The fall exhibition of the Walpole Agricultural Society held in town yesterday and to-day promises to be a huge success. A large number of entries in all the classes have been made and there is every indication of a successful show. All we want now is a big crowd for to-day.

The sad intelligence was conveyed here on Tuesday, announcing the death of Mr. Herbert Orton, brother of Mr. James Orton, blacksmith. Mr. Orton left here several years ago for Golden Col., at which place he died of consumption. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.—Aylmer Sun.

Mr. Orton was employed here about two years ago by Messrs. Steel & Sowler, Carriage Builders. His many friends here will be sorry to learn of his death.

The West Haldimand show held at Hagersville on Thursday and Friday of last week was not a financial success. A few of the prize winners from this section were as follows:—S. Allen got first on team and first on single harness; Gideon Snider took 10 prizes on swine; Wm. Parkinson, Garnet, got two firsts on his mares; J. D. Crichton got first on his pair of roadsters, and Fallis Bros. got several prizes on horses.

Rev. Charles Deacon will deliver two great illustrated lectures in the Methodist Church, here, on Monday and Wednesday evenings, Oct. 21st and 23rd, respectively. Monday evening the lecture will be on Africa—the travels, sufferings and achievements of Dr. Livingstone among the natives. This lecture will be illustrated by about 40 pictures from a powerful stereopticon. Wednesday evening the lecture will be on China and Its People. Over 50 pictures will show many of the peculiar customs of the Chinese, places of interest, modes of travel, amusements, etc. Read what the Rev. Leroy Hooker says:—"I have heard Mr. Deacon's illustrated lecture on Livingstone, and have pleasure in commending it to the public as calculated to afford entertainment and instruction, and to quicken the missionary zeal of Christian people." Admission 15c., children 10c. Rev. Charles Deacon will be at Chesapeake on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd, and deliver one of his lectures.

Don't forget when you go to Simcoe Show that Wallace McQueen has rebuilt his fine hotel and stable on the grounds of the old hotel, Kent street, and is now ready for business. He will be glad to see all his old friends and a host of new ones.

House cleaning time is now at hand and Geo. R. Perry, Simcoe, has the largest and most complete stock of Window Poles ever shown in the counties of Norfolk and Haldimand, at prices to suit purchasers. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the place, opposite Norfolk Block, Simcoe.

A good advertisement is the best of all possible salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps; who goes after business early and late; accosts the merchant in his shop, the student in his study, the lawyer at his office, the lady at her breakfast table; who can be in a thousand places at once, and speak to thousands of people each week, saying to each one the best things in the best manner.

MAKING AMENDS.—An editor evidently desirous of making some amends for the long standing sins of his profession writes as follows:—"The red haired girl is a lovely creature. She has a warm, affectionate, cheering, honest, steadfast heart, and never thinks of deceit. She may have a little spirit in her temper but it is like thunder—it doesn't last long. Treat her well and the red-haired girl is peerless. She is an essential element of society. She brings with her an air of spigh'liness, her laughter is sunshine, her speech dew drops sparkling with freshness. Red haired girls are too few and too precious.

How to INJURE a TOWN.—Order your goods from some other town. Buy of peddlers as often and as much as possible. Go to some other place to get your printing done. If you are a merchant don't advertise in the home papers, but buy a rubber stamp and use that—it may save a few dimes.

Slander your public men at every opportunity, and do all within your power to hinder and annoy them in their public duties. This is a sure receipt.

TAKE WARNING.—As our fair commenced yesterday, it is altogether likely that the usual number of fakirs will be in attendance, we commend the following appropriate verse to the attention of our readers and others:—

Do not, good friend, for any sake,
Be green enough to think
That you can beat the fakir's fake,
Or win the fakir's chink.
He is not giving wealth away
As free as mud or air,
And if he could not make it pay,
Would not attend our Fair.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Service and Festival in connection with St. Paul's Church on Wednesday evening last was a grand success. A large number sat down to the heavily laden tables and enjoyed the good things spread before them. After which they repaired to the church which was gaily and suitably decorated for the occasion, and those who assisted in decorating deserve great credit for the manner in which it was performed. Rev. W. R. Clarke, M. A., of Ancaster, was the preacher for the occasion, assisted by a number of other clergymen. The Hagersville choir was in attendance and furnished music. The proceeds amounted to over $60.00.

A man who owes us over two years subscription put his paper back in the post-office last week, marked "Refused." We have heard of mean men. There is a man who used the wart on his neck for a collar button, the one who pastured a goat on his grandmother's grave, the one who stole coppers from dead men's eyes, the one who got rich by giving his five children a nickel each to go to bed without supper and then stealing the nickels after the children were asleep; but for downright meanness the man who will take a piper for years, never pay anything for it marks "Refused," and then stick it back in the post-office is entitled to the first premium. Now, if that man don't settle his account with this office inside of three weeks, we shall tell who he is and where he lives, and invite him to go down the grand circuit of cattle fairs to be exhibited as the meanest man on earth.

Monopolies and Combines are a source of menace to the public welfare, and should be stamped out. So should catarrh. Mr. J. Duncan, Maple Creek, N. W. T., says:—"Nasal Balm has done my catarrh good, more than all the numerous remedies I had previously tried combined. I have improved so much that I believe one more bottle will completely cure me.
