Oswego, U. S., who have been on a visit to Mr. B. Stallwood, of Jarvis, left for home on Friday last.

FIRE! FIRE!—Great reductions in Dowding's ten cent counter. Don't forget the place, the photo gallery, next door to Park & Co's.

Mr. John M. Parsons, of London, general agent for the "Ronald Fire Steamer," manufactured at Brussels, Ont., was in town on Thursday last.

Last Saturday night was Halloween and a number of depredations such as carrying off gates, piling cord wood against doors, etc., were indulged in.

Mr. B. Taylor, night operator at the G. T. R. station, left on Saturday for his home in London for a couple of weeks vacation. Mr. John McMullen, of Cayuga, is relieving him.

F. H. Dowding has moved his stock of hardware, which was saved from the fire, into the photo gallery building where he will offer great bargains until all is cleared out. Give him a call.

Rev. Charles R. Morrow, pastor of the Methodist Church, attended the Provincial Sabbath School Association held at Ottawa last week, and was elected a member of the Provincial Executive Committee.

At Waterford, the other day, Mr.
Samuel Hern, aged 73 years, celebrated with a social gathering the anniversary of his birth. At the assemblage were three persons over 80 years of age, and eleven over 70 years.

LOMINION VOTER'S LISTS.—All the Courts for the revision of the voter's lists have been held in this County but three, and these will be held in Hagersville, Nov. 7th; Oneida, Nov. 12th; Walpole, Nov. 13th and 14th.

Counterfeit half dollars are in circulation in some places. They are a poor imitation of the Newfoundland issue of 1874, lacking the milling on the edge, and being light in weight are easily detected. Better be on the lookout for them however.

She couldn't cook a turkey,
Or make a pumpkin pie,
And as for frying doughnuts She simply wouldn't try.
She couldn't set a table,
Her bread would never rise,
And yet her husband called her His sweet Thanksgiving prize.
For though on all housekeeping Her faculties were lame, She had a hundred thousand In her own sweet name.

FOUND DEAD.—William Moore, of Caledonia, went for a drive shortly after 11 o'clock on Wednesday last.
The next thing heard of him was that his body had been discovered lying on the side of the road badly disfigured, life being entirely extinct. How the accident occurred will never be known, no one being near at the time. The corpse which deceased was driving has been known to run away on more than one occasion. Mr. Moore had only been married about a year and leaves a wife and young son.

Miss Ida Maxwell, of Simcoe, spent Sunday in this village, the guest of Mrs.
A. F. Jones.

Mrs. Dougherty and family moved to town last week into their fine new brick house on Talbot street.

Busy dealing out bargains; tremendous sacrifice in copper boilers, copper tea-kettles, lanterns and tinware. All stock reduced. PEDLOW & Co.

Raffle for turkeys, geese and ducks at the Commercial Hotel on Wednesday evening, Nov. 4th, to commence at 8 o'clock sharp. Come and get a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner.

Ivey, Allen & Co's private bank in this village is doing a rushing business of late. Their banker speaks very highly of Jarvis as a banking town, and thinks if business keeps increasing as it is at present it will be necessary to increase their staff. See adv't in another column.

At Simcoe on Friday morning last the 2 year-old son of Frank McCall obtained some matches, which became ignited, and in a few moments his clothing was all ablaze. His mother, seeing the flames, snatched up the child and was badly burned about the hands and arms. The boy only lived a few hours.

A grand Concert will be given by the pupils of Jarvis Public School on Friday evening next in Chambers' Hall. Proceeds are to be used in purchasing school supplies. It is to be hoped the parents and the public will recognize the efforts of the young folk by a large attendance. Admission, adults 15c., children 10c. Concert to begin at 8 o'clock.

Editors as a rule are kind hearted and liberal. An exchange tells of a subscriber of a certain paper who died and left fourteen years subscription unpaid. The editor appeared at the grave just as the lid of the coffin was being screwed down for the last time and put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan, and a receipt for making ice.

A widow with two girls married a widower with two boys, and had a second family by her new husband.
When a terrible rumpus was heard in the nursery one day the nervous husband shouted upstairs: "Whatever is the matter?" The little wife answered sweetly over the balusters. "It's only my children and your children having a row with our children, dear!"

On Saturday last while Mrs. Ivey and two children, of Jarvis, were returning home from this place, where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Elmer, during the day, when turning the corner on Yankee street, she turned the horse a little to short in order to avoid a mud hole and upset the buggy, throwing them out, cutting her head severely and otherwise shaking her up.
The children were more fortunate and escaped uninjured.—Waterford Star.

The wind blew down the verandah in front of J. Hull's house on Saturday night last.
