buildings and furnishing the same.

Mr. & Mrs. Edgar Lemon, of Hartford, were in town last week visiting with friends.

On Wednesday last a large picnic party drove to Port Dover consisting of Knox Church and the Methodist Sunday Schools. Excursions were given on the lake by the steamers. The pleasures of the day were somewhat marred by the constant thunder showers that took place.

A sad accident occurred to Mr. Owen Fathers, sr., a well-to-do farmer of South Cayuga, on Friday, 10th inst. He was engaged in cutting hay upon his farm, when, stepping in front of the finger bar to arrange some of the machinery, the horses started and his foot was caught by the knife and so severely cut that it has been found necessary to amputate it above the ankle.

LOST.—Shawl missing supposed to have got mixed up with the wraps of those taking part in the Old Folks' Concert on the night of the 25th of May last at Selkirk Town Hall. Any person in possession of a stray all-wool brown double shawl will oblige the owner by leaving the same at the Record office, or with the owner here. Mrs. J. W.
Holmes. Selkirk, July 18th, 1891.

Mr. Arthur Steel and Miss Lizzie Davenport joined destinies for life yesterday, and left for the East on their honeymoon. Both are highly respected and worthy young people, and we join with their many friends in wishing them all the joy of a long and happy wedded life. They were married at the residence of the bride's father, Rutherford Ave., by the Rev. T. Cullen.
—Aylmer Express. Mr. Steel with his bride were the guests of his mother, Mrs. Steele, landlady of the Exchange hotel, last week.

The brisk little town of Delhi is again to the fore. Last week the merchants signed a petition to close their places of business at 6 o'clock on Thursday evenings, and other evenings at 8 o'clock.
Why the Jarvis merchants don't do something similar we can't understand.
From 7 a.m. to 9 and 10 p.m., are very long hours to be confined to a store.
If some of the clerks would circulate a petition to close, say Wednesday evening, at 6 o'clock and other evenings, except Saturday, at 8 o'clock we believe it would meet the approval of their employers. Try it.

AMONG THE HORSES.—There are few travelers on the road as energetic and pushing as Mr. A. W. Wright, who represents the great Ivory bar and Electric magic soap, manufactured by A. Watt & Co., Brantford. He was drawn into town last week by his famous little pony Peter, which was bred in Hagersville and sold to Mr.
Wright, by that well known horseman Jack Patterson, of Paris, Ont. Peter has completed 14000 miles of roading with Mr. Wright, and is in prime condition and is good for as many more.

"Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the local newspaper publisher daily hears. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request thinks the granting scarcely worth saying thank you for. A newspaper is a peculiar article in the public's eye. The news-gatherer is stormed at because he gets hold one item, and is abused because he does not get another.
Young men and often young women, as well as older, perform acts which become legitimate items for publication, and then rush to the newspaper offices to beg the editors not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party for doing the same thing they were guilty of. The subscribers expect to read the news, and there is always wonder when for charity's sake an item on the street and in everybody's mouth is not found in the next issue of the paper.

LITERARY NOTES.—"The Chautauquans" is the name of a serial which will be begun in the New York Ledger of July 25. It was written for the Ledger by John Habberton, the popular author of "Helen's Babies" and other well-known works, who enjoys the enviable reputation of always writing a good book. He thinks "The Chautauquans" is the best story he ever wrote, and we agree with him in that opinion. Mr. Habberton is an enthusiastic supporter of the famous Chautauqua educational enterprise, and the characters in his "Chautauquans" are all interested in that wonderful movement. They are so veritably human, however, that, although devoted to the improvement of their minds, they cannot restrain the affections of their hearts.
They fall in love like other people, and like other people, they find that the course of true love never does run smooth. But what cannot the human mind and the human heart accomplish when the mind thirsts for knowledge and the heart hungers for love! Mr.
Habberton, in "The Chautauquans," shows what the human mind and the human heart can do when thus inspired, even under the most distressing discouragements. We have no hesitation in expressing our conviction that every one who reads "The Chautauquans" will be delighted with it as well as enlightened by it.

The table glassware manufacturers of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia have combined under the name of the United States Glass Company, with a capital of $1,000,000.
