We are pleased to observe that both of the Jarvis boys, J. A. Ivey and Walter Langrill who wrote at the Medical Council examination were successful, the former for his final and the latter for his primary. More than one-third of the candidates for the final failed and only 113 out of 244 for the primary were successful-so that the test was a severe one. In a former issue we gave the standing of Dr. Ivey at Victoria University. Below we give that of W. F. Langrill, at Toronto University in competition with 49 candidates. CHURCH RE-OPENING. - Cheapside Methodist Church was re-opened list Sabbath after extensive repairs. Rev. Weil Bros., shipped two eard load of T.S. Linscott of Brantford, preached morning and evening, and Rev. Wm. Morton an old pastor in the afternoon. There were immense audiences and the sermons were able expositions of the word and listened to with marked attention. On Monday evening a teameeting was held in the drill shed and addresses in the church. Notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather and roads the proceeds of tea and collections amounted to over $100. An appeal for $300 was made by the pastor, Rev. T. W. Jackson and in a Mr. John Featherston shipped a fine short time the whole was raised. A reading by Miss Brown and able addresses were given by Messrs. Hamilton and Wells of Jarvis, Morton of Hamilton and T. Dann of Selkirk. The Jarvis choir rendered very efficient services. A hearty vote of thanks to the Baptist congregation for the use of their church during repairs was also passed. Altogether it was a grand

An Irresistable Bait for Rats.

According to a Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette an interesting, not to say a valuable discovery has been made by Capt. Weedin, in charge of the animals at the Zoo. The building is infested by rats, and how to get rid of them has long been a perplexing question. Traps were used, but nothing would tempt Mr. J. S. Parsons has taken charge the rodents to enter.
