JARVIS RECORD.

Wednesday, Nov. 25, 1891.

AROUND THE HUB.

Nothing to speak of—your neighbors affairs.

The Commercial Hotel is being re-shingled. To-morrow is Thanksgiving day in the States.

Mr. Hugh Scott, of Caledonia, was in town Monday night. A Bible printed 325 years ago is on exhibition in a Toronto book-store.

We never saw a man so sanctified that he smiled when he paid his taxes.

To-night (Tuesday) Hartley & Gordon's Novelty and Specialty Co. Don't miss it. Mr. Arthur Slater returned home on Saturday evening after a month's trip to Manitoba.

Iron is good for the blood, but no man likes to have it administered in the form of carpet tacks. The rains of the past few days have soaked the ground thoroughly and left the roads in a bad condition.

New goods for the Christmas trade are being received at C. G. Allen's. See advt in another column.

Mr. Jonathan Donn has been appointed tax collector of Woodhouse in place of Mr. Cruickshank deceased.

The Guelich Company have laid down 80000 worth of their silica-barytic sidewalks in Tisonburg this year.

Ten to one woman could keep a secret if she could only find some other way to prove that she knew it.

Mr. Hendershot, of North Norwich, last week sold $45 worth of turkeys, the produce of two birds this season. Read the new advertisement of Thomas Lees, watchmaker, jeweler and optician, Hamilton, in another column.

"What is that tune the young lady is treating so abominably? Do you recognize it?" "Yes! its name is 'Dennis!'"

FOR SALE.—Six pounds finest granulated, or seven pounds nice yellow sugar for a quarter. Hamilton Tea Company, Hamilton, 28-1yr.

Mr. John McNeaney killed a fine big eight months old porker last week which weighed 310 lbs. dressed. This was a hog. Who can beat it?

The Record is clubbed with all the leading papers in Canada at lowest rates. Call in and see what advantage it is to subscribe through us.

"There's a good deal of sarcasm in that," remarked a man with the ague, as the druggist handed him a bottle of medicine labeled, "shake before using."

Messrs. W. A. Caldwell and T. E. Morrow will unload a car load of potatoes at this station on Friday. Parties wanting potatoes can get them cheaper than the cheapest.

We are pleased to see that Mr. B. Millenbacher is able to be out again. His eye is getting along very nicely and he expects to be able to attend to business again shortly.

The new sidewalk has been built in place of the one recently destroyed by fire. It not only makes a much better appearance to the street but is more convenient for the public.

It is now a crime to print or sell raffle tickets. A Peterborough printer was fined $5 and costs the other day for the former offence and another man was fined the same amount for selling them.

The Hamilton Weekly Spectator and Jarvis Record from now till the end of 1892, also the great premium picture, "Songs of Love," to any address for only $1.75. Subscribe now and get the balance of 1891 free.

The report which appeared in our last issue that George Boyd, brakeman, had his arm taken off while coupling cars at Toronto, we are pleased to state that we have since learned is incorrect. 'Tis strange how such reports get circulated.

Mr. William Saunders, formerly of Selkirk, died in Toronto on the 11th inst., of typhoid fever, in the 46th year of his age. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. He was a charter member of Selkirk Lodge 132, A. O. U. W.

T. E. Morrow, the old reliable, has had a new floor put in his grocery store. The interior of the store has been thoroughly cleaned and treated to a coat of fresh paint, which makes a decided improvement in its appearance. Drop in and see for yourselves.

CHAS. CLUTHE, INVENTOR AND PATENTEE OF TRUSSES, and appliances for Club feet, Spinal Curvature, Paralysis, Weak Legs, Bow Legs, &c., will visit the American Hotel in Hamilton on Saturday, November the 28th. This opportunity of consulting a man of his experience and ability personally should not be missed, as he is compelled to limit his usual visits and attend the office and factory in Toronto, where he may be found daily except Saturdays. Remember the day and date.—Saturday, November the 25th.

Minard's Liment cures Dandruff.

"No Shouting on my property" is displayed on a farm in North Ekfrid. That is enough to scare away not merely hunters, but also the game.

W. J. Morden, a gardener of Bullock's Corners, near Hamilton, has grown peanuts on his farm. They look and taste like the southern varieties.

According to the Delhi Reporter it takes five days for the Reporters to reach Brandy Creek, just four miles. Mail must be hustled in great style in that section.

The Jarvis Grist Mill is still running. We are giving 40 lbs of first-class flour, 10 lbs bran and 3 lbs shorts, per 60 lbs. good wheat. Chopping 7c. per 100 lbs. G. COLES, miller. 47-3

Jonathan Booth has returned from the North west and will be at the Exchange Hotel, Jarvis, on Friday and Saturday of this week, to purchase another car load of good blocky mares.

The JARVIS RECORD and Weekly Empire will be sent to subscribers from now until Jan. 1st, 1893, for $1.75. This will include the beautiful memorial album issued as a souvenir by the Empire.

Mr. Thos. Eid and Master Ed. Eid arrived home safely on Wednesday evening last from British Columbia after an absence of over two months. They expect to go back again in March with another car load of horses.

Go and see Hartley & Gordon's Novelty and Specialty Co. in the Music Hall to-night (Tuesday). Don't fail to see Thompson and Jarrett, the world renowned tumblers, and Gordon & Weston the two great comedians. Popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cts.

The town of Dunnville is now supplied with natural gas, and coal and wood for heating purposes have been driven entirely out of use. As at Kingsville, gas for stoves is supplied for $1 to $2 a month, and as there is no limit to the length of piping, one stove can be made to heat a good sized house.

Mrs. C. Robinson had the misfortune to meet with a painful accident on Saturday evening last while on her way home. The sidewalk being wet and slippery she fell near Mr. B. Millenbacher's residence on Peel St. breaking her arm just above the wrist. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Howell and is doing as well as can be expected.

As the holiday season approaches weddings are becoming more numerous. In most instances when a wedding takes place three parties are made happy, the newly wedded pair and the minister. The clergymen of Jarvis are noted for being liberal minded and anxious to propagate any new enterprise, consequently they do the work very reasonably.

An eastern exchange says that a swindler has been going about neighboring towns representing himself as an agent of a large firm dealing in rugs and carpets. He carried with him a large stock of membership tickets and all who paid him 25 cents had a chance of drawing one of the tickets which entitles the purchaser to a rug. The people are anxiously awaiting their goods. Look out for him. He may give you a real some of these days.

Coming to Hamilton, Chas. Curbe, 134 King St. West, Toronto, Ont. May be consulted at the American Hotel in Hamilton on Saturday, November the 28th. Mr. Curbe's reputation as a mechanical genius for overcoming all cases of deformities, such as club feet, spinal curvature, paralysis, bow legs, etc., is well known throughout the Dominion of Canada. Anybody ruptured will hear and see something which they never dreamt could be done. A revolution in trusses is appending, come and see. He is compelled to limit his usual visits and attend the office and factory in Toronto, where he may be found daily except Saturdays.

The trial of the election petition against the return of John Charlton, Liberal member of the House of Commons for North Norfolk, came on at Simcoe for trial on Wednesday last before Hon. Mr. Justice Ferguson and Hon. Mr. Justice Robertson. Mr. W. E. Fisk, for the petitioner, stated that he had no evidence to offer, and the petition was accordingly dismissed.

The cross petition against the Conservative candidate, Dr. Lucien Sinclair, was also dismissed with costs. Mr. Wells, Q. C., counsel for the petitioner in the cross petition, stating that he had no evidence upon which to succeed.
