he is compelled to substitute a pair of wooden pendulums. He says he is introducing a new multiplication called "dot and carry two."

Why is it our street lamps are not lighted these dark nights? Can we not have a man appointed to see that they are filled with oil and lighted when necessary? Come, gentlemen, it is time something was done in this line, as they are of no use unless lighted.

Mr. P. Downham, the Government Milk Inspector, visited this section a week or two ago, and found the milk of one patron of the Waterford factory not up to the standard, and fined him $10 and costs. This should be a warning to others to use less water and take off less cream.—Waterford Star.

We clip the following from the Hamilton Herald of Saturday last:—"W. R. Harris, of Simcoe, reported to the police that he had been relieved of his silver watch, valued at twelve dollars, about 10 o'clock last night in the Central hotel. It was a hunting-case watch, with "Yours ever" printed on paper on the inside of the case."

House cleaning time is now at hand and Geo. R. Perry, Simcoe, has the largest and most complete stock of Window Poles ever shown in the counties of Norfolk and Haldimand, at prices to suit purchasers. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, opposite Norfolk Block, Simcoe. 16-17.

An accident occurred on Friday evening last at the N. & N. W. railway crossing near the station to a horse belonging to Mr. John Hainer, of Springvale, who had just started homeward with a load of hogs. He left the American hotel intending to walk along side the wagon until after he had crossed the track. As he drove on he heard the 8:30 train approaching, which was half an hour late, on its way to Pt. Dover, he being on the opposite side of the wagon he did not see it, he tried to back off the track, but was unable to do so. The engine was almost at a standstill when it struck one of the horses on the hip knocking it down and injuring it severely, also breaking the tongue of the wagon. The other horse escaped uninjured. The horses were taken to D. Hill's stables where the injured one was cared for.

The election trial take place next Tuesday at Cayuga.

A concert and honey social will be given by the Villa Nova Band in W. R. Shearer's grounds, Villa Nova, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 3rd. Refreshments during the evening and a concert opened by the band at 9 o'clock, and ably assisted by many friends from abroad and at home. Tickets, including honey, 25 cents.

The popular G. T. R., Air Line station agent, Mr. Alexander Ferguson, with his better half, left for a visit to Duluth, Chicago, and other western cities, on Monday. We thought he couldn't be dogged out of town, as we have not missed him for a single day for three years; but he was entitled to a vacation, and we hope it will be a pleasant one. Mr. Law, of Tilsonburg, will discharge the duties of the office during Mr. Ferguson's absence.—Canadian, Simcoe.

Van Every's popular 54th excursion will be run to New York on Saturday, Aug. 31st. The round trip fare from Toronto is $11; from Suspension Bridge is $9.50. Tickets are good to return on any regular train leaving New York up to and including Sept. 9th. The route is by the popular Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railway, one of the quickest, fastest and best routes to this great eastern city. For particulars apply to H. W. Van Every, 5 Adelaide street East, Toronto.
