

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

AROUND THE HUB.

Poultry is plentiful.

Four weeks from to-day will be Xmas day.

Time to commence your Christmas present.

The weather is as uncertain as the age of a girl over thirty.

Business was very good on Saturday considering the state of the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Underhill, spent Sunday in Simcoe.

Rev. Mr. Francis, of Cayuga was in town on Monday.

Miss Rogers, of Niagara Falls, is visiting her sister here, Mrs. Gardner.

The fall wheat plant is looking well, notwithstanding the dryness of the fall.

A. W. Chrysler, of Delhi has disposed of his Kohler stock to J. Best, of Brantford.

Sim Benn, operator on the Air Line at Simcoe, made us a pleasant call on Monday.

Percy Brock has completed his house and will likely move into it in a short time.

Sill, Jones & Co. have been making large shipments of poultry and eggs during the present month.

Chester Rodgers, son of Mrs. Wm. Rodgers, fell and broke his thumb while playing at his home on Saturday.

Christmas is approaching rapidly, and if you want a good holiday trade now is the time to do your advertising.

The Montreal Herald building was badly damaged by fire on Saturday evening, causing a loss of $15,000.

Our readers' attention is called to the changes of advertisements of Thos. C. Watkins and F. J. Fralick, Hamilton, in this issue.

Every man can do something for the benefit of the town in which he lives. Don't be a drone in the busy hive, and don't pull backwards.

The Jarvis Churn Co. is doing a rushing business at present, and have now in their employ, Thos. Welsh, of Hamilton, a practical tinsmith.

The Rev. Mr. Caswell, of Hagersville and Dufferin, has resigned his charge as pastor of those congregations, and will leave at the end of the present year.

There is an attractive young lady in Tilsonburg who is so fickle that she "shakes" a sweetheart every month. In her case we suppose love is a sort of intermittent fever.

Dr. Montague lectured in Seymour's hall, Hagersville, Friday evening, on the subject, A Canadian's Heritage. There was a large and well-pleased audience.

A tea-meeting will be given under the auspices of the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening Dec. 11. Full particulars given later; wait for it as a grand time is expected.

Rev. Dr. Potts, of Toronto, will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist Church here, on Sabbath morning next, and in the Methodist Church, Hagersville, in the evening.

Mr. Lewis Livingston, for some past operator at the Air Line Station, left yesterday for Wanstead, where he has been appointed agent. We wish him success in his new home.

The Toronto Weekly News and Jarvis Record will be sent to any address from now to Jan. 1st, 1891 for the small sum of $1.75 cash. Subscribe now and get your choice of two of the following three engravings:—"Napoleon on H.M.S. Bellerophon," "The Fathers of Confederation," and "Christ Before Pilate." Don't delay; send in your order now.

If you need any article of merchandise which your merchant does not have in stock, tell him of it and you will be surprised at the readiness with which he will order it for you. And the fact is, you will find that he will be able to order it specially and sell it to you cheaper than you can buy it elsewhere. Let us all work together for everything of a business character and the result can only be success: Every dollar you spend at home instead of sending abroad, is just that much toward building up home institutions.

CONVENTION—The International Bee-keepers' Association will meet in the Court House at Brantford, Ont., on Dec. 4th, 5th and 6th, 1889. All bee-keepers are invited to attend, and State and District bee-keepers' societies are requested to appoint delegates to convention. Any one desirous of becoming a member and receiving the last annual report bound, may do so by forwarding $1.00 to the secretary, R. F. Holderman, Romney, Ont.

To the Editor of JARVIS RECORD:

DEAR SIR,—A report has been circulated to the effect that the Bank of Commerce intends closing its branch in Jarvis. I may say that there is no truth whatever in this report, and that the Bank has no intention of withdrawing from Jarvis.

Yours truly,

H. J. GRASSETT, Manager.
Jarvis, Nov. 25th, 1889.

Walpole Council meets on Monday, December 16th.

Mr. W. Suter, of Cookstown Minn., is visiting among friends in this vicinity.

According to the Canadian Forester for November, the Canadian Order of Foresters have $100,000 on hand to pay death claims.

The members of the Methodist Church have decided to have it comfortable this winter and Copp of Hamilton is putting a furnace in the church this week.

Mr. J. A. Cooley, Dunnville, has a hen which produces 4 1/2 oz. eggs. That hen must be evidently fitting herself for the coming Poultry Exhibition.

Mr. J. Thos. Murphy has purchased the store on Norfolk street, Simcoe, owned by the Miller estate, and has removed the Express Office into it.

See R. Pedlow's change of adv't in another column. He has just opened a complete stock of Hardware. Call and get prices; they will astonish you.

A GREAT HOLIDAY PAPER.—The Globe Christmas number for this year promises to eclipse any former Christmas issue at home or abroad. See their advertisement in another column.

The new Methodist Church, Garnet, will be opened on Monday, Dec. 2nd. There will be sermons in the afternoon and a grand tea-meeting in the evening.

Rev. Dr. Potts, of Toronto, is expected. Music by the Hagersville Methodist choir. Admission, 50 cents.

Alonzo Boughman, who has been acting as porter at the Air Line station in this village for several years, has gone to Port Rowan. His friends will regret to learn of his removal from our midst. His position has been filled here by Mr. Frank Brock, of London.

There will be a special general meeting of the Ontario Bee-keepers' Association at Brantford on the 4th, 5th and 6th of December in connection with and in the same place as the International Bee-keepers' Association. All members are respectfully requested to attend. W. Conso, Secretary O. B. K. A.

The bye-election in West Lambton on Monday resulted, as was expected, in the return of the Reform candidate, Mr. Chas. Mackenzie, by a majority of between six and seven hundred. Some interest was excited in the contest by the Equal Righters having a candidate in the field. The new party candidate, Mr. McCrae, polled about seven hundred votes and made a better showing than was anticipated.

HAMILTON'S BOY PRODIGY.—A correspondent to the Herald, has the following to say of DeWitt, son W. F. Stuart, of Hamilton, formerly of this village:—"DeWitt Talmage Stuart, the child elocutionist, did credit to himself on Thursday evening in the rendering of his battle scene at Zion Tabernacle. His power as an elocutionist is indeed wonderful for a child, and the vast audience fully appreciated his effort, as was shown by the rousing encore given, and to which he responded in fine style."

George Ivel, one of the oldest and most faithful servants of the village died suddenly on Wednesday last. He had not been feeling well for a few days previous but nothing serious was anticipated. He attended to his duties as usual on Wednesday but on returning home in the evening complained of feeling unusually tired. A short time after his wife noticed his head fall forward and before she could reach his side he had breathed his last. Apoplexy is supposed to have caused his death. The funeral took place on Friday and was attended by a large number of friends, the Members of the Council and Officers of the village, attending in a body as a mark of respect.—News.

Literary Notes.

The Musical Journal for November contains some very interesting articles, well worthy of perusal by both amateur and professional musicians. It is well edited, well printed, and should be well supported. The subscription is very small (50 cents per annum), placing it within the reach of every one. We commend it to our readers. TIMMS, MOORE & Co., publishers, Oxford Press, Toronto.
