A boy Castile, N. Y., went into a trance and six doctors could not bring him out. Someone put a firecracker beneath him and he checked the racket with a jump and a yell, and an hour later was off for a game of baseball.

Albert Stewart was arrested at Hagersville Monday night week by a detective and taken to London on Tuesday morning on suspicion of being one of the trio who "worked" the two clerks in the office of the London loan company a couple of weeks ago and abstracted from the till $1,370.

One day last week Mr. Wm. Best-witherick, farmer, near Hagersville, purchased a quantity of canvas for a binder cover which he painted with red lead and hung on the side of a barn to dry. During the afternoon he conveyed it to the field and deposited it in a wagon box exposed to the hot rays of old Sol. Shortly after he noticed that the box was on fire and hastening over discovered that the canvas was entirely consumed and part of the wagon box destroyed.

A large number of our townspeople took advantage of the fine day on Sunday and went to Port Dover, but the storm and intense darkness in the evening made it very disagreeable coming home, several parties having to walk and lead the horses most of the way home. An unknown from Hagersville got as far as the corner of Main and Talbot streets all right when he run off the end of the culvert upsetting the buggy and breaking the top. With the exception of a good shaking up they got off very safe. We would recommend our township council board to look after the said culvert as it is very dangerous on a dark night.

Township Council meets again on Monday, Aug. 26. t.f.

We observe that the Dominion Government have reduced the rate of interest on deposits in the Government Savings Banks from 4 per cent. to 3 1/2 per cent. We have long thought that the policy of paying 4 per cent. on deposits when money could be borrowed at 3 1/2 per cent. in London, Eng., was to say the least unbusiness like, and we are glad to note that the Government has at last decided to adopt more business-like methods though somewhat tardy in their action.

Mr. Thomas Coates, of the North Ward, has a hive of bees that beats the record. On Sunday week they sent out a colony of bees, another followed on Monday, another on Tuesday, and another on Wednesday making four swarms in as many days, three of which were secured but the fourth one departed for unknown pastures. Who can beat it?—Canadian, Simcoe.

He—And you are sure that I am the first and only man who ever kissed you? See—Of course I am sure. You do not doubt my word do you? He—Of course I do not doubt you, my darling. I love you too madly, too devotedly for that. But why, oh why did you reach for the reins the very instant I ventured to put one arm around you if you had never been there before?

An editor works 365 1/2 days per year to get out fifty-two issues of a paper; that's labor. Once in awhile somebody pays him a year's subscription; that's capital. And once in awhile some son of a gun of a dead beat takes the paper for a year or two and vanishes without paying for it; that's anarchy. But later on justice will overtake the last-named creature for there is a place where he will get his deserts; that's hell.

The Rev. W. Calvert, Methodist minister at Cainsville, in the county of Brant, was thrown from his buggy in Brantford on Wednesday of last week, his head coming violently in contact with the ground and causing concussion of the brain. While driving down Brant avenue his horse shied and bolted toward the sidewalk which a wheel struck, throwing him out, and the horse ran away and wrecked the buggy. The injured man was taken to the hospital and is progressing favorably.—Canadian Wedding Bells.

Our genial and obliging baggage agent at the M.C.R. station, Mr. Jas. S. McHardie, "Sandy" has taken unto himself a helpmate as the scripture enjoins. This event took place Wednesday, 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. E. Steele, Cheapside, the bride being Miss Hattie Steele, daughter of the late E. E. Steele. A number of friends from this village and Cheapside were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. C. R. Morrow, of Jarvis. The bride was the recipient of numerous presents. As the happy couple were leaving Cheapside for this village the neighbors demonstrated their regard by the ringing of Church bells and heartily expressed good wishes. Upon arriving in town "Sandy" introduced to his aged parents, at their home, their new daughter. We had the pleasure of seeing the happy couple as they drove in; the bride neatly dressed in travelling suit and looking beautiful, bright-eyed and buxom. "Sandy" serenely happy. They took the afternoon express for the west, sent off by the music of the band and many good wishes for their future happiness, long life and prosperity.—Hagersville News.
