KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

SANT, WINTON COUNTY, OHIO, Dec. 19, 1888.

DR. B. J. KENDALL, CO.
Gents: I feel it my duty to say what I have done with your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I have cured twenty-five horses that had Spavins, ten of Ring Hone, nine afflicted with Big Hone and seven of Big Jaw. Since I have had one of your books and followed the directions, I have never lost a case of any kind.

Yours truly,

ANDREW TURNER,

THE BEST IS CHEAPEST. Farmer's Advocate & Home Magazine Every farmer should read the leading and only independent publication devoted to his business. Thousands say there is more equal to it, and no dollar extended from the farm returns so much good. It treats on all branches connected with the farm, and is highly prized by the ladies and children: it has saved many a farmer from the cost of his farm; it has saved the tarmers millions of dollars by checking the introduction and spread of contagious stock diseases: it has increased the receipts from our cereals by millions of dollars. Commended by City and County Councils and Agricultural Societies. Agents wanted. Sample copies free.

CURRENT NOTES.

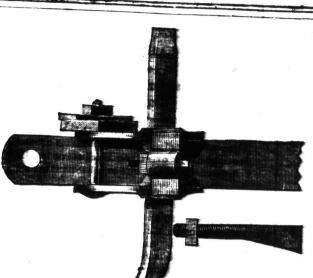

A private cablegram received at San Francisco by a Chinese firm reports a hurricane at Hong Kong has caused a loss of 10,000 lives and great damage to property.

The serious floods in the Conemaugh valley have had a most depressing effect on the general trade movement in the States during the latter part of Letter Heads, the week. The damage is estimated at the enormous sum of forty millions of dollars.

Mr. Van Horne. President of the Canadian Pacific railway, says that while immigration to the Dominion as a whole shows a falling off this year, immigration to the North-west from Europe is at least one hundred per cent. greater than it had ever been be-

At the convocation of Toronto University list Friday the honorary degree of L. L. D. was formally bestowed Blank Forms, on Sir John Macdonald, Chanceller Boyd, Mr. Oliver Mowat, Mr. W. R. Meredith, Dr. W. P. Aikins, Rev. John Cameron, and Mr, John Hoskins, Q. C.

A cable despatch announces a bright outlook for the Canadian cattle trade in the Liverpool and Glasgow markets. This will be good news for the farm. for those of this province. The value of the cattle exported from the Dc-The following changes were made in minion aggregates some $7,000,000 annually. Fully five-sixths of the animals representing this value are raised in Ontario, and by far the greater number find their way to the British market. The importance of a brightened outlook for so important a trade cannot be overestimated, more especially since the unseasonable weather of the latter part of May has had a somewhat blighting effect on the crop prospacts of early spring. - Tele-
