AROUND THE HUB.

Township schools opened on Monday. Fruit dealers prophesy that this fall it is hoped their will be fulfilled.

Monday, Sept. 3rd, Labor been fixed by the Dominion as a public holiday.

100,000 Doz. Eggs wanted for by Will & Jones, delivered at rate, Jarvis. Encourage cash dealers.

The contract for the erection of the new town hall in Cayuga was let to Mr. James Jack, of DeCawville, for the sum of $3,900.

A man with a creditable past is an object of great interest to the practical girl, but the summer girl likes a man with a present.

Dolce, owned by Len Bros., won the 228 race at the Woodbine races at Toronto last week. It took six heats to decide the race.

Lost—On Monday, between Jarvis and the Stone Church, a Meerscham pipe in case. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to this office.

The 28th annual rifle match of the 37th Canadian Militia, Rifles, will be held at the regimental ranges, York, on Thursday, Sept. 20, and following days.

The corporation of Tilsonburg are so well pleased with the pavement put in by the Ingersoll Sillan Barytic Co. that they have contracted for 25,000 square feet more.

A party was given at the residence of Mr. John Aiken on Friday evening last. A large number of guests were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Roller Mill is now running night and day to its utmost capacity. Mr. Smith has received an order for ten car loads of flour, which will keep the mill busy for some time.

It is reported that the Czar of Russia has offered the owners of Alvin, at one time the great Canadian flyer, 10,000 roubles, or $75,000, for the horse, provided he can cover two miles in 4.40.

Saturday evening, Aug. 25th, between 8 and 10 o'clock, we will sell 18 full size white honey comb quilts, fringed, worth $1.25 and $1.50, for 80c each. Northway, Anderson & Fells, Simcoe.

Letters of administration of the estate of Daniel B. Scott, of Townsend, who died 10th April, 1894, have been granted to his widow, Mrs. Roxa Scott. Estate valued at $7,070. C. C. Backus, Solicitor.

If you contemplate having your residence photographed this spring, leave your order at the Jarvis Photo Studio, which is open every Saturday. Satisfaction given in all branches of the art.

How dear to our heart is cash on subscription, when the generous subscriber presents it in view. But the man who doesn't pay—we refrain from description, for perhaps gentle reader, that man might be you.

Rev. G. A. MacLennan, pastor of Knox Church, accompanied by his wife and child, left on Monday for a few weeks visit at Pinkerton. Therefore there will be no service in the church on Sunday next or the following Sunday.

Trainer Geo. Henning passed through here on Monday with a string of five horses for the St. Thomas races, which are being held this week. The string consisted of Dolce, 2283, Bryson, 2213, Demand, 229, Matt, and Aberdeen Clay, a promising yearling.

The Warden, under the authority of a resolution passed at the June Session of the County Council, has issued his check to Lieut.-Col. Davis, of the 37th Battalion, for $600 to assist in purchasing helmets for the Battalion, he being satisfied that the Government has refused to furnish them.

The Jarvis Public School opens on Monday next. A few changes have been made in the teaching staff owing to Miss Hartwell leaving. Miss Adeline Hunter has been engaged to teach in the junior room, while Miss Williamson and Miss Martin have each been promoted to a higher room.

On Saturday or Sunday night last some parties went to Mr. Samuel Hunter's bee hives and took a quantity of honey besides damaging the hives. This is the second time this has been done, and Mr. Hunter will give a liberal reward for information that will lead to the conviction of the guilty parties.

St. Thomas races opened yesterday. The Kentucky editor has a hard time of it. One was used for libel recently by a woman, because in announcing the death of her husband he remarked, "The deceased has gone to a happier home."

Lost—Between the Bank of Commerce and John Aiken's residence, on Friday evening, 17th inst., a Garnet ring, gold setting. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to H. Armstrong at the Bank.

There were nearly 100 delegates present, representing every municipality in the county. The following were the officers elected:—President, Dr. Thompson, Cayuga; First Vice-President, Thomas Marshall, Dunnville; Second Vice-President, A. Williamson, York; Secretary, J. F. Macdonald, Dunnville; Treasurer, J. A. Murphy, Cayuga; Executive Committee, the above officers and the chief presiding officer of each municipality.

The Post Office Department has issued a notice stating that postmasters have heretofore only been authorized to return direct to the senders if undelivered, after a certain time, the class of letters known as "request" letters, that is, those bearing a printed request for their direct return in case of non-delivery. In future, letters, which, without being "requested" letters, bear in the corner of the envelope the printed address of the sender, may also be returned direct to the addressee, instead of being sent to the dead letter office. No period being mentioned in these cases, postmasters will not return such letters until making up their dead letter return.
