AROUND THE RUB.

Mimard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.
 John Caldwell, of Hamilton, was in town over Sunday.
 Murray Alderson, of Port Dover, was in town a few days this week.
 John F. Brock, of St. Williams, made us a short call on Saturday.
 Mr. Jas. Glass, of Hamilton, is spending a few days in town this week.
 It is rumored that Father Fraher of St. Mary's church, Simcoe, is to be transferred to another parish.
 Port Dover and Cayuga will celebrate the Queen's birthday on Saturday, May 24th, and Simcoe on Monday, the 26th.
 Mr. E. E. Sheppard will address a meeting of the electors in the Music Hall, on Thursday night, the 22nd inst.
 H. G. Masecar has severed his connection with the Delhi Canning Co. after a period of service extending over three years.
 Walter Hall left yesterday for Hamilton where he has secured a situation with the Bell Telephone Co., building new lines.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Abraham, and Miss Eliza Abraham, of Simcoe, spent Sunday in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Morrow.
 Divine service was held in St. Paul's Church on Thursday, that day being Ascension Day, and a very able sermon was preached by Rev. R. Gardner.
 Wanted—between now and next Tuesday, 50 tons scrap iron for which I will pay 40 to 50 cts per hundred delivered at Jarvis. ISRAEL BERENSTEIN.
 Last year it cost Norfolk County $1200.87 for charity, and the poor house and industrial farm cost $3080.71 a total of $4281.58, besides what the minor municipalities had to pay.
 The Young People's Guild of St. Paul's Church will hold a conversation in the Music Hall this (Wednesday) evening. A splendid programme has been prepared and a good time is expected. Everybody welcome. Admission 10c., program to commence at 8 o'clock.
 Geo. R. Perry, Simcoe, has the largest and best assorted stock of wall paper, ceiling decorations, etc., to be found in the county, which embraces the best productions of the leading manufacturers in the United States and Canada. Prices are away down. Give him a call.
 A base ball match will be played this afternoon between the Jarvis team and a picked nine of town base ballists, at 4:30. A game has also been arranged for Saturday, 24th, between the Nelles' Corners and Jarvis teams. A good game is expected, and our boys will play to win.
 The junior cricket club have organized and elected the following officers: captain, Stacy Burwash; sec-treas, C. Rodgers; committee, J. Chambers, C. Rodgers, E. Eid, Jas. Greenberry and A. Cathart. The boys are now prepared to receive challenges from surrounding junior teams.
 The residence of Mr. Patrick Breen, fourth concession, Oneida, was burned to the ground on Thursday last together with half the contents. The fire started in the garret while the family were at dinner and had got past control before it was noticed.
 As showing the advantages that accrue from membership in a benevolent society it may be mentioned that a member of Romeo Lodge, I. O. O. F., has been ill with paralysis for seven years and during all that time has drawn his weekly sick benefits.—Stratford Herald.
 The Brantford Courier for more than half a century the property of Henry Lemmon, J. P., and the organ of the Conservative party in Brant county, passes into the hands of his nephew, Mr. Ralph H. Revilla, this week. The Major and Mrs. Lemmon purpose taking a trip to England, to remain for an indefinite period.
 Not all new things come from the effete East. The Bannack and Crow Indians and other tribes in the northern Rockies are laboring with an extraordinary delusion that Christ has come to earth and is now in the Big Horn Mountains, somewhere between Fort Custer and Fort Washakie, Wyoming Territory. General James S. Brisbin, U. S. A., commanding in Montana, has in the New York Ledger of May 17 an interesting letter concerning the hallucination and giving full and interesting details about it.

Simcoe expects a large crowd on the 26th. They have a good list of attractions.

Geo. H. Webb, engineer of the M. C. R. waterworks at St. Thomas, shot a fine black eagle on Monday morning, at Pininfere Lake, the bird measuring five feet and eight inches from tip to tip of wings.

Dyspepsia causes depraved blood, which, in time, affects every organ and function of the body. As a remedy for these troubles, nothing can approach Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, strengthens the stomach, and corrects all disorders of the liver and kidneys.

Newspaper men will do well to look out for one George Phillips who claims to be an expert in writing up towns. He is a fraud and jumps board bills. Pass him along. His home is in Detroit.—Oakland County Advertiser.

A farmer's team became frightened at a shunting engine at the B. & T. crossing near Brantford on Monday morning and shied over the embankment, horses, wagon, and driver rolling to the bottom of a fifteen-foot deep ditch, yet escaping without serious injuries.

A gambling den in St. Thomas, kept by one Michael Conway, was raided by the police last week and the keeper, together with six frequenters, $17.37 in money and a quantity of gambling apparatus, was taken into custody. The frequenters were fined $20 each or two months in jail, and the keeper $200 or two months.

Alfred Pearson, formerly an auctioneer here, and whose father resides at Jarvis was arrested at Brantford Thursday night on the charge of obtaining a $11 overcoat from S. Fraine, of this city, by false pretences. He was brought here this evening for trial. There is also a charge of forgery against him.—St. Thomas news. There is no need of us saying anything about the charge of forgery as our readers are pretty well acquainted with the facts already.

A farmer north of the village of Plattsville shot some village cows in his yard over night last week. Next morning he wrote a notice on a piece of card board and tied it to the horns of the animals. He then parted with them on friendly terms. We stamp this notice with preservation type solely on account of the spelling. "Their's no plase like home. Go south their is wore on cows in the North. Remember the law. Citizens govurn yourselves ackordingly."

Never had a preparation a more appropriate name than Ayer's Hair Vigor. When the capillary glands become enfeebled by disease, age, or neglect, this dressing imparts renewed life to the scalp, so that the hair assumes much of its youthful fullness and beauty.

The members of the press gallery of the Dominion House paid their annual visit Wednesday to the Experimental farm. A dairy department has been added to the farm, and strenuous efforts will be made to improve the quality of Canadian butter.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's health is improving, and it is hoped she will be able to be about in a fortnight.

Mr Charles Wilson, of Woodstock, has accepted the Conservative nomination and will oppose Mr. Mowat in North Oxford.

The water works by-law for $10,000 and the electric lights by law for $2,000 were carried on Saturday in Markham by narrow majorities.

Miss Margaret Isabella Blaine, daughter of the Secretary of State, was married on Saturday in Washington to Walter Dumrosch, of New York.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, advertise in the Toronto WEEKLY MAIL. That paper reaches 100,000 farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase.
