

WHAT COULD SHE EXPECT?

The Reward of a Faithless Wife—Her Lover Weds Her Daughter.

In 1882 Jacob J. Schwinn one day found himself without a consort, his wife Lavinia having departed with Charles A. Boeck.

A STRANGE PROCEEDING.

A Buffalo Juror's Note to a Hamilton Man Engaged in Important Litigation.

When the case of the Ontario Canning Company against William Burgess, commenced in the Circuit Court, was adjourned on Tuesday afternoon to yesterday morning, and the jury were leaving the court-room, one of the number, Addison Rice, reached over and handed a small note to Egerton DeCew, the Secretary of the Canning Company, who happened to be standing near by.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD.

He Gives His First Impressions of the United States.

Frank Leslie's illustrated weekly has done me the honor of desiring to have a brief memorandum of the first impressions America makes on an Englishman.

CURING COLDS.

Hints That May Save Life if Taken in Time.

When one becomes chilled or takes cold, says Youth's Companion, the mouths of myriads of little sweat glands are suddenly closed and the impurities which should pass off through the skin are forced back to the interior of the body, vitiating the blood.

A SPANISH HIDALGO'S PRAYER.

Peculiar and Lustrous Mixture of Family Pride and Dread of Death.

One of the most peculiar and comical mixtures of a dread of death and family pride occurs in a prayer which a Spanish nobleman composed for his own benefit, says Tease Strivings.

The Great Chicago Fire.

To-day is the anniversary of that awful Monday which dawned upon a ruined city eighteen years ago—a city of crumbled walls and smoldering embers, a city of homeless refugees.

A FEMALE ENOUGH ARDEN.

The Strange and Romantic Story Recently Revealed by a St. Louis Divorce Case.

In a divorce case filed the other day in the St. Louis Circuit Court, entitled Marian Miller vs. Louis Miller, there is a most strange and romantic history, says the New York Morning Journal.

To Measure Brick Walls.

Readers in many branches of trade will be glad to know this method of estimating brickwork, which is obtained from an authority on the subject.

Quite Proper.

Mias Charmington—Haven't you kissed the bride, Mr. Mopsey?

Even Siam is moving, and intends somebody, at any rate, to be civilized by railways. The surveys for the intended lines from Bangkok to the northern and eastern provinces of Siam are being rapidly pushed forward by a staff of surveyors under Sir Andrew Clarke, his arrangement with the Siamese Government being that the cost of these surveys is to be repaid to his firm.

A Heavy Shaker.

Clarissa (on the ferryboat)—O, Charles has fallen overboard!

Charles—Yes, but think! He has a piece of wedding cake which he brought from the reception in his pocket.

Why He Wept.

Mrs. Sadface to Tommy, who has stolen a jar of preserves—My boy, I know you are sorry. I see it in your face.

Tommy, mediatively—Yes, mamma, I am. There was a bigger jar on the shelf that I couldn't reach.

Very Laudable.

"Do you want to hire a man, mister?"

"No, I can't say that I do. Are you looking for a situation?"

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

Very Laudable.

"Oh! where shall rest be found?"

"The worn-out mother sits: Stockings to mend, and trousers to darn, Dish to wash, and butter to churn, While my back feels to break, and head and heart burn."

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

Very Laudable.

"Do you want to hire a man, mister?"

"No, I can't say that I do. Are you looking for a situation?"

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

Very Laudable.

"Oh! where shall rest be found?"

"The worn-out mother sits: Stockings to mend, and trousers to darn, Dish to wash, and butter to churn, While my back feels to break, and head and heart burn."

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

Very Laudable.

"Do you want to hire a man, mister?"

"No, I can't say that I do. Are you looking for a situation?"

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

Very Laudable.

"Oh! where shall rest be found?"

"The worn-out mother sits: Stockings to mend, and trousers to darn, Dish to wash, and butter to churn, While my back feels to break, and head and heart burn."

A Fertile Scheme.

"I see the race of elephants is gradually dying out. What shall we do for ivory, do you suppose, Mr. De Dade, when they are all gone?"

"I'm sure I don't know, Miss Borevoir, unless—ah—we buy up all the old pianos, don't you know?"

The Invention of the Thimble.

There is a rich family of the name of Lofting in England, the fortune of whose house was founded by such an apparently insignificant thing as the thimble.

A Door on the Track.

A Wilmington, Del. despatch of Sunday says: A south-bound Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore freight train dropped an iron door on the track between Charles town and Northeast, Md., which derailed a passenger train about 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

The Hotel Dieu at Windsor

was consecrated yesterday by Archbishop Walsh. The French Government has promised never to claim a single dollar from Mexico of the debt contracted under the reign of Maximilian.

The social sensation at Halifax, N. S.,

is the news from London that Major-General Sir John Ross, Commander of the British Forces in Canada, residing at Halifax, has been granted a divorce from his wife, Lady Mary. The causes leading to the separation have long been a source of scandal in home and colonial military circles.

—Mr. Topheavy—

"Will you share my lot, Penelope?" Penelope—"Yes, if there is a brown stone front on it."

AGENTS MAKE $100 A MONTH with us. Send 30c for terms. A colored rug pattern and 50 colored designs. W. & P. BUSH, St. Thomas, Ont.

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND