DI.DIERS.

Haiding of the School lorgs istrict No. 5 and at Niagara, and a m "A Estterv

note 3 and 1. As nent corps, they strength author.

and a but will

rill in samp ear

and the Missouri

oner to the Paris

Surgeons, He

d a nard worker.

of Mr. Andrew tiext door to n the or muses niver and the globe varnay ra Sale Cure in

He said ser had onnd myself a rouble I would me or work of for erwards removed

Brunswick . B

Dr. Francis Buckner was in court at Covington, ()., last Monday to answer to a charge of assault on Dr. Warner, a spiritnalist medium. Some weeks ago Warner took rooms at Buckner's, and before the latter knew what was going on had gained complete control over Mrs. Buckner and the children so far as spiritualism was concerned. Buckner ordered Warner to leave the house, but the wife interfered and he remained. Last Sunday evening Buckner came in from a professional visit and found Warner holding a seance in his parlor, assisted by two women from Chicago named Hughes and Shaw. Several neighbors were present and the disembodied were making frequent visits to the room. about. Before anybody realized what was going on Dr. Buckner had the something in his arms. It yelled, but it was useless, and Buckner dragging it to the hall door, threw it forcibly down the steps, when, after the wraps were Buckner caught Mrs. Hughes and threw her out of a window, and then gave his attention to Dr. Warner, first warning the people in the room not to interfere. Warner was knocked down and kicked, thrown against the wall and rolled under the piano. He was mauled on the head and pummeled on the body. His nose bled, blood came from his mouth, one eye was anybody you liked. closed, and his clothing was remarkable for the variety of rents it displayed. Finally Buckner stood the medium up and kicked him out of doors down the walk into the Returning to the house. Buckner smashed the cabinet and tossed Warner's personal effects into the street, where a great crowd had gathered and cheered she doctor as he made spiritualism a wreck in the Buckner household. The two ejected women had returned to the house, but Buckner drove them out, throwing their effects after them. Warner had Buckner arrested for assault and battery and malicious destruction of property. Warner presented a doleful abpearance. One eye was closed, an arm in sling and his face disfigured. The two women, who appeared as winesses, looked little better. After hearing Buckner's story the Judge dismissed him, and told Warner he thought he got off easily.

WOMEN IN TROUSERS.

Recent Cases That Have Been Exciting

Considerable Interest Abroad. women passing for men have recently been his extraordinary adventures, and the discovered in Great Britain and France. impression produced upon him through The most remarkable for length of time his dumb intercourse with the people is The yell which went up from the throats angel, that another Gospel was preached during which the deception was maintained highly interesting. Judging men and of her crew awoke all hands on shore, who and another altar lighted at the shrine was that of a person who, during a voyage things from an Afghan point of view, he came out just in time to see the McLeod but no one wishes to be critical. The from France to the Island of Jersey, acted was at a loss to find an explanation for the let go her anchor ten minutes later. Thus Highbury party was Unionist, intellectual, in a strange manner and finally fell uncon-kindheartedness shown to him by a was won and lost the longest and closest smart. amusing, cosmopolitan. Mrs. told her story, which was that at the age countrymen, agitated by an incomof 13 she had been left an orphan and had prehensible mode of thinking, are then adopted male clothes, which she had rude, cruel, and certainly inferior to ever since worn without discovery. She the Christians among whom he wan blind. was 55 years old and had therefore worn dered. "My Afghan brethren," he said, trousers for forty-two years. She had for "by caring too much for the salvation apprenticeship. the greater part of her life pursued the of men belonging to another creed, are calling of a courier, guiding parties of certainly acting against the rules of hostravellers over all parts of Europe, pitality and humanity, while the Chrisunder the name of Louis Herman tians, by caring little or nothing for re-Tobush. She had done well at the ligious differences, really fulfil toward business and had a balance at her their fellow dreatures all the duties of banker's. When she was taken sick humanity and of social intercourse." on the steamer she wore a fur waistcoat, a This he gladly admitted; but, on the other long overcoat, a stiff hat, and a turned hand, he stanchly adhered to the sour. down collar, and smoked a long pipe or a superiority of his Mahommedan religion, strong cigar, as she chanced to please. No and curious were the motives with which one had any suspicion she was not a man. he tried to justify his opinion. "The any one else recalls them. Among the witnesses in a recent suit at the Jews," he said. "accept and follow Moses Palace of Justice in Paris was a person, ap as their prophet; the Christians, by acparently a young man, dressed like a cepting Moses and Jesus, have got two those he has been taught. student, who was accompanied by what leaders, and are in advance of the Jews: seemed to be an elderly gentleman of grave while we Mohammedans, by accepting decisions if only he should reflect on the aspect. When the name of M'me Libert Moses, Jesus and Mohammed, have got reasons which moved him to them. was called the young man stepped forward. three leaders, and are therefore shead of

But this young man is my daughter," exclaimed the sedate gentleman, stepping path which leads to truth." In the course forward. The clerk decided to let the judge of his further conversation he nevertheless have a toy bank, into which they drop little see the witness and settle the matter. The felt himself obliged to confess that the coins now and again; and some day they judge told the young woman to go home Christian world is in the ascendency over draw out the whole of their savings at and put on proper clothes before she ap- the Moslem world, and that sooner or later once. peared to testify. " But I have not a single all Islam will be subdued by the overwhelm. dress to my name," she exclaimed. It ing power of the active strong and just turned out the old M'me Libert runs a men of Europe. The downfall of the Mo. printing office and had for a long time hammedans he finds inevitable, but he by the Walrond ranch to fence in a large

Joe Beef's Epitaph.

Some time since the famous "Joe Beef" died at his residence on Common street. Montreal, and was duly mourned by his wife and children. One of Mrs. McKiernan's first acts after "Joe" had ceased to live was to compose something appropriate for the stone which was to mark the last resting place of the deceased. Messrs. Forsyth & Co. have furnished the tombstone and Mrs. McKiernan the poetry. Here it is, with the inscription:

> In Memoriam.
> CHARLES MCKILENAN. Better known as "Joe Beef," Born at Cavan, Ireland. December 4, 1835, Died at Montreal January 15, 188

Such was the departed one we mourn. Dear to us all, cherished be his name Eternal pleasure reigns where he is gone-Dur loss is great, but oh! how great his gain ill many a man of wealth and power itas died and gone before. scorned to give a poor man bread When he stood at his door.

ut for took in the great unwashed. Who shared his humble style made their life a merry one.

Without a thought of guile Their eyes are dim for loss of him Their gratis quite sincere! He noused them from the winter blast and lilied them with good cheer. And when the day of reckoning comes-As come it does to all— Such sincere mourners they if not have Behind their funeral pall.

-Erected by his Wife. -" Curious." mused the bankrupt, " the

FRED'S PUNISHMENT.

They were talking of somebody who had been shamelessly jilted by her young man. Year's Day in a comfortable little grog-shop for jilting a girl as on a girl for jilting a young man.

" Fred. if you did that to me, if you went off with another girl, do you know what I would do ?"

No, dear. What?" "I would simply get hold of you and tell you what I thought of you, and then I'd leave you and never speak to you again."

" Would you really do that? Yes, I-no, I don't think I would. I A white something, that claimed to be a so little of me after all you said you canat all or of you ever after. If you think not be the gentleman I thought you were." "But, I say, dear, I haven't, you know

I haven't done anything at all. "No. I know you haven't, but if you were to, if I found that you were making love to another girl-Id-no-I wouldn't removed, it proved to be Mrs. Shaw, with doublynice to you—and I'd make youso fond they could see each other through their of me you couldn't live without me, and nothing more to do with you.

"That would be mean." "Well, so it would. No, I guess I'd go to you and tell you quietly that although you were so contemptibly double-faced it a month without success. couldn t be. I have too much self-respect; and that you were free—free to go with 'That would be better." "Would it? Oh. that wouldn't be all. I'd make you suffer—Oh, I'd make you suffer if you ever treated me like that."

"What would you do? " I'd wait till I got a good opportunity and I'd humiliate you.'

same. Maybe you think I'm stupid; but I'd show you.

ever found me ont-"Do you mean to say you have already? Well-" No. If I ever did, do you know what vou'd do ?"

do after all.

" What ?" "You'd go out and get another young man and make it out you jilted me."

Comparisons of Religions. When returning to Buda-Pesth, Mohammed Naim, an Afghan dervish, called An unusually large number of cases of upon me. He related to me the details of "I beg your pardon," said the clerk. "I all as regards spiritual guidance, for a himself is a sorry sight; and it is pitiful to three-eighths rope is best. Tie a good snap am asking for a lady, and not a man." people led by three leaders is certainly less discover that he can always give most exexposed to lose its way or to stumble on the cellent reasons for his folly.

Hit by a Coincidence.

The owner of a place on Second avenue stood in his barn door on the alley the other day when a man with a wooden leg and a crutch came along and passed the time o'

day and finally said: "Say, I want you to do me a favor. want to leave my leg with you for a few min-

"I want to go around on second avenue and work a house for half a dollar in money. I've got a pointer that the folks are very sympathetic. If I go with one leg I'm sure

Very well just leave your leg here and I'll take care of it." The wooden substitute was unstrapped and handed over, and the cripple used the crutch to help himself down the alley. Five minutes later he rang the doorbell of a house around the avenue, to have it opened by the man he had seen at the barn. "W-wha-what!" he gasped in astonishment.

"Very sympathetic family lives here! quietly replied the other. "You seem to have met with a sad loss, and I'm anxious! to help you. Here is a wooden leg which may fit you.

The leg was handed over, the man sat down on the steps and strapped it on, and, and fireworks to a boy on Sunday. as he got up and stumped through the gate, he said to himself:

" I've heard of coincidences ever since I was knee-high to hop-toad, but this is the | wounded five. first one that ever hit me with both feet to once!" - Detroit Free Press.

Emperor William and Prince Bismarck more you wind a business up the less it have sent telegrams to President Carnot ing it down one another's backs." It was somebody to give you a good big bank

AN UNPRECEDENTED RACE.

Ricked Out of Doors With His Ghosts Rather Hard to Decide On, but it Would It Lasted 108 Days and Was Won by Only Ten Minutes.

Two old sea dogs were celebrating New A woman is never as hard on a young man in the Plaza Mayor, the principal square in Manila. One of them, Capt. Stuart, a Scotchman, was commander of the John McLeod; the other, Capt. Sewell, an American, commanded the Paul Revere. Both vessels were full-rigged ships, nearly the same size, and both were noted for their sailing qualities. The two captains were proud of their ships, and each claimed that his was the best. The controversy, at first friendly, became heated. Finally Capt. Sewell brought his fist down on the table would despise you and have too great a and shouted: "I'll race you to New York contempt for you to take any notice of it for anything you want to bet. We can sail from here the same day and we are both bound for the same port. What do you

"Done," said the Scotchman.

"Let it be for the best dinner money can buy.

Two days later both vessels had their cargoes aboard, weighed anchor and set glasses, but when they reached Cape Horn then I'd turn around and tell you I wanted they were driven far apart. Their destination was never forgotten, and all the canvas their ships could carry was crowded on. The horizon was constantly scanned for a sight of the rival ship, but for more than At length, when southeast of Hatteras, they signted each other. They were almost abreast and about fifteen miles apart. In this position they continued until night. fall. After dark a furious gale came up, driving them several miles out of their course. Sail was shortened as little as was consistent with safety, however. For four days the gale continued, during which time neither ship could gain an advantage. At last the weather moderated, but the vessels "I don't know, but I would do it all the had lost sight of each other. No time was lost, and both made for the winning post, then only a few hundred "Shall I tell you what you'd do if you miles away. Down the homeward stretch they came, until when day broke yesterday morning they were in sight of Sandy Hook. When Capt. Sewell got out his glasses and leveled them to windward, he yelled: "By Jehosaphat, there's the McLeod, and we're not a foot ahead of her."

This was the literal truth. The two vessels were "neck and neck" after a race of Well, I guessthat's what I really would 108 days. Capt. Stuart saw the Revere about the same time and both ships crowded on every inch of canvas they could carry. Over the bar they came, up through the lower bay, neither having the slightest advantage. Just before they reached the Narrows the Revere got a slant of wind which the McLeod missed. It was not Bits of Wampum.

It is only the lucky who think fortune A paradox is often a truth serving its Children are the coupons on the bonds of marriage. White lies are the gentlemen usners o he black ones.

Rarely do we contradict those we love or hose we despise. Scratch a pessimist, and, more often than not, you will find an optimist turned

Many a man forgets his evil deeds so swiftly that he is honestly surprised when

Man has a firmer grip on the truths he thinks he has found out for himself than on Many a man would blush for his wisest

To see a clever man making a fool of

Some people keep a friend as children worn male clothing in order to manage her ascribes it rather to the sinful negligence portion of their range. The fence will begin business better. She was bringing up her and religious laxity of his fellow-believers at the Old Man's River, this side of the daughter to the same custon.—New York than to the higher level of the Christian Piegan reserve, and will extend to the hills religion. - Arminius Vambery in Good Words. some twelve or fourteen miles, gates being States for an article that was advertised as for us. Cash Furnished on satisfactory guaranty left at regular intervals. We believe the contracts for getting out posts, etc., have already been let. - Macleod Gazette.

A Big Fence.

> HEADACHE, fickle appetite, failure of eyecan or legs, gradual loss of flesh and dropsical swelling—any one or more of the above disorders are symptoms of advanced kidney disease or Bright's disease, and Warner's Safe Cure should be freely used. according to directions. Dr. Wm. H. Thompson, of the city of New York, says More adults are carried off in this country by chronic kidney disease than by any other one malady except consumption. The late Dr. Dio Lewis says, over his own signature, in speaking of Warner's Safe Cure: If I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble I should use your preparation.

The London Lancet recently contained this advertisement: "Home wanted for homicidal lady in house of medical man-Address, stating terms," etc.

Two original editions of "Walton's Angler," 1653, have been sold in London, realizing $2,400 and $360 respectively.

costs in Kingston yesterday for selling pop A conflict occurred yesterday between the strikers and military at Essen, Germany. The soldiers killed three men and elocutionist and actress, is dangerously ill A young lady's letter to her paps in Brookline, Mass., says of the ending of the friends tell me to adopt literature as a Centennial ball at New York: "Cham- means of a livelihood. What is the most pagne was all over the floor, and men pour- necessary thing to do first? Editor-Get a "glorious" celebration !

A POINTER.

As every reader of this paper knows, it has become one of the fine arts to write attractive and interesting advertisementsespecially medical ones.

Now it seems to us that if, for instance, the world-wide advertisers of Warner's Safe Remedies would adopt a style whereby they could work in a startling story of, say -wolves, we believe the immense sales of their medicines could be still more largely increased. We give them the benefit of the idea at any event. Let it commence like Patter! Patter! Patter! There it is again. It is not fifty yards from where he last halted. The steps are too light for those of an Indian. A grizzly would rush upon its victim with a roar of defiance and anger. A panther would hurl himself through thirty feet of space, with a scream to unnerve the hardiest hunter. Wolves," whispers the hunter, as a howl suddenly bursts upon his ear.

Wolves! the gaunt grizzly wolves of the foot-hills -thin and poor and hungry and savage—the legs tireless -the mouth full of teeth which can crack the shoulder-bone of buffalo. He can see their dark forms flitting from point to point the patter of of American millionaires, "is very simple. their feet upon the parched grass proves that he is surrounded—yet no more in dan. your bowels open." Thus in twelve words ger, and no more effectually surrounded than he who trifles with the symptoms of turned a poor boy into a hundred-millionkidney disease. And you, reader, know aire. Success often hinges upon as small a if your evesight is failing, if your appetite Pellets are not only the royal road to is fickle, if your urine is not clear and of a health, but to wealth and happiness as pale straw color, do not hesitate on the well. prairie of danger, but flee to the nearest haven of safety, and resort to the only How to Tell a True Flasher from a False. known cure for kidney and liver troubles, not only to yourself but to your family and ociety at large.

Delays are dangerous. the night, and unarmed, the wolves would small dot on the paper, then look at it have had no terrors for him. We warn through the diamond. If you can see but you just now, in broad daylight, before the one dot you can depend upon it that the wolves of disease sink their poisoned fangs stone is genuine, but if the mark is scatdeeply into your flesh and the night of tered, or shows more than one, you will be death settles down upon you, to stop your perfectly safe in refusing to pay ten cents ears to prejudice and bigotry, and to fly to for a stone that may be offered you at safety through the means we have pointed $500."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Chamberlain's Great Blow Out.

Edmund Yates says: Chamberlain's party at Highbury made one rub one's eyes and wonder whether he were awake or only passing through a dream. Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Viscounts, all came to pour incense on the altar of Unionism in the temple of which Chamberlain is the high priest. How the wheel goes round! For much, but it carried her ahead and she it seems but yesterday, under other auscaptivated. Her reception was very crowded. She pleased her Birmingham lieges by appearing in their pearl necklace. Every one who came feasted his eyes on a larger collection of the British aristocracy than they had ever seen or were likely to see again. The house at Highbury, most comfortable and luxuriously furnished, was done up recently, and what few improvements were wanted were added when Mr. Chamberlain brought home his bride.

How to Manage a Kicker.

Says a writer: "I have seen gentle cows poiled by pounding, but I never saw a kicker cured by it. If any horned animal kicks you, try to make it think you like to be kicked, Kind treatment and the entire ignoring of a kick from a cow will generally cure. Animals kick because they are afraid of you and can't get out of your way. Convince them that you won't hurt them under any circumstances and the cause for kicking is removed. For an unsafe or nervous cow, however, I use a rope; about to one end and a ring to the other, and have it about two or two and a half feet long over all. Pass the rope around the left hind leg just above the gambrel joint. give it one twist between the legs and then snap the ends together outside the right leg, and your cow is harmless. The more she is inclined to kick, the tighter the rope may be twisted. Now keep this rope hanging just behind the kicker and you need never whip her." Gulls Always in Season.

A few days ago a young man in an eastern city sent 25 cents to the United a sure destroyer of potato bugs. The Address, C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vermont, U. S. parcel arrived on Saturday and contained parcel arrived on Saturday and contained two small blocks of wood, with directions for use; the purchaser being informed not the purchaser being informed not representatives to investigate My. Parcel with the purchaser was a second to the purchaser being informed not representatives to investigate My. Parcel was a second to the purchaser was a second to the purchaser was a second to the purchaser being informed not representatives to investigate My. Parcel was a second to the purchaser was a second to the purch Headache, fickle appetite, failure of eyesight, tube casts in urine, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, cramps in Warner's Safe Cure should be freely used Victoria and a 1 cent Canadian stamp was sent to him.

Settling the Argument.

Marietta-Husband, you are alway complaining about the ostentation of the diamonds I wear in my hair. Have you forgotten that Shakspeare wrote, "E'en the venomous toad hath a jewell in his head Husband-Oh, well, if you want to dress like a toad, I have nothing more to say.

Needed Relief.

"Could I induce you, Mr. Jobson, to par with your seraphic daughter Clara?" "Bless your life, young man, yes. I told her mother last night that if nobody came along pretty soon I'd let her run off with A man named Hopkins was fined $10 and the coachman."

> The ramor is out that Digby Bell will go starring next season.

> Mrs. T. Charles Watson, the well-known in New York.

Bagley-I want a little advice. My account.

DR. CRONIN SPOKEN.

A Recent Mysterious Disappearance with a Queer Sequel.

Dr. H. P. Cronin, of Chicago, the former st. Catharines resident, whose mysterious disappearance has caused such a sensation in Chicago, was seen in Toronto yesterday. He took the 12.20 G. T. R. train for this city. The reason for the man's strange conduct is not given. He was seen on Yonge street, Toronto, by a person whose family physician he was in Chicago. When accosted with "Why, hello, Doc, how are you? What are you doing here?" he replied, My dear sir, you have the advantage of me. I don't know you."

"Now look here, Doc, there's no use of talking like that. Why do you speak that way to me?"

"My dear sir," replied the doctor," if you don't cease molesting me I'll call a policeman and have you arrested." Then Dr. Cronin drew himself up and moved off. He looked half crazy, says the man who spoke to him.

The Millionaire's Secret.

"The secret of success," said the prince Keep out of debt, keep your head cool and of wisdom was summed up the policy which whether or not you are a victim to its in- matter as the state of the bowels. So you sidious encroachment. If your back aches, see that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative

" It doesn't require an expert," said Dr. Warner's Safe Cure. It is a duty you owe, De Menil, "to tell whether a diamond is genuine or not. The test is very simple and can be made in any place and in a mo-Had the traveller not been overtaken in a lead encil. With the latter make a ment. All you need is a piece of paper and

Doomed to die, and oh, so young. Is there nothing that can This poor, hopeless sufferer From the dark and cruel grave? Comes an answer, "Yes, there is:
'Favorite Prescription' try!
It has saved the lives of thousands
Who were given up to die."

For all "female diseases" Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the standard remedy, and no woman should despair of recovery until she has given it a trial.

Time Brings Wisdom.

Rev. Dr. Prim-" Do you preach extempore, Brother Yallerby, or do you take notes? Brother Yallerby (from the South)scious. A doctor found that although nation so utterly different in religion, race on record.—New York Correspondent Chamberlain made the most charming of notes, but I'be found it safest, down in my hostesses, and won every heart not already deestrick, to insist on habin' the cash down! Well, sah, thar was once a time I took leestrick, to insist on habin' the cash down! -Texus Siftings.

When you feel your strength is failing, In some strange, mysterious way; When your cheek is slowly paling And, "Poor thing," the neighbors say,

As they look at you in pity,
To the nearest drug store send. At the earliest chance, and get a Bottle of the Sick Man's Friend.

You will get what you want by asking for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine tones up and invigorates the weakened system by purifying the blood and restoring lost vigor.

Encouraging.

"Well, how did you enjoy yourself in the Art Exhibition?" "Oh, splendidly I looked at nobody's pictures but yours You see there were always so many people standing before the other pictures, and there was always plenty of room by yours!" -Fliegende Blatter.

Sat Upon.

The Montreal Star says: It is announced on excellent authority that the recent Papal decree constituting an independent university in Montreal has been quashed at the instance of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Quebec.

DCNL 21 89.

MERCHANTS, BUTCHERS TRADERS Generally We want a good MAN in your locality to pick up

SKINS

"After a most thorough investigation of Mr Page's business as compared with others in same line, we have become fully satisfied that in is specialty, light-weight stock, he is unquestionably the largest dealer in this country, while in superiority of quality he is confessedly at the head."

QUERY: If Mr. Pages business is the largest in its line in the United States is it not the best QUERY: If Mr. Pages business is the largest in its line in the United States, is it not the best possible proof of his ability to pay highest prices? If he did not do so, would he naturally get more Skins than any of his competitors in the same line?

FRENCH, SPANISH, ITALIAN Figure Paintings (5). Full directions (3), post paid. SPANISH PORTRAIT CO 14 West 23rd street, New York. Agents wanted

IMPERIAL PEN AND PENCIL STAMP. With your name, to print cards any order. H. BARNARD, Rubbet

DUNN'S

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND