the United States has appointed Mr. C.
McGriffin, of New York, to take the place of Col. Schooley as United States Consul at Simcoe, Ontario.

The Races at Simcoe on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week were a decided success. Alvin trotted on Wednesday in 2:22 1/2, beating his Canadian Record which was 2:26 1/2. The other races were well contested.

J. A. Burwash's millinery rooms opened yesterday under the management of Miss McKinnon, of Parkhill.
Owing to illness, Miss Baker, of London, who was to have taken charge, was unable to accept the situation.

"Our next issue will be our last," writes a Georgia editor. "We are satisfied the people of this town can get along without us, for we have been getting along without the people for six months past. There are some subscriptions owing, but we will not collect them, as the citizens will soon need the money to defray the funeral expenses of the town."

The third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Want" advertisement.
If you want to buy or sell anything, if you want a situation, a mechanic, a business, machinery, lodgings, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find out where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto Daily Mail and read the advertisements on the third page of that paper. The charge is two cents a word each insertion. Address

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Hamilton College of Music in another column.

In a few short weeks the man who has been asking all summer "Is it hot enough for you?" will be yelling "shut the door."

"Now," said the tramp who had been laboring at the wood-pile, "I'll go around to the kitchen and see if I can't cash a few of these chips."

Fallis Bros. won first prize on their

In another column will be found the advertisement of the Hamilton College of Music, D. J. O'Brien, Director. This college was started by Mr. O'Brien in the summer of '87 and to-day has a large and efficient staff of teachers.
Pupils desirous of advancement in music would do well to correspond with Mr. O'Brien before looking elsewhere.

To avoid catching cold, many plans have been suggested. Probably if one never went anywhere or did anything out of the usual routine of life, they would be free from many ailments that flesh is heir to, but this is not a satisfactory solution of the question.
People must have recreation and enjoyment, and frequently catch cold in the pursuit of them. Wilson's Wild Cherry will cure a Cough or Cold in the shortest possible time, and by its tonic effects, strengthen and invigorate the system at the same time.
Sold by all druggists, in white wrappers.

The other evening as Mrs. E. Harris-son, Mrs. O. Grindall and Miss Lizzie Gibbs were returning home from camp meeting near the pond it began to rain and was very dark. They could not see their way and the huge rain in the ditch and turned the buggy upside down. Their screams aroused the neighbors and with their help they were soon out of the ditch. Mrs. Harrison fired the worst, she was unable to be out to the Sunday services. She has a number of bruises but it is hoped she will soon be around again.—Com.
