The new type setting machine, which has lately been invented to revolutionize the present system of throwing a newspaper together, will soon be put into the office of the Toronto Telegram. The operator of one of these machines can do the work of three or four ordinary printers it being worked like a type-writer and about the size of a sewing machine.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, has its enormous circulation because it does not encroach upon the local country paper's work. People everywhere find they need the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, in addition to their own local weekly. The Family Herald and Weekly Star has an enormous staff of high-salaried editors, and spends large sums gathering general news of the world at large, besides employing money freely in adding to its literary miscellany.

AN EYE TO BUSINESS.—The following appeared in a despatch from Woodstock of the 19th inst., to the Toronto Empire:—"A Selkirk, Ont., man apparently thinks there is some chance, and with an eye to business has sent the following precious letter to a county official:

DEAR SIR,—It Birchell is convicted and sentenced to hang, I want the job; I will hang him for $50 and find the rope. The crops is bad, and with the large duty on everything the farmer buys we have got to do something for to pull thro' the winter with. Let me know."

At an interim sessions held at Simcoe recently by His Honor Judge Robb, two young men from Brantford, named Joseph Johnson and James Vansickle, were arraigned, charged with stealing a horse blanket and other articles from the hotel barn of P. D. Marlatt, in Waterford. The prisoners were convicted. Vansickle was sentenced to the Central Prison for six months imprisonment; Johnson, owing to youth and previous good character, was discharged under suspended sentence.
