AROUND THE RUB.

Miniard's Liniment cures Colds, etc. Birchall will be hanged at Woodstock on Friday of this week.

Setting up stoves a specialty at Pedlow's.

A new time table comes into force on the M. C. R. on Sunday, Nov. 16.

Mrs. M. D. Teetzel is visiting friends in St. Thomas and vicinity this week.

Alvie Yeomans, of Toronto, spent Sunday in town renewing acquaintances.

Rain again on Sunday. This is the sixth consecutive Sunday that it has rained.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Norris left on Monday for their new home in Schreiber, Ont.

Sim. Benn, operator at the G. T. R. station at Simcoe, spent Sunday in town.

Now is the time to get your choice, over sixty stoves to select from at R. Pedlow's.

Thos. R. Caldwell, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving Day in town under the parental roof.

Remember the entertainment in the Music Hall on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bourne, and children, of Owosso, Mich., are visiting friends and relatives in town.

"Fall opening, I suppose," is the remark a farmer made recently when he stepped into a coal chute.

Messrs. C. E. Bourne, Harry Bourne and James Ineson left on Monday night for a few days hunting in Muskoka.

A large gang of men are engaged in ballasting the H. & N. W. railway between here and Port Dover this week.

Notice.—Any contracts or debts made by John Morgan Jones will not be recognized by J. L. Jones. 46-11

Twenty dollar notes of the defunct bank of Prince Edward are being circulated in Windsor. Look out for them.

Mr. A. D. Teeple, of Woodhouse, left a parsnip at this office one day last week the root of which measured 4 ft. 2 in. in length.

His Honor Judge Robb will hold a court of revision at Port Dover on the 17th Nov., at 10 a.m., to revise the Port Dover voters list for 1890.

A good many counterfeit American dollars, vintage of 1880, are said to be in circulation in Western Canada. People should be on the look out for them.

The probability is that Cayuga will shortly have the electric light. A company is being formed, and the council have agreed to take seven arc lights for the streets.

S. Lounsberry, furniture dealer, is still in the lead with a large stock of furniture of every description which he is selling at lowest prices. Read his adv't in this issue.

Mrs. Robinson has sold her property on the corner of Main and Talbot Sts. in this village to Dr. Howell, and left on Saturday for Detroit where she intends residing.

The Hamilton Spectator has abandoned its morning edition and comes out now as an evening paper. The price has been reduced to 1 cent a copy, or $3 per year.

The few house flies that have not yet gone to the happy hunting grounds are looking rather languid and we may hope that these summer friends will soon be conspicuous by their absence.

TO THE FARMERS:—If you intend buying a churn it will pay you to buy the Barrel Churn sold by Robt. Easton, Jarvis. This churn got first prize at Walpole Fairs of 1889 and 1890, at Jarvis.

Mr. John Hendrie, of Hamilton, purchased nine horses here on Thursday last for street car purposes. The prices ranged from $80 to $100. He also bought Geo. Henning's carriage team for which a good price was paid.

An entertainment, under the auspices of the Young People's Guild of St. Paul's Church, will be held in the Music Hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 19th, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and choruses by the Guild, a candy booth, fish pond and fancy work-table, &c. A good time may be expected. Doors open at 7.30 p.m.; admission to the hall 10c. Proceeds in aid of new church building fund. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Cabinet Council has decided, after due consideration, that Birchall will be executed on Friday the 14th inst. The Cabinet was unanimous as to the guilt of Birchall, and consequently decided that the law should take its course.

Mr. John Keer, of Wighton, Cumberland County, England, arrived on Friday with three registered Clydesdale stallions, and is now with Mr. John C. Ross, Walpole. The stallions are for sale, and intending purchasers would do well to see them before looking elsewhere. 45-3

Jas. Goodwin, Hagersville, has decided to give up the general dry goods part of his business and confine his attention more exclusively to other lines. All goods of this description must be cleared out during the next sixty days. This is a rare chance to purchase first-class goods at low prices.

Wives and Daughters, is the title of a new monthly publication, the second number of which has just come to hand. It is published by the Advertiser Printing Co. at London, and is written by women for women. It is brim full of well-selected reading matter. The price is only 25 cents for the first year.

Just arrived, 40 cross-cut saws of the best make, also buck saws, prices right, at Pedlow's.

A brakeman named Michael, from Hamilton, employed on the gravel train engaged in ballasting the H. & N. W. railway, had one of his hands crushed while coupling cars in the Air Line gravel pit near Simcoe on Saturday week. It was found necessary to amputate one of his fingers before dressing his hand.

Miniard's Liniment cures Diphtheria.

An inquisitive young man visited a County Jail the other day, and among his questions, asked a girl the cause of her being in such a place. Her answer was that she "stole a watermill, and went back after the stream that turned the mill, and was arrested." The young man left immediately.

Jarvis Public School report, subject, English History; marks, 100:—Sr. 4th class—Jessie Bennett 74, Lizzie Eaid 63, Walter Norris 64, Everett Boyd 59, Wm. Morrow 58, Russel Coleman 56, Homer Smithson 56, Lillie Porter 50, James Burwash 39, Lizzie Jackson 27, Albert Ivey 16, Edith Yocom 16, Uranit Church 16, Maggie Boyd 16. W. H. HAMMOND, Teacher.

The Dudley Comedy Company occupied the boards at the Music Hall here on Wednesday evening last with "Fate," and gave one of the best and most enjoyable entertainments ever given before a Jarvis audience. The Company consists of 14 members, an excellent band and orchestra. The support all round was unexceptionable, the orchestra efficient and charming and everything clean and proper. Though the audience was small, those who attended were highly pleased with the evening's entertainment, and we have no hesitation in saying that should they visit this place again they will be greeted with an overflowing house.
