Why can't every man and woman be a school teacher or scholar, and retire from business during the hot weather? The Harrison Tribune says that "a Clifford young lady received a letter from her best fellow, 17 feet 8 inches long."

A circle of the Order of Canadian Home Circles has been organized at Port Rowan with the name of Port Rowan Circle 120.

The garden party held on the lawn of Mr. Alex. Christie, Garnet, on Tuesday evening, of last week was a very successful affair.

Mrs. Richard Pond was thrown out of a democrat and had her leg broken one day last week, while going home from a picnic on the lake shore near Chesapeake. Drs. Sherk, Chesapeake, and Bennett, of Jarvis, set the limb.

The firemen paraded in uniform, headed by their band, on Friday evening. We did not have the pleasure of seeing them, but an old gentleman in town who can tell a good looking crowd when he sees them, says the boys will pass.

The following is a list of successful candidates who wrote at the recent examination held at Caledonia.—Jas. Caldwell, F. A. Lemon, Jas. Chambers, Maggie Chambers, Mabel Whitwell, and Ellsworth Boyd. Herbert Walker was also successful at Port Dover, and Annie Parker at Cayuga.

On August 6th an excursion for the benefit of the 39th Batt. band will leave Port Dover for North-East, per steamer Lena Knobcock. The steamer will leave Dover at 8 a.m., arrive at Erie at 1 p.m., and leave for North East at 6 p.m. Tickets $1.25.

House cleaning time is now at hand and Geo. R. Perry, Simcoe, has the largest and most complete stock of Window Poles ever shown in the counties of Norfolk and Haldimand, at prices to suit purchasers. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, opposite Norfolk Block, Simcoe. 16-17.

The most exciting horse race of the season took place on the track on Wednesday last between Ben Hurst's bay stallion, Indian Chief, and T. E. Morrow's grey gelding, Kitty Morrow. Both horses were in excellent condition and at the ringing of the bell they shot away both eager to get to the front. At the quarter the filly was leading a little but before the half was reached it was neck and neck; at the three-quarters the filly began to tire and the bay stallion surged again to the front keeping it to a finish. Time, 9 minutes and 63 seconds. Purse, 500 cts. Judges, T. Hanrahan, Wm. Hewston and Joseph Steele.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl in the dark; you may know what you are doing but nobody else does.

A Salem (Ore.) newspaper recently printed the following personal: "If John Jones, who 20 years ago deserted his wife and babe, will return, said babe will lick the stuffin' out of him."

The Rev. Mr. Wells went to Grimsby yesterday to conduct the services in connection with the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the magnificent new church which the Presbyterians there are building.

The hind wheel of the wagon of a Picnic Party from Town broke down when in front of the Commercial Hotel yesterday causing a short delay but another waggon was soon furnished and the load proceeded on its way.

On Friday night last some party unknown broke a side light in one of the show windows of D. P. Cady's shop, and carried off two pairs of shoes which were in the window.—Star, Waterford.

Mr. Frank Lemon, of Woodhouse, was painfully injured on Monday week by a spin of colts running away, the waggon coming in contact with a gate with great violence, and hurling him heavily to the ground.

Mr. Arthur Hobbs, manager of Mr. J. H. Hager's tailoring establishment, left for Portland, Oregon, 1st Monday where he will go into business on his own account. He was accompanied by Mr. William Parker, who will also become a permanent resident of that city. A large number of friends were at the station to see the boys off and wish them success.—News, Hagersville.

A suit is pending in the Supreme Court at Brooklyn in which an actress sues a cigarette firm for $10,000 damages for distributing a picture of her head and face attached to an immodest print of a woman in tights. She ought to win it.

An Indian boy, by name Armstrong, about 16 years of age, fell into a well at the Sour Springs 1st Wednesday morning and was drowned. The poor boy was not of very sound mind and strayed away from home while his parents were working in a field. He was not discovered until six or so after the accident, when the body was taken out by Moses Turkey and J. B. Hill.—News, Hagersville.

A RAILWAY DEAL.—All sorts of rumors are flying about town as to the deal the Brantford, Waterford and Lake Erie railway have been making. It was asserted that they had sold out to the representatives of the M. C. R. at a profit of $8,000 to each director. But the deal is a different one, according to one of the board, being an amalgamation with a road now projected from Hamilton to Toronto, giving the Michigan Central a direct line into that great commercial center. This we are told, is certain of accomplishment.—Brantford Courier.

In Jarvis and immediate vicinity there are at present a good many children who have passed the entrance examination. For some time past there has been a strong desire among many of the parents of these children to engage a teacher, whose duties would be confined solely to teaching those who have passed the entrance examination and qualifying them to take at least a third class certificate. A meeting of the parents of children who have passed the entrance examination will be held in the Presbyterian Manse, on the evening of Thursday, the 25th inst., at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of having a consultation on the subject. It is hoped that all parents interested in the matter will attend.

She Got It.

They were sitting on the piazza that faced the sea, watching the white sailed yachts as they crossed the moon's track, when he suddenly said, "I think it must be delightful sailing on such a lovely night."
"Oh! lovely, I should think."
"I wish I owned one for your sake. I would take you sailing every night."
"That would be just lovely!"
"What kind of a yacht would you prefer—a steam yacht or a sailing one?"
"I think," she murmured as she glanced around, "I think I would like a little smack."
She got it.
