Some Important Testimony Before the Coroner's Jury.

A PACKAGE OF STRYCHNINE. A St. John, N. B., despatch of Wednesday says : The MacRae inquest was consinued this evening. Only four witnesses were examined, but the evidence was of much more importance than any before submitted, and indicates that the authorities have a good case. Thos. L. Hay testifled to leaving Rev. Mr. Shaw's box of candy at the Globe office.

T. B. Barker, senior member of the firm of Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons, said Mc. Donald entered their employ about two months ago. He was engaged in the sunwith the compounding of medicines. He left work at 6 o'clock each evening, and if there after that it was by request to do special work. McDonald had been in their employ some years before, but they knew he was not the same boy now, as he had been incane. He was always nervous, but they never noticed anything out of the way

H. W. Barker, junior partner in the firm, said he considered McDonald mentally and physically sound when he entered their arrests tell the story of new developments employ about two months ago, and he in the Cronin case. To-night the State's never noticed anything out of the way with him until Friday or Saturday last, when session. All the lawyers for the defence he seemed very nervous, and dropped a were generally believed to be in close confab parcel he was doing up. He was shown elsewhere. At 11 p.m. it was known that the candy boxes and said they were similar a new arrest had been made, and the pristo some imported by them in 1887 from S. oner taken for concealment to an outlying R. Stewart & Co., Aberdeen, with combs in police station. Two other arrests were them. German strychnine, he said, was expected before midnight. imported in one ounce parcels, consisting of eight drachm bottles. One parcel now in having engaged in a plot to fix the Cronin that William Haines, the office boy, had revealed nothing until he was confronted new lock was put on the door on Saturday not under arrest, but is obliged to report to tric Motor Co. The wires were cut all the last. He did not know of any loose combs the State's Attorney every half hour by way up Centre street. in their establishment, but the Coroner distelephone. played eight packages, the contents of four boxes which had been found in the store by the police officers. They sometimes purchased paper from C. L. Nelson. He iden. tified some samples of McDonald's writing, but could not identify the addresses on the candy packages as his. W. B. Gerow, bookkeeper in Barker's had a duplicate key of the office, and benine was kept. A week ago Saturday night he met him going out of the door about his arm. He explained that he had been trying on a new pair of boots. On the with the work, but, being refused, went conversation and very quick and obliging, but somewhat nervous. On Friday he was more nervous than usual, and hung about the office more than was his wons. Witness also noticed a peculiar look in his eyes and thought him sick. His suspicions were arroused somewhat, and on Saturday at noon he called on the Coroner and Chief of The Victim of a Deadly Assault Takes the Police and examined the boxes, but was satisfied there was none like them in the establishment, and so reported to Mr. boxes. The broken package of strychnine was found at the bottom of the pile, with age could be accounted for.

This evidence caused much surprise, but to-morrow evening. A St. John, N. B., despatch of Friday says: At the inquest this evening con-to McDonald as the sender of the boxes of poisoned candy was adduced. S. J. King, Post-office Inspector, said he was now satisfied the packages were mailed between 5.15 and 8.15 o'clock on Tuesday evening, October 1st.

H. B. Peters, head clerk in Messrs. Bar. kers' wholesale store, said he noticed that McDonald was more nervous than when he worked there some years ago, and his memory was detective. He considered him more nervous on Friday than usual. On Friday morning last he had a conversation with W. S. Barker, who said it might be some person in the store who had sent the the case. candy. His suspicions were also aroused because McDonaid had been seen in the store at night, when he had no business there. He found boxes in the store similar to those containing the candy. Barker's reason for suspecting McDonald was because he had been of unsound mind. Gerow had told him he did not like to have McDonald there at night, and Wasson had seen McDonald in the store standing at The steer at length reached Madison the deek the night the candy was mailed, but he disappeared in a few minutes. He was shown the entry book of the store and identified McDonald's writing, but would not express the opinion whether the letters "cit," of the word "city," in one order were the same as the letters of the address on one of the pack-

Police Inspector Weatherhead told of the clothes, finding some brown paper the same the policemen then managed with some as that the boxes were wrapped in, a mem- difficulty to finish him. orandum book, loaded revolver, box of cartridges and some trinkets. He also searched his room in Mrs. Barker's house, but the only thing found was some more of for your snit, sir, $50. the brown wrapping paper.

entries in the book were in ink of the same objection to my paying you in jokes. color as the writing on the packages of W. S. Barker, bookkeeper in the retail paper office. store, said he had lent his key to the wholesale d. partment to McDonald on one occasion. He went on Saturday evening, the 21st or 28th September, and saw Mc- The bookworm never makes a butter. the drug table. He said, " Hello, Will, — The waiter girl is different from a line out in the shoals. The crew of fifteen was no what are you doing back here at this time poet. She is not born; she is maid to are safe. The vessel will be a total wreak.

The vessel will be a total wreak. of night?" McDonald replied, "Finish- order.

ish up some work." On Friday morning last he talked over the poisoning case with Peters, and both were of opinion that it was done by some person of unsound mind, and asked could it possibly have been Mc-Donald. Peters said there was a bare possibility of such being the case. McDonald had asked him to go fishing on Sunday argue with him, saying Sunday was the poorly insulated. Mayor Grant then desame as any other day to him and clearly showed that he had no religious belief.

THE CRONIN CASE.

Arresta for Jury Fixing-Important Movements of the Prosecution.

A Chicago despatch of Saturday says

Cronin jury. sons spent the night in jail.

Secret conferences and rumors of further Attorney and his associates were in private

Edward Heagland, who confessed to the store had only seven bottles, but he jury, implicates Kavanagh and O'Donnel believed the other could be accounted for as the men through whom he was drawn through the order book. He was aware into the business. Hoagland says he lent his key to McDonaid, who had a by his mother, who inadvertently admitted duplicate made, and as a consequence a his connection with the plot. Hoagland is

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Fast Express Jumps the Track Near : Bridge.

A Rahway, N. J., despatch of Sanday says: The fast Philadelphia express train was by to-day's offerings increased to on the Pennsylvania railroad, due here at $1,063.83. Hardly any one passed the 11.13 a.m. to-day, made up of two combina- pole without dropping something for Feeks' the week. He was aware that McDonald tion parlor cars and three coaches, passed family. late, running 60 miles an hour. The there on four different occasions. The first engine, just as it reached the east end of time was two weeks ago to night, when he the long bridge, jumped the track, and was was writing a letter at the desk. A few followed by the five cars. The crash was days later he saw him in the back shop, at terrific, and was heard a quarter of a mile the end of a table in a stooping position, away. The train ran along the ties for 200 send of a table in a scooping position, feet, when the coupling broke between the miles from here, last night the dwelling of tion. There are four tracks there, and the seven in the evening with a parcel under cars were twisted around in such a way as feet and the cars themselves. Although Monday night following McDonald came the passengers were seriously shaken up, it into the office about 7 o'clock and asked it is most remarkable that the only persons Haines was there. He offered to assist injured were two ladies cut by flying glass. out. McDonald was always rational in senger. The accident was owing to the it is said had not been properly spiked. Traffic was delayed all the afternoon, while an army of workmen were building a new roadbed.

A GEORGIA FEUD.

Law Into His Own Hands. An Augusta, Ga., despatch of Sunday says: The second bloody chapter in the Barker. Afterwards he found the comb terrible history which began with the shooting of C. E. McGregor in his own yard on December 13th, 1887, was enacted the wrong end turned out so as to hide the upon the streets of Warrenton, Ga., yesterbroken label, but it was possible the pack. day, in the killing of J. M. W. Cody by C. E. McGregor. Cody had just ridden in from the country. McGregor walked up to some of a more startling nature is expected him and fired three balls into him. Cody died instantly. Cody was indicted at the April term of the court with assault with iderable circumstantial evidence pointing under $2,500 bonds to appear for trial at the October term, but when the court convened Cody was not present, and although a bench warrant was issued for his arrest, that he had decided that if the court would not punish Cody for his attempt to assassinate him he would do it himself. Mc-

An Infuriated Steer at Large. A Saturday's New York despatch says : Two Texan steers escaped from a slaughter house in West 40th street to-day. One was afterwards captured in Riverside Park. The other, a harmless beast, wandered down town. The cry of "Mad bull!" caused a crowd to chase him to Broadway. square and rushed across the park. The animal was now pursued by a crowd of 3,000, headed by several policemen. He stopped at Eighth avenue and Twentyfifth street exhausted. Twelve policemen opened fire with uncertain aim from a safe distance. Three bullets entered the steer's body, and he moved up a block bleeding profusely. The shots maddened him, and he twice charged the crowd, knocking down arrest of McDonald and of searching his a dozen men. The crowd stampeded, and

> The Glorious Future. Tailor (100 years hence)—Here is a bill

Professional humorist—Ah, yes. I left W. B. Gerow, the Barkers' bookkeeper, my check book at home, but (producing a would not express an opinion whether the wad of M.S.S.) I presume you have no Tailor (receipting bill)—Certainly not, sir. They are always good at any news-

> Nothing looks more like a man of sense than a fool who holds his tongue.

THOSE DEADLY WIRES.

Them Safe—He Has a Plan.

A New York despatch of Sunday says wires where the lineman was killed on Friminutes' stay, as previously stated, Em-Expert Wheeler examined the electric light day and reported before the Board of Electrical Control yesterday that they were injunction was granted by Judge Andrews, not to interfere. In an interview to-day Mr. Thos. A. Edi-grand jury in the Cronin murder case ing the current between two dangerous conference with the will only be a question of burned out tubes and of deadly accidents, perhaps less occasional. The only solution is to restrain the tension of the current as I have said, > lated. Attaches of the Board of Electrical Control yesterday afternoon appeared at the corner of Chambers and Centre streets and commenced to cut down two improperly insulated wires belonging to the Daft Elec-

The autopsy on Feek's body was held in the presence of a number of physicians. The unanimous opinion was that the man was instantly killed by the first electric shock he received.

The fund dropped into a box on the pole on which Lineman. Feeks met his death

A DREADFUL AFFAIR. Mrs. Daily and Her Three Sons Burned

a Charred Mass. A Bradford, Pa., despatch says: At Davis Switch, a small village thirteen ook stove to turn off part of the gas. He minutes. The charred and blackened bodies presented a sickening sight. Mrs. Daily's limbs were burned from her body and her intestines exposed to view. Her flesh was cooked to the bone. The three not be identified until placed side by side. to the cooking stove. Mr. Daily is severely but not fatally burned about the head and face, and is almost crazed with grief. The Deadly "Live" Wire.

A New York despatch of yesterday says An electric light lineman named John intent to murder McGregor. Cody was Feeks was killed at Centre and Chambers streets this afternoon by a live wire. He was employed by the Western Union, and presented a terrible sight as he died on the right shoulder is filled with shot and badly he could not be found. McGregor said fluid actually made his body sizzle, and the the oldest being 8 years and the youngest 2 blood to pour to the sidewalk and over the years. clothing of horrified spectators. The accident, occuring in the middle of the day in Gregor is an ex-member of the Legislature. one of the busiest parts of the city, was Ccdy was a prominent citizen. Intense witnessed by a large number of people. The feeling prevails, and the citizens fear there man's body lay limp and motionless over will be further trouble. McGregor is in the mass of wires attached to the cross arm custody. A mystery surrounds the of the pole. The firemen brought a ladder, original cause of the trouble, but it is and one went up with a pair of shears to generally asserted there was a woman in out the wires. The man was found to be dead. He probably touched the electric light wire by accident. The body remained where it was until the firemen went to the factory and had the current turned off.

An Epidemic of Typhoid.

An Oakland, Md., despatch says: An at Aurora, W. Va., fifteen miles from Oakland. It is said the entire neighborhood for miles around is infected. There is scarcely a family without one or more localities there are scarcely enough healthy persons to nurse the sick.

All About a Love Affair. says : Henry Hoffman and Lawrence Hunter, each aged 45, courted the same woman. Hunter was the favored suitor. Hoffman became jealous and called on Hunter today. The men exchanged a few words, recover. Knew the Sex. Annie-Oh Charlie, I found out something to-day that I promised never, never to tell

ette, the husband of the woman

BOYAL TOASTS.

Edison Says No Insulation Will Make The Caar and Haiser Drink Wine as A Berlin despatch says: Instead of leaving the Russian Embassy after a few peror William remained to attend a dejeuner given by the Russian Ambassador. Count Schouvaloff presided, and the two cided to have the wires cut down, but an Emperors and all their attendants were present. Count Schouvaloff, raising his returnable to morrow, ordering the Mayor glass, welcomed the Czar, and called for three cheers for His Majesty. There was a hearty response, and the band of the son said: There is no insulation which will Alexander Regiment played the Russian make an electric wire safe. When under National Anthem, the Czar speaking in ground the high tension wires will burn out French during the repast. Emperor Wilthe tubes, the dangerous current will creep liam left the Embassy at 12.30 p.m. In resign. grand jury, neturnable at 12.30 p. m., to into your houses, and will come up the manholes. There is one way, and only one in open carriage, surrounded by cavalry. He connection with the Cronin trial. Al Hanks my opinion, and that is to regulate the tendries department, and had nothing to do and Mark Solomon, Criminal Court bailiffs, sion under similar regulations as those gov. are under arrest, charged with packing the ering the pressure on steam boilers. For the Czar retired for a short time for rest example, one single shock of a five hundred and quiet. At 4,30 o'clock Prince volt pressure would hardly affect a man clos- Bismarck arrived and remained in adjourned. Their report was short and wires. You can increase the tension to 800 six o'clock. The Chancellor upon formal, except for an intimation that the volts with accommodating blocks at leaving was escorted to his carriage by jurors believed the plot to be more wide. five volts between, and while such Count Schouvaloff. A dinner in honor of spread than was indicated by the six in. a pressure might injure it would the Czar was given this evening in the dictments returned. All the indicted persimply a strong nervous shock, but, as covers were laid. The Czar, dressed in porating certain assessment insurance for insulation, there is no insulation in the Uhlan uniform, sat between the Emperor world which will remove the danger. The and the Empress, facing Prince Bismarck. greatest caution cannot prevent a human The Emperor, in toasting the Czar, said: being from occasionally closing the current. "I drink to the welfare of my honored Perhaps yesterday the wires crossed in friend and guest, the Emperor of Russia, Harlem. A porter sweeping out some office and to the continuance of the friendship can form a connecting link which will which has subsisted between our houses leave him dead; and, as I say, the subway for over a hundred years, and which I am resolved to cherish as a legacy from my ancestors." The Czar, replying in French, thanked the Emperor for his friendly sentiments and drank to his welfare. Turning then to Prince Bismarck the Czar raised exactly as the pressure on a boiler is reguhis glass and drank to the Chancellor, who stood up, emptied his glass and bowed deeply. There was a similar exchange of courtesies between Emperor William and the Russian Ambassador. Ex Empress Frederick will give a dininvitations are limited to Royal personages. $3,000 were called for, but a legal objection The Russian Imperial yachts Derjava was raised on behalf of the bondsmen. and Czarina have left Kiel, returning to Copenhagen.

SHOT HIS WIFE.

The Villainous Deed of a Drunken Colored Man at Windsor.

A Wednesday's Windsor despatch says: John Marshall, colored, 32 years old, has lived for some time in Windsor and earned a precarious living by working on the docks in summer and doing odd jobs in winter. His home is a one-story, three-roomed shanty, a mile and a half from town, on Goyean street, near the Tecumseh road. Last night Marshall was discharged and paid off, and, in accordance with his usual custom, got drunk before going home. cars and each car shot in a different direct Patrick Daily was burned, and his wife and His wife upbraided him and he became the Thoragan from tracks and the later. to completely wreck the roadbed for 500 were at supper the father stepped to the Marshall had heard him make threats beon reversing it again, the house was filled fore, and laughed at him. In the bearcom their heels and disappeared. with gas. An explosion followed and in an hung a muzzle-loading shot-gun. He got instant the entire place was in flames. The the gun and cocked it. Mrs. Marshall was three boys and the mother fell on the floor now scared and started for outside. Marovercome by the heat and flames. Mr. shall shot just as his wife was leaving Daily rushed out for assistance, but all the room. The charge of buckshot and efforts to save the unfortunates were futile. slugs with which Marshall had loaded the the house was entirely consumed in a few gan a few days before tore through the woodwork of the door, and some of the shot entered his wife's right shoulder, making a bad wound. She fell on the steps and Marshall ran away. Neighbors heard the shot and took care of the wounded woman, but did not report the shooting, which took mother, but their blackened bodies could place at 9 30, until after midnight. Chief Baines detailed an officer to watch the The gas pressure was very strong, the pipe ferry while he and others hunted for Marrunning direct from a neighboring oil well shall in town. Provincial Detective Fred. of emetics saved the child's life. that the man had crossed to Detroit, and morning and arrested him without trouble, tured. and he is now safe in the Windsor lockup. Marshall does not seem to appreciate his situation, and said after his arrest that he did not mean to shoot his wife. Mrs. Marshall is in a precarious condition. Her network of wires in midair, while the deadly torn. There are four children in the family,

HISSED THE FLAG.

Chicago Socialists Let Off Some Wind and Talk of Revolution.

A Chicago despatch of Sunday says When the American flag was brought out by the janitor at the hall, where a Socialist mass meeting was held here to-day it was greeted with hisses. There were probably a thousand men and women present. The red flag was then unfurled and was greeted by a burst of applause. Sergius E. Shevitch, of New York, spoke. He declared the hanging of the Anarchists the gravest crime ever perpetrated in America. alarming epidemic of typhoid fever prevails This and every utterance of the sort was loudly applauded. Shevitch said he was proud of the city in which the execution occurred, because he felt that one day it would be the Paris, the city of the revoluof its members prostrated, and in some tion, of America. 'An awful discontent was smouldering in the hearts of the laborers, and would soon burst forth in fiery revolution. It was useless and idle to think this revolution would be peaceful. A Piqua, O., despatch of Wednesday Several other speakers took a milder tone.

In the course of a crusade against gambling in Madrid a judge last night entered the Casino, one of the most aristocratic clubs in that city. He found the rooms Hoffman killed himself. Hunter cannot full of senators, deputies, generals, judges whom made a vigorous protest against his action. The result of their protestations was that only four menials were arrested.

THI EGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

General Boulanger will remain in Jersey inring the winter.

Prof. Deidesdorf, the well-known lunacy pecialist of Vienna, is dead. Chakir Pashs, the Governor of Crete, has requested that he be recalled. Mr. John Dale, postmaster at Thorold, died of apoplexy on Saturday.

There will be only one Democras in the Senate of the State of Washington. Both Ingersoil and Wiarton, Ont., have decided upon adopting electric lighting, In compliance with the request of President Carnot, the French Ministry will not Judge Baker, of Chicago, has refused to release Woodruff, one of the Cronin suspects, on a habeas corpus. On Sunday last, Rosary Sunday, the Archbishop of Kingston confirmed in St.

Mary's Cathedral 352 persons. It is stated that the Argentine Government are about to sign a convention with members of the syndicate of 1886 for a loan of $40,000,000. The Minister of Justice at Ottawa has decided that the Ontario legislation incor-

According to his friend Edmund Yates Wilkie Collins had long been in the habit of taking daily enough laudanum for gout and nerve disorders to kill a company of soldiers.

Plans are out for fourteen new stations on the line of the C. P. R. between London and Windsor, and several local contractors have put in tenders. The buildings are to be completed by January.

Dr. Healy, Bishop of Clonfert, has heen appointed Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, in Ireland, the See to which rumor had it some time ago Archbishop Cleary, of Kingston, was to be transferred.

At the Kingston Assizes yesterday the bail bonds of young Twitchell, son of the ner in honor of the Czar to-morrow. The recent United States Consul, amounting to

Last night Mr. Scott, of Galt, jumped off the C. P. R. train at the "diamond" at Peterboro', in order to save himself a long walk to his cousin's home, and being thrown to the ground received painful but not serious injuries. The Regents offered ex Queen Natalie a large sum of money provided she would accept their proposed conditions and depart from Servia. The ex-Queen indignantly refused the offer, saying she considered the proposal an insult. Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon an unknown man enticed a 3 year-old child named Alice Bridget McCurry, of 9 Simcoe terrace into the basement of the new Academy of Music, Toronto, where he There was a riot at Bristol yesterday

"I won't do it," was his afternoon on the arrival of a number of and pelted with stones until they took to The German military estimates for 1891 do not provide for any increase of the army effective, but 120,000,000 marks are asked for new artillery, firearms and ammunition, and grants for the staffs of the two newly-formed army corps. The Paris correspondent of the Times says Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria was induced to go to Munich by Prince Bismarck, who tried to induce the Czar to receive him, but without success. A 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. McLatchie, of Logan avenue, Toronto, swallowed some morphine on Friday afternoon, but Dr. Burgess was called in time, and by the use Michael McCarty, Toronto, was driving a butcher's cart down Ontario street Satreported the fact to the Detroit police. urday morning, and at Gerrard street was Detective Baker and two Canadian officers upset in turning. He was thrown heavily found Marshall at 136 Rivard street this to the ground, and his right leg badly frac-Samuel Hitch, a middle-aged Englishman, convicted of indecently assaulting a 6-year old child, received twenty five lashes in the Truro, N.S., jail on Saturday. The cat" used was borrowed from a man-ofwar at Halifax.

Two Buffalo "gentlemen" the other day dropped three dogs into the Nisgara River to see if they could swim through the rapids and whirlpool. They did, and, doglike, went back to the masters who had so little regard for their lives or sufferings.

As an indication of the strained relations existing over the amalgamation of Victoria and Laval Schools of Medicine, on Saturday one of the Laval professors was struck by an egg on his shirt front. The student who threw it said he could not get a rotten

On Friday, at the residence of George W. Irwin, near Leamington, Mr. Irwin's son, about 21, was preparing to go out shooting. While loading one of the barrels of a double-barrelled gun the other barrel, which had been previously loaded, was discharged, the contents passing through the young man's head, killing him instantly. He was an only son.

Sir Benjamin Samuel Phillips, ex. Lord Mayor of London, and second member of the Hebrew faith to occupy the position, died yesterday, aged 79. Last year he retired from the Court of Aldermen, and was succeeded by his son, Mr. George Faudel Phillips.

The C. P. R. express while coming into the London station last night left the rails when near the freight shed and plunged on to a switch. The track and roadbed were torn up for some distance, but the passengers escaped with a shaking up. A gang of men made the necessary repairs during the night.

Alfred Pugh was sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary by Judge Elliots at London yesterday for robbing his brother A lad named William Watson, who lives of a suit of clothes, a value and an overat 125 Richmond street, Toronto, met with coat. The youthful criminal has served Charlie (settling back)—Well, I'm ready. a serious accident at noon yesterday. He five years in the Refermatory. Since his was crossing Church street at Adelaide sentence expired he has been mixed up in a Philip Lamoreaux and Christina Monette when he was knocked down by a passing host of petty crimes, which have made him have been held for trial for the murder at express waggon. One of the wheels passed a burden to his family. After stealing his Casselman, Russel county, of Oliver Mon- over him, breaking one of his arms. Wat- brother's property he went off to Ingersoil son was just recovering from a fall he had and Brantford, where he lived for a week A full-rigged vessel is ashore at Mille- at a building on Queen street not long ago. on the proceeds, and then on his return he Vaches, Quebec, on the north shore. She Henrik Ibsen, the Danish dramatist, stole a shawl owned by his mother worth is the barque Terpsichore, and lies four labors very slowly, writing and rewriting $14 and pawned it. Seeing there was no WHAT COULD

Reward of a Lover Weds !

In 1882 Jacob J. Sc himself without a con having departed wit The couple went to afterwards settled in kept an umbrella st tuted divorce proceed was dropped and Science leaving his property Schwinn, his dans mouths ago Boeck Toronto and abdue about 17 years of age. who is much younge years ago. Lavinia Genesce street, near and Mrs. Wm. Sch uncle and aunt. A n taken place, the girl having married Boec out in the cold. Boe reported to have visit some of her clothing The property left to touched until they re Mrs. Schwinn, their the estate. It is tho J. Schwinn will prob -Buffalo Courier.

The Great To-day is the anni Monday which dawn

eighteen years ago

walls and smolder

homeless refugees.

the billow of fire wa

ing as long as there inundating homes a

ing into ashes, wi hoarded savings of t tives took refuge o pressing into the wa while upon them ra them it seemed tha come to an end. T The elements had heat ; the moon wa sun as blood; the as a scroll. In the safety the common the consideration for which makes life were all forgotten. can;" was the unive of escape were chok many fell never in less awful than th lypse must have features of he pec blackened by cinde heat, in little rese heings. They we " shapes hot from to picture all to think of Chicag so presperous, lyn DeKoven street n Park ; yet so it we swept the flames mighty reverberat like resin and so flakes. All day lo eating its way and the cool rain sky and whose Surely if ever despair then w hoardings of a life in a moment. Ca There was no ing room; yet t mournful toil of t crashed downwar was not the death feared. The grea exemplification o ing in regard to o communities of m to mouth. So los work and a place could not perish. says that within well off as ever. exaggeration, bu very short time it fire had never energy" was a seen in the days that disaster. The prophecies again have all risen again, and ever before. - Chi

> There is a ric Lofting in E whose house an apparently in England was two hundred year named John Lot

> the article comm

used the needle,

The Invent

large fortune. called the thumb thumb when in t ing the rest of mode of utilisin however, but t " thimble" rem A Do

A Wilmington says : A south. mington & Balt an iron door on town and North passenger train morning. Th Fifteen passens Mrs. W. B. Gu

ously. _Mr. Topher lot, Penelope? The Hotel D crated yesterds

The French never to claim of the debt con Maximilian.

The social se the news from Sir John Ross, Forces in Cans been granted a Mary. The ca tion have long home and col John will soon daughter of a r