JARVIS RECORD.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1890.

AROUND THE HUB.

The rural schools opened on Monday last week.

A social hop was held in the Music Hall on Friday night last.

Frank Turner left on Monday for a week's visit with friends in Guelph.

Miss Lizzie Forster, of Hamilton, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Fred Dennis, of Brantford, is the guest of his uncle, Wm. Dennis, at the City Hotel.

There are 1,118 pensioners on the United States Government residents of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rodgers, of Barrie, are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. A. Caldwell has moved into one of Mr. Gifford's fine new houses on Main St. South.

Mr. H. R. Siller, B.A., late of Sarnia, has been engaged as Head Master of the Port Dover High School.

A new enemy to the potato has appeared in Elgin in the shape of a vine worm about an inch in length.

The man who invariably asks, "Is it hot enough for you?" will soon be looking around for a second-hand stove.

The Jarvis high and public schools will reopen on Monday next. A prompt attendance of the pupils is requested.

Mrs. Percy Brock and Miss Lizzie Miller have returned home after spending a couple of weeks with friends in London.

The voters' list for the Township of Walpole for this year has been printed and a copy posted up in the Clerk's office, August 29th.

After enjoying the holidays at home and with acquaintances Miss Lucy Saunders has returned to Kingslake where she is engaged in teaching.

Walter Dundas, who has been for some time in the employ of B. Millenbacher, jeweller, left on Monday for his home in London. His position here has been filled by L. Christman, of Guelph.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Service and Festival in connection with St. Paul's Church, Jarvis, will be held on the 4th of September. For further particulars see bills.

BINDER TWINE.—We have still a good stock of Binder Twine at cheap prices. Thrashing Belts and Section Hose, Machine Oils. A. D. ELLIS, Simeco.

Cardinal Smith, who is charged with the murder of Maria Colville, whose remains were found in the cedar swamp in Townsland some five years ago, has been sent up for trial at the Fall Assizes at Simeco.

Yesterday morning a horse hitched to a milk wagon belonging to Mr. J. S. Davidson, of Woodhouse, took flight at a bag of peas which he was putting on the wagon at his gate and ran away, upsetting the milk cans and doing considerable damage to the wagon.

Miss Lizzie Gibbs, of Sandusky, had a very narrow escape of being drowned on Saturday last whilst dipping water, standing on a log missed her footing and fell in. Her screams were soon heard by her people who came to her rescue and with their assistance was soon safe.

So say we, echoing the christian tax payer's remark and speaking on behalf of those householders in the village who love a well kept lawn and tasty flower beds, who have borne so long the depredations of the indignant neighbor's bovine without a murmur.

A perfect complexion, free from pimple or blemish, is very rarely seen because few people have perfectly pure blood. Anger, all disgusting eruptions are easily removed by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Try it, and surprise your friends with the result.

WON BY HARD WORK.—Mr. T. C. Doolge, of 272 Wellesley Street, Toronto, a fourth-year undergraduate of Toronto University, won The Canadian Queen's "Free Trip to Europe" by making over eleven hundred words from letters contained in the name of that magazine. Mr. Doolge worked over seventy hours to accomplish the task. He sails by the "Parisian," September 3rd, and will be abroad three months. The publishers of The Queen will soon announce another "Free Trip to Europe" word contest, with $200 for expenses.

Cobden wrote proverbs about luck and labor. It would be well for boys to memorize them. Luck is waiting for something to turn up; Labor, with keen eyes and strong will, will turn up something. Luck lies in bed and wishes the postman would bring news of a legacy; labor turns out at six o'clock, and with busy pen or ringing hammer, lays the foundation of competence. Luck whines, labor whistles. Luck relies on chances, labor on character. Luck strides down to indigence, labor strides upwards to independence.

Minard's Liniment cures Garet in cows.

"To discontinue an advertisement," says John Wanamaker, Philadelphia's great merchant, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. Standing advertisements are better and cheaper than reading notices. They look more substantial and business-like and inspire confidence. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

"Ted" Beavis, who at one time resided with his parents in Hamilton, went to the States at the time of the American civil war and entered the Northern army. He was killed, and a short time ago his mother, who lives in Hamilton, made enquiries regarding pension money. Through Col. Monahan, C. S. Consul at Hamilton, she has been informed that her claim has been favorably considered, and a pension of $12 per month for life settled on her.

The World's Fair people in Chicago seem to be in hard luck. They have abandoned the idea of a site on the lake front, we read, and don't quite know where to hold their show. What is the matter with moving into Canada and locating at Jarvis, Ont.? This is a nice neighborhood, and it is morally certain that visitors would enjoy themselves more than if they had gone to Chicago. And the fact that Jarvis has a world's fair of its own every year would be, so to speak, a guarantee of the excellence of the Chicago brand. People would have some idea of what to expect. The Record would like first rate to see the Chicago World's Fair Committee consider the advisability of pitching tents here.

MATRIMONIAL.—The residence of Mr. Wm. H. Burr, Simeco, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of relatives and friends on Thursday evening last to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Mary E. Burr, formerly a resident of Jarvis, to Mr. Geo. Davis of that place, formerly a resident of Jarvis. On this occasion everyone seemed to realize the old adage "Sunshine is always brighter after rain." The ceremony was performed at 7 p.m. by Rev. Mr. Newton, of Vittoria, Miss Emma Burr, sister of the bride, acting as bridesmaid, while the groom was assisted by Mr. Jesse McCarthy, of Walpole. After the usual greetings and congratulations the guests partook of the sumptuous tea so magnificently provided. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boxall and daughter of Simeco, Mrs. Hughes, Orangeville, Miss Bell Cruickshank, Lynn Valley, Miss Gertrude Rattenbury, Simeco, the Miss Boxalls of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. N. Davis, Jarvis, Mrs. Jane Davis and daughters, of Walpole, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fletcher, Dover, Mrs. John Frost, Lambton, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Walpole, Mr. J. Jones, Jarvis, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gracey, Walpole. The happy couple left on the evening train amidst a shower of rice for the west on their wedding tour. The respect and esteem in which they are held was most sincerely manifested by the many handsome and appropriate gifts presented to the bride.—Con.
