Hamilton Spectator.

On Monday night a telephone message was received by Peart & Hammond, livery keepers, asking them to send a horse and rig to the Dominion hotel. It was subsequently discovered that the messenge did not come from the hotel, his enterprise. —P. T. Barnum. Phillips was waiting on the sidewalk to receive it. In company with another man they drove out to Simcoe where they had breakfast at a hotel and left there about nine o'clock.

On the outskirts of the town is situat ed the fine residence of L. H. Sylvester, a Simcoe merchant. Mr. Sylvester's wife died a couple of years ago and since that he has been living at the house alone taking his meals in town. It is alleged that the men drove out to Mr. Sylvester's residence and broke into it. They got a lot of valuable stuff tegether and were on the point of decamping when the arrival of a charwoman disturbed them, and they made off, taking only some searf pins and clothing. Charles Phillips has already been arrested and sent to Simcoe for trial. Another man named W. H. Duncan was arrested Friday by Detecbut really on suspicion of being implicated with Phillips in the attempted rob-

PRINTERS INK.

A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal—the trade ournal of American advertisers. It indicates to the inexperienced advertiser how, when, and where he should advertise; how to write an advertisement; how to display one; what newspapers to use; how much money to expend—in fact, discourses on every point that admits of profitable discussion. Advertising is an art practised by many but understood by few. The conductors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. A year's subscription costs but One Dollar : sample
