A Present to Our Subscribers.

It is with pleasure that we announce to our many patrons that we have made arrangements with that wide-awake, illustrated farm magazine, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Fort Wayne, Ind., and read by nearly 200,000 farmers by which that great publication will be mailed direct, FREE, to the address of any of our subscribers who will come in and pay up all arrearsages on subscription and one year in advance from date, and to any new subscriber who will pay one year in advance. This is a grand opportunity to obtain a first-class farm journal free. The AMERICAN FARMER is a large 16-page journal, of national circulation, which ranks among the leading agricultural papers. It treats the question of economy in agriculture and the rights and privileges of that vast body of citizens—American Farmers—whose industry is the basis of all material and national prosperity. Its highest purpose is the elevation and ennobling of Agriculture through the higher and broader education of men and women engaged in its pursuits. The regular subscription price of the AMERICAN FARMER is $1.00 per year. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING. From any one number ideas can be obtained that will be worth three times the subscription price to you or members of your household. YET YOU GET IT FREE. Call and see sample copy.

Resolutions of Condolence.

COURT JARVIS, No. 138, I. O. F.

Jarvis, Sept. 29th, 1890.

To Bro. W. A. Ross:—Whereas it has pleased the creator of all things to remove from this world to a better the beloved wife of Bro. Wm. A. Ross, and also leaving him with a number of young motherless children, thereby filling him with sorrow at the loss sustained.

Resolved,—That while we bow with submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and trust that our Brother may be given strength to fight manfully with his hard lot and do assure that these trials are only meted out to us for our own good. "She cannot return to him, but he can go to her," and happy may that meeting be.

Resolved,—That we tender our beloved Brother our heartfelt sympathy, trusting that he may find comfort in Him who alone can bind up the wounds of those who are in trouble, or any other adversity.

Resolved, also,—That these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the court and that a copy be sent to the JARVIS RECORD for publication, and that our bereaved Brother be requested to accept the enclosed cheque (to assist in defraying the expenses caused by his loss), as a slight tribute of the regard and esteem in which he is held by his brother Foresters.

Don't forget the place, Main St. nearly opposite Knox Church. Terms Cash. Butter eggs and produce taken in exchange for goods. Goods delivered to all parts of the town. Yours truly, EZRA L. PARK, Manager.

Mr. E. C. Carpenter, of the Model Farm, wears a broad and expansive smile. He has just completed his wheat threshing, and is shaking hands with himself over the result. Fifty-three acres produced 1808 bushels, an average of almost 36 bushels to the acre. Twenty-five acres of Manchester averaged thirty nine bushels to the acre.—Reformer.

GETTING EVEN WITH A FAJIR.—The

fakir Mexican Charley was in Brussels 1st week and roped in a number of "suckers," who feeling aggrieved over the loss of $1, followed "Charley" to his hotel. A row ensued and the fakir drew his revolver, and advised all and sundry not to monkey with the show. For this little piece of sport "Dr." Charley paid into the town treasury in all $25.75. That is one way to even up things.

Farmers and others should keep an eye open for a new swindle which is accomplished by means of a double fountain pen, one end of which is filled with ink that fades away. The sharper writes his agreement with the ink that fades and his victim signs with the other end of the pen in the ink that lasts. In a few days he has a slip of paper with nothing on it but a good signature, over which he writes any kind of a note that he can most readily turn into cash.

BUT HE DOESN'T CATCH DOGS.—A resident of the thriving village of Acton offers to perform the following duties to the satisfaction of the council for the sum of $1 a day: "Build and repair sidewalks and roadways, keep streets free from weeds, assessing, collecting, caretaker of town hall and ringing bell, caretaker cemetery, poundkeeper, constable of public school and cut the wood required by the corporation." The council and ratepayers should surely be able to get value for their money in a deal like that.

An exchange has the following remarks which are worth pondering:—
There can be no doubt that a considerable number of people have not yet wholly recovered from the attack of la grippe, of which they were victims last winter. They are more susceptible to changes of the weather, and consequently to colds, than in ordinary seasons. Those weakened by attacks of the disease a few months ago, should feel under peculiar obligations to build up their health as much as possible during the fall in anticipation of what next winter may bring in the ordinary course. A "hard" winter following an uncommonly open one will be a severe trial for people who still feel "in their bones" or elsewhere, the effects of the malady which prostrated so many early in the year.

The Safest

AND most powerful alternative is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Young and old are alike benefited by its use. For the eruptive diseases peculiar to children nothing else is so effective as this medicine, while its agreeable flavor makes it easy to administer.

My little boy had large scrofulous ulcers on his neck and throat from which he suffered terribly.

Two physicians attended him, but he grew continually worse under their care, and everybody expected he would die. I had heard of the remarkable cures effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and decided to have my boy try it. Shortly after he began to take this medicine, the ulcers gradually healed, and after using several bottles, he was entirely cured. He is now as healthy and strong as any boy of his age."—William F. Dougherty, Hampton, Va.

"In May last, my youngest child, fourteen months old, began to have sores on his head and body. We applied various simple remedies without effect. The sores increased in number and discharged copiously. A physician was called, but the sores continued to multiply until in a few months the nearly covered the child's head and body. At last we began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a few days a marked change for the better was manifest. The sores assumed a more healthy condition, the discharges were gradually diminished, and finally ceased altogether. The child is lively, its skin is fresh and its appetite better than we have observed for months."—Frank M. Griffin, Long Point, Texas.

"The formula of Ayer's Sarsaparilla presents, for chronic diseases of almost every kind, the best remedy known to the medical world."—D. M. Wilson, M. D.; Wiggs, Arkansas.
