A surprise party was given Mrs. J. W. Rodgers (nee Favel) at the residence of her uncle, Mr. Robert Garnham, in which a number of her friends met to show their respect and goodwill towards Mrs. Rodgers, who is about to depart for her new home at Jarvis. Supper being provided by the ladies, those present sat down to a sumptuous repast, in which all seemed to take an active part. After the table was cleared all indulged in enjoyment of some kind, the evening being filled in with songs and conversation. After the assembly had been called to order an address was read by Mr. Geo. Bennett and a handsome Bible presented to Mrs. Rodgers by Mrs. J. A. Garnham on behalf of her many friends. Mr. J. W. Rodgers replied in a suitable manner on behalf of his wife.—Guysboro correspondent to the Tilsonburg Observer.

Rev. W. W. Baer formerly of the Jarvis Circuit of the Niagara Methodist Conference but now of the Gorge Road Methodist Church in the city of Victoria, B. C. recently received from the quarterly official board of the Nanaimo Church an enthusiastic and unanimous invitation to become their pastor at next annual conference. Mr. Baer having gone to Victoria for only one year to complete a three year term of Rev. J. W. Wadman who resigned at last conference, accepted the invitation. The affair leaked out into the Victoria papers and the Q. O. B. of Mr. Baer's present church immediately called a special meeting to protest the Nanaimo invitation. After a long discussion a resolution was formulated inviting Mr. Baer to remain in Victoria, but Mr. B. declined to let it go to vote as he did not wish to foment trouble for the stationing committee. As it stands Mr. Baer practically was invited to two of the best churches in British Columbia and his many friends in this village and elsewhere will be pleased to hear of his success in the far west.
