We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of B. Millenbacher, jeweller, in another column. It will pay you to read it.

Our merchants are now ready for a big holiday trade with a large assortment of goods. Consult our advertising columns.

The Haldimand election case has been adjourned till January 14th, when the Supreme Court promises to give judgement in regard to the Hasielt matter.

James Duncan and John Thompson returned home from Brandon, Man., on Saturday looking hale and hearty after spending the summer in the North-west.

Rev. Samuel Fallis, of Binbrook, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening and preached two very eloquent sermons to large congregations.

We have received a second copy of the beautiful Montreal Christmas Star, for which we return our thanks. The publishers have not been able so far to supply more than a fraction of the demand.

The Saturday Ledger is the name of a new paper published in Toronto, the first number of which reached our desk on Saturday last. It is a 12 page journal, containing 84 columns of illustrated reading matter every week. The subscription price is $2.00 per year, or five cents a copy.

The first semi-monthly assembly of the firemen was held in their hall on Thursday evening last when all present seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. The next will be held on Christmas night, when the committee would be pleased to see as many of the firemen as possible present.

The entertainment and Christmas tree at Cheapside in connection with the Methodist Church Sabbath School will be held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 24th. The programme will consist of readings, recitations, dialogues, vocal instrumental music, and speeches by resident ministers. Admission 20c. Children under 12 years 10c. Doors open at 7 p.m.; chair taken at 8 sharp. Dr. Sherk, Chairman.

Worse by half than the hen and a half problem is this:—A certain family consists of one grandfather, two grandmothers, one father-in-law, two mothers-in-law, three mothers, two fathers, two daughters, one son, one daughter-in-law, one son-in-law, one granddaughter, and there are only six persons in the family.

The annual Christmas Tree and entertainment in connection with St. Paul's Church Sunday school will be held in the music hall, on Friday evening next, when an interesting program will be provided. The committee have taken great pains to secure the assistance of several talented musicians and are confident that the programme will be one of the best of the season. Admission 25c., children 10c. Entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

The tea-meeting and entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church, held on Wednesday evening last, was not so well attended as was anticipated on account of the bad state of the roads. Several reverend gentlemen were present and delivered short addresses, while the Hagersville Methodist choir furnished music for the occasion in a creditable manner. The proceeds amounted to over $70. A subscription of $125 was taken up at the close of the entertainment toward paying for the new furnace.

Wood wanted at this office on subscription.

To Our Subscribers.

The SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work FREE by sending their address to B. J. KENDALL CO. (and enclosing a two cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the Horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise." 45-13
