Walter Coleman, of Battle Creek, Mich., is visiting under the parental roof this week.

The Bell telephone company has men at work on the projected line between Jarvis and Hamilton.

Mrs. Wm. Ryan returned home on Monday evening after a two weeks visit with friends at Caledonia.

John R. Mills and Mrs. J. C. Mills returned home on Saturday from a visit to Port Huron and Sarnia.

We are indebted to the Queen's Printer for Ontario for a copy of the Statutes of Ontario, passed at the last session.

The trustees of S. S. No. 11, Walpole, are soliciting tenders for the erection of a new school house. See adv. in another column.

The hotel keepers will please notice a small paragraph on the inside of this issue which pertains to them and their cigar boxes.

The Grand Trunk loop line employees will hold their annual excursion to Niagara Falls on Saturday, Aug. 2nd. Fare, $2.00.

The Villa Nova Band will hold their Annual Entertainment and Honey Festival on Tuesday evening, Aug. 22nd. Don't forget the date.

I do not want the earth, my friend,
 And I'm not so hard to please;
 But I'd like to own an iceberg,
 Far up in the polar seas.

We noticed the smiling face of D. T. Hind on the streets on Saturday night. When he went to Kingston we did not think he would get out so quick.

We received a copy of the Griffin Daily Times of the 12th, on Thursday last, printed in yellow paper in commemoration of the 200 Anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

Mr. Geo. M. Winn, of the Aylmer Sun, has sold out his business to Mr. F. Neelands and Mr. E. C. Monteith. The firm name will be Neelands & Monteith. We wish them success.

Geo. Henning, of the Exchange hotel, has been training his two-year-old colt, Dwyer, by Diplomat, at Simcoe on a sand track this last week. He goes to Brantford on August 11th to do them all up.

"Uncle John," said little Emily, "do you know that a baby that was fed on elephants milk gained twenty pounds in a week?" "Nonsense! Impossible!" exclaimed Uncle John and then asked: "Whose baby was it?" "It was the elephant's baby," replied little Emily.

Jarvis Base Ball Club last week beat the Simcoe Club, and they are doing some tall crowing over their victory. If they want the starch taken out of them let them arrange a match with our team.—Dunnville Gazette. If the Dunnville team feels like taking the starch out of our boys let them come up and they will get an opportunity.

Bill Nye writes to the bald-headed man who asks his advice on hair restoratives, as follows: "Take your hair restorative money and buy a town lot in a growing town that supports its home paper and advertises, and go ahead, and you will be fixed, and the man who is fixed don't care whether he has any hair or not."

A Texas clergyman about to be appointed chaplain of the penitentiary preached a farewell sermon to his congregation, which had treated him rather shabbily. There was nothing in the sermon at which anybody could take offence, but some of the newest members of the congregation did not like the text, which was, "I go to prepare a place for you, so that where I am ye may be also."

Mrs. W. A. Caldwell, Mrs. Jones, Miss D. Jones and Miss Emma Jones are spending this week in Euclid.

Prof. Redetzke and his two daughters, with a whirl-e-go-round occupied the boards up on the corner for three nights last week. They went to Hagersville on Monday.

A grand lawn party will be held on Wm. Baird's lawn, Selkirk, on Tuesday evening, August 5th. The committee will spare no pains to make this "The one of the season." Admission 10 and 15 cents. Luncheon free.

The following is said to be the shortest sentence in the English language containing all the letters of the alphabet: "John P. Brady gave me a black walnut box of quite small size." The entire sentence contains less than twice the number of letters in the alphabet.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the officers and directors of the Walpole Agricultural Society in the Music Hall on Wednesday, Aug. 6th at 2 p.m. for the purpose of making the prize list and appointment of judges for this fall show and other matters of importance. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

At 10 years of age a boy thinks his father knows a great deal; at 15 he knows as much as his father; at 20 he knows twice as much; at 30 he is willing to take his advice; at 40 he begins to think his father knows something after all; at 50 he begins to seek his advice and at 60—after his father is dead—he thinks he was the smartest man that ever lived.

Hugh Scott of Caledonia was in the village on Saturday looking for a bay mare, eight years old, about sixteen hands high, with a small star on her forehead and one white ankle behind, strayed from the stables of the Caledonia mills on the night of July 9th. Any person giving such information as will lead to its recovery to Scott Bros., Caledonia, or Wesley Pound, Coriath, will receive $10 reward.

Hot weather does not effect the men who are working in the St. Clair river tunnel. The thermometer may register 100° in the shade outside, but inside the temperature stands about 68°. The tunnel company have ordered 2,000,000 brick and will cover the lower half of lining. It is claimed that the brine from meat cars is destroying the iron bridges along the line of the railroad, and it is proposed to protect the lining of the tunnel.

PET RATS.—They all got in the trap July 20th being Sunday, one red-headed rat crawled through a small hole in the Jarvis foundry, not expected to run on anyone, was let go out the same hole; one white rat a few days before in company with a green one was seen making way with some beeing. If that beeing does not return the caretaker over those rats will have to cage them. A door was broken open between Saturday night and Sunday morning of 27th for what? A number of goods and articles have been taken from the foundry of late. By order, C. W. Yocom.

Woodsrock, July 22.—The spot now designated "Benwell Swamp" is being visited daily by persons spending their vacation in this neighborhood. Provincial Detective Murray was in the vicinity the other day in search of any item of evidence tending to strengthen the case of the crown at the forthcoming trial. Working under the just rule that a man is innocent until proven guilty, the only prison discipline Birchall is subject to is confinement within jail precincts. His apartments are comfortably furnished, the floors carpeted and pictures including a scene of Epsom Downs, adorn the walls. His meals are supplied from the hotel near by. He dresses in excellent taste, wears a diamond ring and pin and carefully waxes his moustache, of which he is very proud. He reads books, smokes cigars, converses with visitors and strolls around the court grounds. It is rumored that he has a trump card to play which will exonerate him from any complicity in the crime. Mrs. Birchall and her sister, Miss West Jones are both staying here and have many sympathizers. The trial does not take place until September 18. Applications for admission tickets have already been sent in.
