AROUND THE RUB.

Happy New Year.
School opens again on Friday.
Very mild weather last week.
Tea-meeting in the Baptist church, Villa Nova, to-night.
James Hull, of Hamilton, spent Xmas in town under the parental roof.
Charles Hall, one of the escaped penitentiary convicts, has been captured.
Old 1889 has passed away, and when writing dates be sure to get the 1890.
Mr. and Mrs. Egar Lemon, of Hartford, spent Sunday with friends in town.

W. Iker Sovereign, of Chicago, formerly employed in this office, spent Sunday in town.
Gentle reader, whistle and put on the brakes now if you are going to swear off to-day.
Homer Underhill and Samuel Hunter returned home from Hamilton on Tuesday evening last.

Dr. Egbert has purchased a practice in Milverton and left for there last week his family followed yesterday.
Chris. Millenbacher left on Monday for Horvay where he has secured a situation in a blacksmith shop.
Remember the social assembly in the fireman's hall to-night. A good attendance is respectfully requested.

Mr. W. H. Hammond has been engaged for another year as head teacher in Jarvis public school.

Mr. H. J. Grasset, formerly manager of the Bank of Commerce in this place, was in town last week and returned to Waterloo on Saturday with his wife and family.

David Thompson, of Garnet, while out sawing in the woods one day last week had the misfortune to get his leg broken. Dr. McDonald, of Hagersville set the broken bone.

At the school meeting on Thursday last Mr. John Aiken was elected public school trustee for the ensuing three years in place of the retiring trustee, Mr. B. Allen.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—The Annual meeting of the Walpole Agricultural Society will be held in Music Hall, Jarvis on Thursday Jan. 9th, at one o'clock sharp, a cordial invitation extended to everybody.

Knox Church Sabbath School entertainment was held in the Music Hall on Friday evening last. There was a fair attendance. Those present enjoyed the long programme immensely. The proceeds amounted to over $37.00.

A general meeting of the members of the Walpole Farmers' Mutual Fire Assurance Company will be held in the Town Hall, Walpole, at noon sharp, on Saturday, Jan. 18th, 1890, for the purpose of submitting statement of affairs, electing directors, and fixing their remuneration. Members are earnestly requested to attend. By order of the board, GEORGE MILLER, Secretary.

The Tennessee Jubilee Singers appeared in the Methodist Church on Saturday evening, and gave a most enjoyable concert. Mr. Thompson's singing showed wonderful talent and culture and Mr. Chambers' remarkably sweet singing was well received. Every member of this company is very good. There was only a fair attendance, owing no doubt, to a goodly number of citizens being employed in stores that evening. Those who were present were highly pleased with the programme rendered.

A meeting of Haldimand Farmers' Institute will be held in the Town Hall, Selkirk, when the following sessions will be held: Friday, 17th of January, at 1.30 and 7.30 p. m. and Saturday, 18th January at 7 p. m. F. C. Grenside, Prof. of Veterinary Science of the Agricultural College, Cuelph, A. Lehmann, B. S. A., A. H. Pettit, Esq., and others will address the Institute on various subjects appertaining to agriculture. The musical part of the programme for the evening session will be furnished by the musical talent of Selkirk. Admission free.

The Hamilton Spectator of Monday says—John Ross, of Jarvis, is a man of guileless and unsuspecting nature, judging from an episode in his career Saturday. He came into the city with a load of turkeys, and while on the market Samuel Lomas stepped up to him and offered to sell off his turkeys at lightning speed and good prices. Ross engaged him at once. Lomas made two sales and on the second occasion he took a $2 bill away to get it changed and entirely forgot to return. It was reported to the police and Detective Doyle arrested Lomas about an hour afterwards on King street east.

J. W. Park, of Hagersville, has opened a grocery store in Tilsonburg.
Wm. O'Connor has issued a challenge to row any man in the world for $2,500 a side and the championship of the world.
About 1,000 people have gone east from Manitoba and the North west on the Christmas excursions.
This is the time of the year when snow and cold weather is healthy, not only for the human frame, but for business.

Samuel Flattery, the man who stole $10 from Mr. McBride's till in Port Dover some time ago, was accorded two years in penitentiary.

$5.00 REWARD.—The undersigned offers the above reward for information that will lead to the party who got her turkey which disappeared on Monday afternoon of last week. Mrs. James Adams. 52-2

Don't delay, send in your order now.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.—On Friday night last R. W. Brother Dr. Jaques, D. D. G. M., assisted by W. Brothers Grasset, I. P. M., Heartwell, Crichton, Hird and Hart, P. M.'s, installed the following officers of King Solomon Lodge No. 329, G. R. C. for the ensuing Masonic year:—

Bro. James Noble, W. M.
A. R. Coleman, S. W.
Wm. Pearson, I. W.
Robert Eston, Chaplain.
Bryce Allen, Treasurer.
David Hill, Secretary.
Joseph Gates, S. D.
Wm. H. Glanfield, J. D.
Wm. E. Armstrong, I. G.
Capt. Wm. Ryan, Tyler.
James Dunbar, S. S.
Wm. Dunbar, J. S.

Armstrong and Murray, D. of C. The Installation ceremony was most impressively rendered by R. W. Bro. Jaques and his assistants, the Lodge room being filled to its utmost capacity with the members and the visiting brethren. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the installing officers on behalf of the Lodge presented the Immediate Past Master W. Bro. Henry J. Grasset, with a handsome solid gold Past Master's jewel appropriately engraved, and an address as a token of their appreciation of his services for the past four years. The recipient responded thanking the brethren for their kindness, and expressing good wishes for his successor. The D. D. G. M., R. W. Bro. Dr. Jaques on his official visit to the Lodge, delighted the brethren with an eloquent address on the principles of Masonry, was enthusiastically received and applauded to the echo. The newly installed W. M. then brought a very pleasant evening to a close.
